What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Culendar, SUNDAY-Young Women's Christian as-occiation, vesper service, 4.30 p. m. Clio Study club, Miss Marie Gordon, host-

MONDAY—Dundee circle, Child Conservation league, Mrs. Maynard Swartz, hostess. Memorial day committee, Memorial hall, 8 p. m. Tennyson Study circle, Mrs. W. C. Lyle, hostess. TUESDAY—Monmouth Park Mothers' club, school auditorium North Side Mothers' club, Mrs. G. E. Begerow, hostess. Geogre A. Custer Woman's Relief corps, Memorial hall. St. Berchman's entertainment, Creighton auditorium, 8 p. m. Board of trustees, Old Propie's Home, Young Women's Christian association, 10 a. m. U. S. Grant Woman's Relief corps, Mrs. B. O. Sweazy, hostess.

Woman's Relief corps, Mrs. B. G. Sweazy, hostess.
WEDNESDAT—Clio club, Mrs. A. N. Eaton, hostess. Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. C. J. Roberts, hostess. Tea at Young Women's Christian association for nurses. Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union luncheon, First Preservation church.

remperance union function, First Presbyterian church, THURSDAY—Wyche Story Tellers league, public library, 4 p. m. Emma Hoagland Flower Mission, Benson Baptist Missionary circle, Mrs. Eligabeth Deane, hostess. Young Women's Christian association concert by Miss Grace Poole.

Foole.
FRIDAY—Bemis Park Mothers' club, Mrs. F. L. Prawl, hostess. Central Park Mothers' league, school auditorium. Fellowship club plays, Young Women's Christian association. Scottish Rite Woman's club at the cathedral, 2:30 p.m. West Omaha Mothers' Culture club, Mrs. P. J. White, hostess. Last Impheon at First Presbyterian church. Travelogue on England, Mrs. W. B. Howard, hostess.
SATURDAY—Annual meeting, Association of Collegiate Alumnae, Miss Effiel Tukey, hostess.

Tukey, hostess.
(Notices for this column should be mailed or felephoned to the club reporter before Friday noon.)

OTHERS' DAY" will be observed by many Omaha club the House of Hope, under the direction at the state university. of Mrs. Patton, and to the women at the county jail by Mrs. George Ahlquist.

At the Grace Baptist church Rev. E. B. Taft has arranged for a Mothers' day program to be given by the women of the church. Mrs. Edward Johnson will be one of the speakers.

It is interesting in this connection to note that a Nebraska woman, Mrs. Max.

A Hosterler of Shelton, was largely in. A. Hostetler of Shelton, was largely instrumental in bringing about the universal observance of this day. Mrs. Hostotler is president of the state auxiliary to the International Mothers' Day association and is prominent in other club

Two of the best known newspaper women of the state are Mrs. Annie Vio morning at the Young Women's Chris-Gates, city editor of the Biair Enterprise, tian association. Miss Johnson talked on and Miss Eunice Haskins of the Stella the prevention of delinquent children Press. Both of these women are the only and stated that two-thirds of juvenile out-of-town members of the Omaha court cases were a result of liquor, Woman's Press club.

Mrs. Gates has had many honors conferred upon her and has filled various in charge of the Benson circle. offices. She was a member of the Board of Education at Baker, Kan.; a member study of juvenile conditions and by co- the national association has seized upon of the State Historical society, an Eastern operation, hope to better conditions as the exposition as the best possible place Star, a member for fifteen years of the Nebraska State Press association-serving next meeting, June 3, will be given by tons are being sent to the women through one year as corresponding secretary, and was president of the Woman's Research club. Mrs. Gates has held many church needy family, Mrs. Wheeler taking and lodge offices, and last, out not least, received a handsome vote for mayor of Auburn, Neb., several years ago, when she resided there, even though she was Miss Haskins is part owner and editor of the Stella Press. She writes for the Breeders' Gazette, one of the best known farm papers in the country, and is correspondent for ten papers.

