

VIENNA TELLS OF DASH INTO GALICIA

Austro-German Troops Had Been Concentrating for Three Weeks Preparing for Movement.

THOUSANDS OF RUSS ARE TAKEN

VIENNA, May 4.—(Via London.)—War bulletins issued by the Austro-German army headquarters and posted in Vienna yesterday and today bring news of the Austrian-German victory over the Russians in western Galicia.

A large Austro-German army had been steadily concentrating before Cracow for the last three weeks, with the idea of making a new offensive movement. All available Austro-Hungarian troops have been quietly transferred during this time to the Dunajec front and for a fortnight past an unbroken stream of troop trains has been pouring eastward from Frankfurt, Berlin and other German railroad centers. Thus war warning given that big events were impending in the east. Newspaper correspondents were permitted to telegraph that a new offensive on the Russian front was in preparation, and even to intimate that the blow would fall neither in the Mazurian lake regions nor in the Carpathians. Closer indications, of course, were out of the question.

How Campaign Was Planned.

Final plans for this movement were approved at a conference held in Berlin April 22 between General Von Falkenhayn, chief of the German staff, and Field Marshal Conrad, Austro-German chief of the Austrian staff. General Mackensen, commander of the German sixth army, who came from the front in Poland, also was present at the Berlin conference. He left for the front to take command of the new army that same night, after receiving his final instructions. So far as is known, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg did not attend the Berlin council of war, although he visited German headquarters with General Mackensen shortly previous to this.

It is too early to discuss the full military effect of this victory in Galicia, but it is the opinion of Austrian observers that the German and Austrian strategists "got the jump" on the offensive which the Russians were believed to be planning and of which their campaign in the Carpathians was thought to have been preliminary.

The number of prisoners taken by the Austro-Germans mentioned in the first report is noticeably small, but the experts here expect that the total number of men captured and the amount of war booty will grow rapidly.

A significant feature of the reports of this victory is the reference to the piercing of the front of the Russian army. The Russian commanders up to the present time usually have been able to avoid a breach in their line by falling back before the line broke.

Southern Wing Stormed. A correspondent of the Neue Freie Presse of Vienna, in the theater of the war has sent the following dispatch concerning the battle of Sunday in West Galicia:

"The Austro-Hungarian offensive succeeded with surprising rapidity. The Russian occupied naturally strong positions on the Dunajec and the Biala, which had been strengthened with every imaginable method of fortifications. They felt themselves absolutely secure. After a week-long artillery preparation, consisting in intensely anything which has occurred on the northeastern front, the Austrians and Hungarians advanced Sunday on the southern wing. They stormed at the first attempt the Russian positions along a front of more than forty kilometers (twenty-four miles), stretching from the Biala river through Corbice far into the Carpathian mountains. Their assault was so fierce that the Russian line broke immediately. Many thousands of prisoners were taken, as well as an inestimable quantity of equipment, supplies, cannon and machine guns.

"At the same time on the northern wing another successful advance was carried out." The Viennese correspondent continues. "At this point Austrian and Hungarian troops crossed the Dunajec in spite of terrific opposition, stormed the Russian positions and took over 1,000 prisoners.

"Other brilliant successes also are reported from the Carpathians."

U. S. and England Have Not Discussed Japanese Question

LONDON, May 4.—The United States and Great Britain have entered into no formal negotiations on the subject of Japan's demands on China. Announcement to this effect was made in the House of Commons today by the British foreign minister, Mr. Edward Grey. They foreign minister added that the only communication of the sort between the American and British governments had been a brief and formal conversation in February between Ambassador Page and a representative of Great Britain.

Asked for a statement on the progress of the negotiations between China and Japan, the foreign secretary told his constituents in the House of Commons that Great Britain had been in communication with the Japanese government on the subject of the Anglo-Japanese agreement generally and particularly concerning those British interests which might possibly conflict with the competing Japanese demands on China. These negotiations, however, he said were strictly confidential.

Asked if he were going to do nothing "while Japan by military force, having steadily 40,000 troops in China, had imposed its authority on China" and whether Great Britain was not bound by treaty to defend the integrity of China or if he was "prepared to regard that treaty as a scrap of paper" Mr. Grey reiterated that he was not at liberty to discuss the actual terms of the Japanese demands.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—President Wilson has heard no word today of any ultimatum by Japan to China and was not inclined to credit it.

AUSTRIAN GAINS IN GALICIA BIG FEATURE OF DAY

Russia is again co-operating in the attack on Constantinople by renewing bombardment of the Bosphorus forts. Italy is occupying the center of the diplomatic stage, but there is little in the way of authentic news from London. Latest information is that negotiations between Austria and Italy, after being broken off as the result of a deadlock, have once more been resumed.

The crisis in the Sino-Japanese negotiations is attracting much attention here. The press discusses the controversy with reserve, although this attitude does not conceal the fact that there is considerable uneasiness over the situation in the far east.

Memorial is Held for Judge McPherson

RED OAK, Ia., May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—The entire afternoon session of district court was dispensed with today to give way for the memorial services of the Montgomery county bar, held in respect to the memory of the late Judge Smith McPherson of this city. The services, which were simple and impressive, occupied the greater part of the afternoon, during which time there were short addresses by a large number of local attorneys, as well as several who came from neighboring towns, all of whom had known Judge McPherson as a judge and a friend.

