HOSE of us who are interested in gardens are again face to face with the weed problem. Weeds! Those hardy little plants which have no especial use nor beauty which grow so rapidly and crowd out the more desirable grasses and flowers, or the more useful vegetables. Even some plants which are classed as flowers in the small garden, are called weeds as soon as they begin to grow in the larger fields. Folks interested in music might find ere a close analogy, for in the world of music there are weeds of many kinds Just as the little chickweed as well. takes of the lifegiving vitality of the earth, and gains nothing in sweetness nor beauty to show for it, so many a student will take innumerable lessons and drain much of the enthusiasm and energy of worthy teacher with the same remit. As the gaudy dandellon, with its showy flower and too ornamental leaf, obtrudes fiself everywhere, and propagates its rapidly formed seed in all directions, so nany an amateur and alas some pro fessionals bold with a little knowledge, rush madly in where angels fear to tread and scatter their shallow ideas broadcast, doing harm thereby,

How many are there out in the larger musical fields, who if they were only in guests at a surprise party given at their | some other line, would be showing up to home on Benson Friday evening, in much better advantage, blooming in some smaller garden where they would be cherished as a flower and not uproqued?

> Then there is the "rag" weed in the field of composition, which crowds out many lovelier numbers from the more familiar literature, of music, and the dreadful burrs of some of the ultra modern music which prick so painfully with their sharp discords. There are weeds which will grow up in one's musical work as well, little undesirable babits, will creep in, and if neglected they will not remedy. For weeds in your work keep digging away. For keeping one's self from being a weed in the musical field, don't go to seed in too early a form of

Mishap—Misuse

The Only Clouds That Ever Dim the Glory of Fortified Tires

To Our Coming Friends

When you join the army of Goodyear tire users, do not expect the impossible. No tire ever built is exempt from mishap or misuse. Goodyears sometimes meet ill-luck, like others.

But they average best. That is amply proved, and there is ample reason for it. Some give wondrous mileage, some meet accidents. But on the whole they mean much lower tire bills, much less trouble.

A 5-Million Average

Remember, please, that men have tested nearly five million Goodyear tires, on perhaps 500,000 cars. The tests have covered 15 years. And long ago those tests placed Goodyears at the top.

Last year we sold 1,479,883 pleasure car tires-about one for each car in use. Yet we have some hundred rivals. Doesn't that prove that men in general have found that Goodyear tires are best?

Five Major Reasons

The Goodyear Fortified Tire has five exclusive features. One combats rim-cuts, one blowouts, one loose treads. And all in the best ways known. One is the ideal anti-skid-our All-Weather tread-very thick, very tough, with sharp, resistless grips. And one gives security.

Note that all these features belong to Goodyear alone. They are extras on which we spend millions of dollars. And those are the main reasons why Goodyears rule.

Still Greater Value

On February 1st we made another big price reduction-our third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. Never has any tire offered such value as Goodyears give today. That results from our mammoth output.

We count all motorists among our coming friends. Tires which excel in so many ways appeal to all tire users. Try them and judge them fairly. Any dealer will supply you.