The Settlement Women's club held its fortnightly meeting at Settlement Thursday evening, Mrs. Elizabeth Higgins Sullivan addressed them on woman suffrage. The Washington Boys' club had its monthly supper at the Settlement on Wednesday night. The club buttons were distributed and summer plans discussed. Muster Bert Adams, only 13 years of age, entertained the club with some flights of a model airship which he had constructed himself. This is a French model and the fifth which this youngster has made. Louis Kuzela, president of the club, is also interested in flying machines and has made one or two successful

The very last chicken pie dinner will be given at the old First Presbyterian church Friday noon. These luncheons have been a source of income for the church for the last twenty years and a great-deal of interest is attached to the last luncbeon. Mrs. G. L. Bradley, chairman of circle 3. is in charge of the affair and will be the landsome new edifice which will be ready for service late in the fall. The church will hold its summer services at ENDS LONG TOUR OF SOUTH IN the Young Men's Christian association,

The German Women's Hilfs-Verein will give a festival at the German Home Sunday, May 16. There will be amusements and games and prizes for children and

An ice cream social for the benefit of the Austro-Hungarian-German Red Cross fund will be given at the home of Mrs. Henry Peliack, 4001 Dodge street, Wednesday, May 19.

The Scottish Rite Woman's club will meet Friday afternoon at the cathedral. Mrs. Frank, Patton is in charge of the program and Mrs. Frank Rudolph will

The West Omaha Mothers' Culture club will meet with Mrs. P. J. White, 5004 Chicago street, Friday afternoon. A program on "Richard A. Proctor" will be given. Papers will be read by Mrs. C. D. Hutchinson and Mrs. W. N. Baker. Miss Clara Siefken will render a vocal solo and Miss Helen Taylor will give piano selections.

Mrs. Edward Johnson returned Friday from Atchison, Kan., where she attended the annual meeting of the West Central district, American Baptist Foreign Missionary society. Mrs. Johnson was re-elected chairman of the board.

The first baue of "The Settlement," to be published monthly at the Social Settlement House, is off the press. It contains articles by the head resident, Miss Jessie Arnold, Sanford Gifford, Miss Mary Irene Wallace, Mrs. Lowrie Childs and an articie in Bohemian by Dr. Olga Stastny, together with Settlement news, especially with reference to the Dramatic club and its activities. It is gotten up in a most attractive manner. Mrs. Arnold and Miss Sophia Adams are the editors and they

Interested in New Brownell Hall Society

Mrs Osgood T Eastman

Mrs. Waite Squier

nothing less than a modest little button, which is appearing upon the garb of thousands of western women in attendance upon the exposition. The button

The idea is to make the visitors from the conservative eastern states realize, through visual aid, that there are thou-the state suffrage organization, with which most of them are still affillated.

Several million have been turned out, it

Initiative petitions, which will begin the coming prohibition campaign, will be

Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union, which will be held on Wednesday at the home of the president,

Mrs. C. J. Roberts. The morning session will open at 11 o'clock and will be followed by a luncheon given by members of the executive committee. The affair is a social meeting arranged for the new members. Mrs. Roberts lives at 1900

South Fifty-third street, which place is reached by the new West Center exten-

George A. Custer Women's Relief corps

Original stories will be told by members will hold its regular meeting Tuesday of the Wyche Story Tellers' league on Thursday afternoon at the public library.

Miss Vera Du Bois is leader of the pro gram and will be assisted by Miss Carrie Boutelie and Mrs. E. A. Holyoke. The last meeting for the year will be May 37.

The last meeting of the Clio club will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. N. Eaton. Mrs. Harriet

MacMurphy will give a talk on the early history of Omaha and Mrs. Robert Grant

The Benson Woman's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. B. Oliver, for the last program of the year. Mrs.

Howe made a report of the district con-different club members-Mrs. George Iredale and Mrs. J. V. Sterrett-was announced. After the program reports of the convention committees were made.

Election of officers will take place at the

The Benson Baptist Missionary circle held a social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Burrill. The regular meeting of the circle will be

HOTEL LOYAL

will serve a special

DINNER ON SUNDAY

AT $1.00 PER PLATE

Tables May Be Reserved

MUSIC-

rention. The death of a parent of two will give readings. Election of officers afternoon at Memorial hall.

will take place

next meeting.

is said, for this povel demonstration.

reads merely: "I am a voter."

are assisted by a large staff of Settle-

The Association of Collegiate Alumnas is planning many good things for next year. The establishmen of a bureau of vocational guidance in connection with women, especially for their a College Woman's club will be discussed less fortunate sisters. The at the annual meet Saturday, at the Omaha Woman's Christian home of Miss Ethel Tukey. Another Temperance Union has ar-activity which the college women mean activity which the college women mean to push is that of dermitories for girls

At the Social Settlement section meeting(held Thursday, at the home of the leader, Miss Anna Fry, it was decided to raise funds to undertake a dressmaking class with a hired instructor at the Social Settlement house. Each member also volunteered to act as assistant

The local Collegiate Alumnae have just affiliated with the Nebraska Federaltion of Women's Clubs.