Many townspeople were present at the services aside from the attorneys and court officials. In the course of the program resolutions of respect were passed. Among the friends of the late judge who came from neighboring towns were: Senator C. G. Saunders of Council Bluffs; Judge J. M. Lewis and Clyde Jensen from Glenwood, Earl Ferguson, C. E. Barnes and G. M. Jennings of Shenandoah, S. J. McCord of Clarinda, Judge E. B. Woodruff of Glenwood, who is presiding, was among the speakers, as were also Judge Lewis, Senator Saunders, Attorneys T. J. Hysham, R. W. Beeson, F. P. Greenlee, Ralph Pringle, P. W. Richards and W. C. Ratcliff.

Lawson's Lawyers Will Ask New Trial

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 4.—Counsel for John R. Lawson, labor leader convicted of murder, today were at work on an application for a new trial. Thirty days was allowed for filing the application before Judge Granby Hillier in the district court of Las Animas county. In the meantime Lawson is at liberty on a $20,000 bond signed by himself and Horace N. Hawkins, his chief counsel. Frank West, assistant attorney general, remained in Trinidad to prepare for further prosecutions by the state in cases growing out of disorders in the recent strike of coal miners.

ITALY'S ENTRANCE INTO WAR DELAYED

Refusal of King to Attend Dedication of Garibaldi Monument Indicates Change in Situation.

KAISER MAKES NEW PROPOSAL

ROME, May 4.—(Via Paris.)—The decision of King Victor Emmanuel not to take part in the ceremony of the unveiling of the Garibaldi monument at Quarto Dant Elena is being commented on today as a step of great significance.

The presence of his majesty at the unveiling had come to be regarded as tantamount to a declaration of war. Now the change in the king's plan is regarded as meaning that participation of Italy in the European conflict again has been postponed.

The hope is being entertained by the pacifists that the efforts of Italy to arrange a peaceful solution of its problems may ultimately be successful.

Will Not Leave Capital Now. "In view of the international situation the king and his ministers cannot leave the capital to be present at the unveiling of the Garibaldi monument at Quarto Dant Elena," was the text of the note issued after the meeting of the cabinet yesterday. Its publication produced a profound effect upon public opinion.

Abandonment of the plan for the participation of King Victor Emmanuel and high government officials in the ceremonies attendant on the unveiling is believed to have been the result of the call made by Prince Von Buelow, the German ambassador, on Foreign Minister Sonnino Sunday night. The details of this conference are supposed to have been presented at the meeting of the cabinet, the call for which was not issued until yesterday morning. The ministers assembled two hours later and the council lasted four hours. All the ministers arrived promptly except Minister of Justice Orlando, who was absent from Rome, but he returned in time to take part in some of the deliberations.

Immediately after the council closed Baron Sonnino, who called on the king before the session opened, went to the consulate, where the first secretary of the German embassy awaited him. After receiving a verbal communication from the baron, the secretary hastened to the Villa Malta, the private residence of Prince Von Buelow, while Foreign Minister Sonnino called on the king for a second time. These events are interpreted in many ways in political circles, but the censors have forbidden the transmission of all comment. Correspondents are permitted to say, however, that Prince Von Buelow made new proposals Sunday night to Baron Sonnino. These proposals were submitted to the cabinet ministers, who will hold another council today. The press is unanimous in declaring the abandonment of the king's trip to Quarto is in no way altered the government's decision. A semi-official note, couched in vague terms, says: "Italy's attitude cannot undergo any change from the king's not going to Quarto."

Pascual Orozco Threatens to Take Warpath Again

EL PASO, Tex., May 4.—General Pascual Orozco, leader of the anti-Madero revolt and later a military commander under former Provisional President Huerta, last night disappeared from the American border near Fabens, Tex., and is believed to have crossed into Mexico. This information was contained in a telegram received here late last night from Fabens, where Orozco with three companions was seen earlier yesterday in an automobile. General Marco Carrasco, former lieutenant under Orozco, who has been living in El Paso, last night also could not be located.

The reported disappearance of Orozco and his former lieutenant and the report received here from American troops of the border patrol of heavy firing last night near Guadalupe, Mexico, opposite Fabens, Tex., was taken in well informed circles here to indicate the possibility of an insistent counter revolution. The firing lasted two hours. There was no report of the crossing, however, of and large number of men. Orozco, a political refugee for the last two months, had been living in San Antonio. Francisco I. Madero, who in 1911 instituted his revolt against the Diaz regime, crossed into Mexico at the same place Orozco is believed to have crossed last night.

ONLY THREE FOREIGN CARS IN INDIANAPOLIS RACE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 4.—Forty cars have been entered in the 500-mile automobile race which will be held at the Indianapolis Motor speedway on May 22. Only three foreigners have been named as drivers. Rene Thomas, winner last year, and a number of his competitors in the last contest, were prevented from entering by the European war. Practice at the speedway is being held daily. The elimination trials have been set for May 21, 22 and 23. The thirty cars which make the best speed in these trials will start the race.

FARMER NEARLY BURNED TO DEATH ON LOAD OF HAY

CARTHAGE, R. D., May 4.—(Special.)—I. T. Hubert, a farmer living some miles from here, had a narrow escape from being burned to death on a load of hay. A spark from his pipe alighted in some loose hay in a haystack which he was driving. He loaded the rack with hay and was driving calmly homeward, when he discovered that the load was on fire, having started from the smoldering spark in the loose hay on the bottom of the rack. The fire spread with lightning rapidity and only by the quickest kind of work did he escape from the load. The hay and wagon were consumed. He managed to cut his horses loose. The flames spread to an adjoining field and in a few minutes had swept over forty acres of hayload.
