Woman Assures the Judge No One Will Take Her Money

Mrs. Rose B. Parker, whose husband was killed accidentally March 3 while an employe of the Fairbanks-Morse company, will receive $1,400 cash damages, instead of $5.50 a week for 350 weeks, the amount fixed by the workmen's comapproved by District Judge Redick. The case was the first involving the compensation law which officially came to the notice of the district court.

Mrs. Parker filed a petition setting forth that she owned a home on which there is a mortgage of $1,600, and that if the mortgage were paid, she would be able to support herself by work. The amount paid her was determined by her husband's earnings, which were $2 a day. 'Don't let anyone get the money away from you," Judge Redick warned Mrs. Parker. That often occurs when a woman receives a considerable amount

"Trust me judge," replied Mrs Parker. "No one is going to get that money."

RESERVE SERVICE NOT TO INTERFERE WITH BUSINESS

A navy department ruling just received by the local recruiting station states that the newly created naval reserve will not interfere in times of peace with the civilian positions held by its members. This ruling put at rest the chief objection to enlisting in the reserve, navy-men declare, and it is expected to result in many more enlistments than have been so far received.

Herenfter, according to the Navy department instructions, recruiting officers will make this endorsement across the face of naval reserve shipping articles when enlistments are made:

"Not required to perform active service on hoard a vessel of the navy in time of peace except at your own request."

Board of Education in Perfunctory Session

a brief meeting of the Board of Education last night and the merchars adjourned to discuss informally everything from university life in Omaha to the propriety of the fistic encounter between andidate McGovern and Shriver.

The janitors' pay roll was allowed. ot of recommendations from the building committee for small repairs and improvements here and there in the varius ward schools were adopted and lew other details attended to.

Whether Omaha in the future is to have forty-eight weeks of school in the year still remains a matter unsettled. It did not come up last night, though the teachers in the city are watching the subject closely and are anxiously waiting to learn what the board will do. The matter is in the lands of a committee. Superintendent Graff, believes it is the coming thing in public school work.

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much nikali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for stendy use is just edinary mulaified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleaned the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinkes out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the beir fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulaified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.-Advertisement.

Myers-Dillon Drug Co.'s "Noticeto-Vacate" Sale Has Proved An Astounding Magnet to Drug Buyers

Not mere hundreds, but THOUSANDS, participated in the selling of the first few days enthusiasm over the radically reduced prices was everywhere apparent—every buyer, whether the purchaser of a "nickel's" worth or a half hundred dollars' worth, made the same remark: "Lowest prices I ever saw; standard goods, too."

But-ONE thing was NOT thoroughly understood, and must be understood, from now on-and THAT is the fact that EVERY item in this $75,000 stock is ON SALE at a SPECIAL price. Many were under the impression that "Sale Prices" applied only to those articles advertised, but such is NOT the case, for there is a "SALE PRICE" on EVERYTHING in the house. The misunderstanding came about simply because of the Myers-Dillon Co.'s inability to DISPLAY and ADVERTISE everything at ONE time. Shop here safe in the knowledge that the article you need is to BE HAD at a bona fide, really sensational "Notice-to-Vacate" Sale Price.
