ATHLETES SPLASH ROUND IN MUD

By F. S. HUNTER.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April M .- (Special Telegram.)-Although Jackie Holland rang some fourteen alleged athletes into the postponed opener here today, Marty Krug's hopefuls were not to be denied and they very properly subdued the Josies, 4 to 3, after a strenuous two hours and ten minutes of pastiming. The victory was a very clammy affair

The diamond oozed mud all over the bright new uniforms of the athletes and caused considerable slipping and sliding. Franklin Johnson and his speed ball started the battle for the Rourkes, but Franklin got a little wild in the sixth frame, and, with three on the paths and a run over, Krug hustled Tom Blodgett out of the trenches to reinforce the tottering Rourkes. It was a ticklish situation for a green pitcher, but the Kansas farmer was all to the mustard and he promptly whiffed Mr. Williams and saved

Johnson Slow Starting. The Josies started on Johnson in the opening chapter and successive hits by Fox, Britton and Watson netted the hostiles a count. Johnson then settled down and heaved masterful ball for the following four rounds, only to elip in the sixth, when Blodgett came to the rescue in the nick of time,

With Breen down, Krug nicked a slat for a single to center in the third and swiped second. It was a delayed steal and he caught Olson flat-footed off the bag. He went to third on Thomason's out and Krueger's single, following a walk to Huelsman, counted him.

Hollanders Rattled. A very weird inning in which the Rourkes made nary a hit netted two counts for our side. Thomason was safe on Olson's punk heave. Huelsman laid with Denver for yesterday's defeat by and Frank to trip lightly to third, poor, Score: Krueger coaxed a walk and Schliebner rolled one to Baker. Baker mussed up the ball, picked it up and held it while everybody ran. Huelsman in the freefor-all sprinting ran for home and landed safely, while Baker still held the pill firmly grasped in his noble mitt.

Walks to Fox and Britton, followed by Watson's single, gave the Josies one in the seventh and a walk to Fox (one the umpire missed), an infield hit by Britton and Patterson's blow to right counted another in the eighth. Score: OMAHA.

OMAHA OPENS WITH SIOUX CITY TUESDAY

And Pa Rourke Violates All Custom by Eliminating the Usual Pomp and Ceremony.

SOME SURPRISES ARE PROMISED

With the customary pomp and eclat conspicuous by its absence the opening game at Rourke park will be played Tuesday, with only the athletes reared and ruled by Marty Krug and Josh Clark to furnish the entertainment. This is a radical departure from the decrees laid down by custom. That a minor league magnate should be so brave and bold to eliminate a parade before the game has been heretofore unheard of, but Pa Rourke has decided that parades are for circuses and minstrel shows and that ball games at his park are not such activities even though there are those who make such assertions.

In other words Pa is leading an uplift movement which will tend to keep our national pastime from entering the same class as weddings and funerals.

Mayor to Heave. Of course, there will be a few doings at the park so that the fans may distinguish this game from all others. Something must be done to make an opening game different from others. So Al. Fairweather will cut loose his one-lunged band and the well known mayor will heave the first ball into the arena. The mayor has become some heaver. He has officiated for some nine years now and is almost as good as Grover Cleveland Alexander. There is one opening day feature which is calculated to dazzle the eyes of the large mob which is sure to gather. The features has to do with a few vicissitudes or, one might say, mutations. Dave is the gink responsible for the said vicissitudes and the other day in the presence of a couple sleuth-like repre-sentatives of the daily press he casually mentioned them. The alteraof burn weats in favor of new ones and the sepainting of the entire plant. Brother Dave has the entire grandstand covered with nice green paint and on the outside glistening white paint makes the park look like a new cafe. The fences have all been freshly painted and to quote very press agently, "the entire plant is going to look resplendent in its new Brother Dave cannot be too highly recommended for his noble efforts. Brother Dave also promises another surprise to the fans. As is generally known he is the well known concession merchant and he admits the sums prise has to do with the concessing. Several box parties have been arranged The editors and managing editors of the three papers have been invited to sit in the same box. Rourke declares he has at last reached the stage where he is so reckles he doesn't care how much of a chance he takes.

Frances Hochstetler and a party of Ak-Sar-Ben ladies will have a box of their own from which to witness Pa's boys pastime. All of the boxes will be decorated in gay colors and if it rains the colors will be still gayer.
