Many Events Are Arranged in Honor of United States Sea Officers.

CROWDS VIEW THE ARMADA

NEW YORK, May 11,-Pride in the United States navy and confidence that if called upon to vindicate the honor of the nation, it would uphold the heroic traditions of the past, were voiced at a luncheon tendered today to Admiral Fletcher and the officers of the Atlantic fleet at Fraunces' tavern by the Sons of the Revolution.

The occasion was one of the many events arranged for the entertainment of the fleet during its visit to New York and was followed tonight by a reception to the officers at the New York Yacht club.

Where Guests Assembled. The guests for the luncheon assemble in the historic room where George, Washington parted from his officers and Washington as the first commander-inchief of the United States navy was in part the theme of the addresses.

James M. Beck, former attorney general, the principal speaker, declared that TURKISH REPORT CONTRADICTS if Washington had been present "e would share with us the pride and gratification that we all take in the navy of the United States and in the confident expectation that if the time should ever come when that navy would be obliged to vindicate sine room would be united in passing slong as a flaming torch to the next tions of the American navy.

Wholesome Atmosphere. Admiral Fletcher voiced the apprecia tion of the officers and men for the welcome tendered them here and discussed the training accorded to the enlisted men. minor. He said that the atmosphere under which they grow up was a wholesome one.

ITALY IS READY TO GET INTO WAR

Opposition to Participation in Conflict Has Virtually Subsided, Except Among Socialists.

Imperial Government Announces RUMOR TEUTONS DECLARED WAR

ROME, May 10 .- (Via Paris, May 11.)-Although negotiations with the central empires still are pending and there is a bare possibility the in- ADDRESS fluence of former Premier Giolitti may avert war, military preparations pointing to Austria as an inevitable antagonist are so thorough and vigorous that a conflict seems unavoid able. Even discussions among the oposition parties have virtually ceased. Only the irreconciliable so cialists, whose deputies met in the chamber today, still oppose Italy's participation in the war, and their attitude is believed to be guided more by a desire for consistency than because of opposition to a war.