Miss Esther Johnson, secretary of the Juvenile court, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Omaha Federation of Mothers' Clubs, Thursday directly or indirectly. Miss Jessie Moulthrop gave a reading. The program was

The federation is planning to make a sands of women who actually vote and much as possible. The program at the in which to demonstrate this. These butthe Southside circle,

The sum of $7.50 was appropriated to a charge of the funds.

Mrs. Mamie M. Claflin of Lincoln, president of the state Women's Christian distributed at an all-day meeting of the Temperance union, will be honor at a luncheon to be given Wednesday at o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, by the Omaha Women's Christian Temperence union. State-wide prohibition will be discussed. Mrs. Hugh Wallace will give musical numbers. New members will be especial guests of honor.

The board of trustees of the Old People's home will meet Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association.

The Bemis Park Mothers' club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. F. L. Prawl, 201 Turner houlevard, Friday afternoon. Roll call response will be on "Curbing Setfishness," and current events will be given by Mrs. Earl Jorgensen. Mrs. A. F. Hawkinson will give musical numbers and papers will be read by Mrs. L. Bethards and Mrs. L. V. Nicholas. Mrs. Prawl will give a reading from James Whitcomb Riley.

The Memorial day committee in charge of the celebration on that day will meet at Memorial hall in the court house Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The National American Woman Suffrage association is flooding the Panamaassisted by many of the women of the Pacific exposition with a silent argument church, The proceeds have gone toward for women suffrage. This argument is OMAHA.

Mrs. W. S. Doty

San Francisco HOTEL SUTTER

The leading first-class Hotel of San Francisco which has not raised its rates.

Rooms from $1.50 per day up. Direct car line to Exposition. Send for bookiet and room thart showing prices of every

New Members of Omaha Women's Press Club and Miss Salher Epstein will talk on necker. Lindbarn and sorgs by Mrs. R. Long held next Thursday at the home of Mrs. | Wray, reading by Mrs. H. N. Craig and E. Denne.

U. S. Grant Woman's Relief corps will entertain the George A. Crook and Custer Woman's Reiter corps and the Grand Army of the Republic posts Tuesday eve ning in honor of the department president. Mrs. Addle E. Hough. The affair will be given at the home of Mrs. R. O. Sweazy, 2758 North Twenty-fourth street.

The Dundee circle of the Child Conservation league will have its last meeting for the season Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maynard Swartz, 48% Dougiss street. Roll call will be answered by current events. Officers for the coming year will be elected, after which a social hour will be enjoyed.

Mrs. C. J. Roberts will give a travelogue on England at the home of Mrs. W. B. Howard Friday evening. This is especially interesting to members of the Tennyson circle, but everyone who cares to come is invited. There will be a small admission fee, which will be turned over to the Frances Willard Woman's Christian Temperance union, of which Mrs. Roberts is president.

The Tennyson chapter of the Chautauqua Literary circle will meet Monday, at club women assisted in the arrangethe home of Mrs. W. C. Lyle, 534 Park | ments. A 12 o'clock luncheon will be followed by a social program and the regular weekly lesson. The program will nclude a recitation by Mrs. R. E. Sunderland, reading by Mrs. E. Benedict, will be discussed. Miss Pauline Rosenrecitation in Esperanto by Mrs. W. B. Howard, dialect recitation by Mrs. F. N. terpretation of the play; Miss Ada Gilin-

Eunice Haskins STELLA PAESS

a dust by Mesdames Jessie Dodder and W. B. Howard.

Mrs. M. D. Cameron, state chairman of civil service reform, and Mrs. E. R. J. Edholm, government agent for the children's bureau in the birth registration department, both of the Omalia Woman's club, are on the program for the first district meeting of the Nebraska ederation of Woman's club's, which will be held at Bethany Tuesday and Wed-

One of the notable gatherings at the Fan Francisco exposition will be the eleventh annual conference of the National Child Labor committee to be held there the last three days of May. The special topics to be considered are "Child Labor in the West," "Federal Control of Child Lubor" and "A Charter for Childhood," and the speakers will include Mrs. Florence Kelley, Dr. Felix Adler, Owen R. Lovejoy and others who have been active in the national convention for several years, together, with a group of Californians distinguished for their interest in labor problems and education.

