Charming Midsummer Hats of Marked Individuality

Does one ask, "Large or small hats?" There is no law governing this fashion, and one may choose at will. Large sailor or shepherdess models may be had in leg-horn, horse-hair, lizere or mairine. While the tiny turban has lost none of its early popularity and is quite as smart as the very large hat, some very clever sport hats are now being shown in Bangkok, Milan, Panama and Corduroy that are quite apart from the ordinary.
