T. R. DETERMINED TO GO AFTER AND DESTROY WILSON

Witness Says Colonel, Feeling 1912 Issues Dead, Resolved to Tear President to Pieces.

"ONLY MAN THAT COULD DO IT"

New York Lawyer Asserts Other Agreed with Him that it Was Time for New Deal.

NO ROOM FOR BARNES AND HIM

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 12 .-Charles W. Hutchinson, jr., a New York lawyer, declared on the witness stand, in the trial of the Barnes-Roosevelt suit, that in July, 1914, Theodore Roosevelt had told him that he agreed that the issues of 1912 were dead and that he would "go after" President Wilson in his Pittsburgh speech and "tear him to! pieces." Mr. Hutchinson quoted Colonel Roosevelt as saying, however, that after what happened in Chicago in 1912, the republican party was not big enough for both him and Mr. Barnes.

Would Go After Wilson. Hutchinson told of a talk with Roosevelt in the Harvard club in New York, July 15, 1914. The witness continued: "The conversation was in regard to the gubernatorial nomination. I told Colonel Roosevelt that the Issues which divided the repulbican party in 1912 were dead. He said that was right. He said he would go after President Wilson in his Pittsburgh speech. He said he was the man to do it. "He sald that after what happened at Chicago the republican party was not big enough for himself and Mr. Barnes." On cross-examination the 'witness said his purpose in seeing Colonel Roosevelt was to get some information as to just what he intended to do.

Should Reunite. 'Did you tell Colonel Roosevelt you thought the progressive party was through and might as well die." 'No, I told him I thought we should get together-that is, the two factions of the republican party." What did he say about Wilson? "He said he would go after him in his Pittsburgh speech and tear him to pieces and that he was the only man who could do it."