The national child labor committee recently sponsored a child labor exhibit in the court house for one week. Omaha

Miss Marie Gordon entertains the last meeting of the Clio Study club this afternoon at her home. Tagore's "Postoffice" berg will tell the story and give an intorium, Mrs A. W. Miller, the projection which will be held in San Francisco, officer, will talk about his work. There June 21-26, Several other delegates in will also be rectinations by Miss Elvira the state expect to attend the meeting,

Mrs. M. H. Blackwell will represent At the Menmouth Park Mothers' club, the Omaha Weman's club of the Railway which meets Tuesday in the achoot audi- Mall Service at the national convention

Dine A La Carte

The Popular, Economical and Correct Way. Special Week Day Luncheon for Business Men. (Half Portion Menu)

11:30 A. M. to 2:30 P. M.

The Henshaw Hotel

TO THE Discriminating PUBLIC

Hotel Griswold DETROIT

The most modern and homelike hostelry In Detroit, Located in the center of the shopping district and within short walking distance of all the theaters. Come where YOU will be properly taken care of at

Reasonable Rates

$1.50 and up. European

Finest Musical program in the city; dancing every evening. YOU will have MY personal

OMAHA'S NEW AND FINEST POP

ULAR PRICED CAFE FOR MEN

AND WOMEN. MUSIC EVERY

GANSON'S CAFE

NOON, NIGHT AND SUNDAY, --1508-10 HOWARD STREET--MAIN DINING ROOM FRITOON

can have a seat at a table in an attract- the market. ive dining room, or at the convenient at 1508-10 Howard street. ent to be sure that all food served is

A comfortable restaurant, where you, al popular prices, all good things lunch counter, enjoy the finest cuisine ment has been introduced to Omaha by most popular. it is possible for experienced thefs and Mr. Ganson. In addition to the restause Charles Keller is Mr. Ganson's thet to do so. I aim to create an atmoswalters to accomplish, and yer be serant and lunch room, he has as a part of Mr. Keller comes from the Jefferson phere of home in this place of business cure in your knowledge that you will his establishment, a handsomely deco- at Kansas City, and is considered to be one where everybody will feel perfectly not be overcharged, has at last been rated ball room, a private banquet room, one of the most expert chefs in the comfortable, and I believe our restauopened in Omaha. It is Ganson's cafe also a supper room and a smoking central west. A. C. Snider is the pastry rang will become the most popular in lounge on the second floor. This entire cook. Under the personal supervision Omaha. At least I am bending all pos-H. G. Ganson, formerly assistant gen- floor is devoted to these club rooms. eral superintendent of the dining car The ball room is 25x60 feet, newly laid perts are specializing in steaks, sea open from 6 a. m. until midnight and service of the entire western system of in hard maple and opens through a wide foods and all seasonable items, and Mr. prepared to care for evening parties of the Canadian Pacific ratiroad, is the man arch to the lounge, which is fitted with Saider supplies pastries that are like all kinds. A 35c lunch is served daily who has opened this new, distinctive comfortable chairs, rockers and setters the kind mother used to make. cafe. He has employed a most compet- and conveniences for smokers. The Mr. Ganson considers good pastry a from 5 to 8 p. m., while on Sunday is

It was his knowledge of catering and only pleasant memories. the very best and to be equally sure that his ever-present idea to provide the Good coffee is another of Mr. Ganeach patron will be accorded a service public with home and club comforts that son's hobbies, and that served here features of this new cafe, which taken seldom paralleled except in much more prompted Mr. Ganson to fit the upper certainly does credit to a discriminating as a whole, is an asset Omala should expensive places. His idea is to serve story of his building in the above man-experience with which Omaha accepted the innova-

BALL ROOM

and direction of Mr. Ganson these ex- sible efforts to that end."

ent staff to superintend the workings supper room accommodates forty guests most essential factor, and at his place served a special 75c Table d'Hote dinner of the cafe, with always himself pres- and the hanquet room fifty guests. you may be sure your pastries will leave from 12 to 8 p. m., which is hard to ner. That his idea was a happy one f "I have been catering to the public was quickly manifested by the rapidity tastes for years," says Mr. Ganson, "and I feel that I know something of tion. Numerous banquets, dancing and what is wanted. I know that business card parties have been held at Ganson's men like to have a certain place to and the card and banquet rooms are in eat where they know they will be served daily demand, some reservations being in the right manner and will receive the made weeks in advance. The facilities right sort of treatment. I believe ? An innovation in modern cafe manage- for such parties are ideal and proving can please the most discriminating man or woman if I am given an opportunity from 11 to 2 p. m., and a 50c dinner best at any price. Good music adds tts attraction to the many other pleasant, be proud of