AXE FALLS ON TWO OF ROURKE'S LADS

Neiman and Tiloski, Two Semi-Pro Youths, Are Given Their Unconditional Release.

MAYOR TO GO TO ST. JOSEPH

The well-known axe dropped in Rourke camp Monday and two athletes were given the gate and a fast track home-ward. The unfortunates were Tiloski and Neiman, infielder and catcher. Both are semi-pro players and have not had enough experience to cling to a class A job.

Manager Krug put his men through three hours of strenuous practice during the heat of noon yesterday. "Believe me, lads," quoth Krug upon his arrival at the club house, "you birds are going to hustle some between now and the opening." And he proceeded to show 'em that he meant business.

He made a switch in the lineup, which may remain permanent. He shifted Doc Payne into left field and took up the hot third corner himself. During the infield practice the manager certainly made things hum with his ginger and Frits

Schliebner was almost overcome, as he was the center for most of the attack.

Willis Shaves His Knob. Ralph Willis appeared on the lot with his bean shaved as smooth as a billiard ball. He shaved his cap on one side of his head and tried to show up his companions by knocking the ball through them. Before he got through he had Bettleship Schliebner as groggy as if a submarine had spiked him.

The Rourkees were all strong yesterday and everybody took a hand at uncoupling bettle heads into the bleachers and outfield. They ate a lot of fresh oatmeal at breakfast and were feeling very chipper.

Red Styles was not present at the workout. He strained his back trying to pitch the ball past the Lincoln bats last Saturday and is unable to take part in strenuous exercise.

Pa Rourke has announced that tickets for the opening game will be placed on sale Thursday at several downtown points. He has also hired a band to dispense melody at the opening. In view of the fact that there will be no parade, Pa tried to get an orchestra, but was talked out of it by Al Fairweather, who declares his hand has got any orchestra in the world best forty ways from the deuce.

Dahlman to Catch First Ball. Mayor Dahlman has decided to accept the invitation to attend the opening at St. Joseph, Friday. The mayor will catch the first ball pitched by Mayor

Marshall of Joetown. "That is, the mayor will try to catch it. His press agent says he will catch it, but you never can tell how truthful are press agents." Mrs. Dahlman will accompany the mayor. The Rourkees will leave Thursday evening, traveling in a special car. Friday morning Mrs. Rourke will lead a party of Omaha fans down, including the mayor and Mrs. Dahlman. Dan Butler declares he will try to go and Dick Grote will be on hand. Floyd Greedy intends to pilot a party of ten to the opening.

Willie Crosby Signs Grand Island Contract. Willie Lee Crosby, catcher for the Rourkees last year, has signed a contract to play with the Grand Island club. Crosby was released to the state league last summer, but refused to report and went back to his home in Texas. The base ball germ got too strong for him this spring, though, and he has notified Manager Clink Claire that he will be good and play as per orders this year.

Tarkio Loses to Cotner. TARKIO, Mo., April 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Tarkio lost the opening baseball game on the diamond here today to Cotner university, 5 to 3.
