HOWELL STARTS LONG DRIVE

U. S. District Attorney Must Be in Chicago Friday Morning—Is a Novice at the Wheel.

HE SCORNS SMOOTH RAILROADS—Yesterday morning a big automobile was seen gliding rapidly across the Douglas street bridge eastbound.

Who was this man and about how far away was the look in his eyes? The man was Frank S. Howell, United States attorney.

The look in his eyes was about 302.4 miles away, that is to say, Chicago. Government business demands the presence of Mr. Howell in Chicago Friday.

True, gentle reader, there are several fairly reliable railroads running trains daily from here thither, but Mr. Howell scorned their rapid, smooth, luxurious trains.

But 302.4 miles in two days! "Some speed, Frank," his friends are apostrophizing.

Certain suspicious persons there are who suggest that it will be easy enough for the United States attorney to leave his car at some obscure garage in, say, Clinton, take the train from there to Chicago and back, and then drive triumphantly into Omaha in the car and look wise when friends gaze upon him as the demon motorist.

Jealousy and envy probably instigate such remarks. They are really not worth listening to. Make your own bets.

Judge T. C. Manger has begun the hearing in federal court of the suit of the Omaha Water board and the City of Omaha against the City of South Omaha, the Union Stock Yards company and the Armour, Swift, Cudahy and Omaha packing companies.
