chairman of the tellers, owing to the absence of Mrs. C. H. Aull. There have also been several changes in the tellers since the election of club officers. The press committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has issued announcements of the biennial council meeting, which will be held in Portland, Ore., May 21, June 1, 2 and 3. In addition to the officers, directors, heads of departments, committee members, state presidents and General Federation state secretaries, hundreds of delegates from state federations and individually federated clubs will attend the meeting, as well as other club women interested in the woman's club movement. Mrs. F. H. Cole, who is General Federation chairman of the civil service reform department, and Mrs. A. G. Peterson, state president, are among Nebraska women planning to attend. U. S. Grant Woman's Relief Corps No. 104 will entertain at Kensington at the home of Mrs. R. S. Wilcox, 1306 Lothrop street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Initial work on the referendum petition for prohibition will be taken up by the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance Union on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Young Men's Christian association. An educational program will be given. The final meeting of the South Omaha Woman's club will follow a luncheon at the First Christian church, Tuesday, when Rev. J. A. Alber will deliver an address on "The Race Superior." Special invitations have been extended Mrs. A. G. Peterson, state president, and all state officers and chairmen of committees, who will be in attendance at the Benson meeting, Thursday, to be guests of honor at this time. The committee in charge of the luncheon includes Mrs. George B. Jones, chairman, and Mesdames A. D. Majors, R. O. Bagby, D. F. Clarke, Roy Dennis and Walter Nitsche. The new officers will be installed by the retiring president, Mrs. N. H. Graham, who will preside at the meeting. The Rev. C. N. Dawson will speak on "Christian Citizenship" before the Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance Union, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. U. G. Browne, 1129 South Twenty-eighth street. The last lecture of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts for the year will be given Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Thomas R. Kimball, F. A. I. A. His subject will be "The Roman-His Palaces and Villas—His Modern Debtor, the Architect," under the general head "The Life and Art of Rome." Each member is privileged to bring one guest. The annual business meeting will precede the lecture, being called for 3 o'clock. The Research club will meet at St. Berchman's academy this afternoon at 8:30 o'clock. Father de Schriver will give a stereopticon lecture. There will be a called meeting of the trustees of the Old People's Home immediately following the meeting of the board of managers, which will be held Tuesday morning at the Old People's Home. Mrs. Edward Johnson is planning to go to Atchison, Kan., this week to attend a board meeting of the west central district of the Woman's American Foreign Missionary society. The Woman's Baptist Missionary quarterly of Omaha, South Omaha, Florence, Council Bluffs and Benson will meet at the First Baptist church of Omaha, Debatonals will be at 11 o'clock and will be followed by a luncheon served by the women of the church.
