

It's Foolish to Suffer

You may be brave enough to stand backache, or headache, or dizziness. But if, in addition, urination is disordered, look out! If you don't wake up, and try to fix up your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutches of Bright's disease, or some other very bad kidney ailment, or kidney trouble before you know it. But, if you live more carefully, and help your kidneys by toning them up with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger, as well.

Omaha Testimony:
Mrs. W. D. Woodworth, 2622 Franklin St., Omaha, says: "I had kidney trouble, and my back ached intensely. I always got languid and my kidneys didn't act as they should. After I had finished one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was no longer bothered, and the cure has lasted."

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.
The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifid coconut oil (which is pure and greenless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.
One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.
You can get multifid coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

A Remedy For All Pain
"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. G. P. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and it is what the patient most often applies to, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most likely to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are these uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neuragic origin, and especially for women subject to pain at certain times. Two Anti-kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual. These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for toothache, neuralgia and all pains."

M'LOUD TURNED OUT BY JURY ON HEARING

Is Acquitted by Jury Before Judge English in the Agatha Zimmerman Case.

GIRL IS PRINCIPAL ACCUSER

Harry McLeod, a chauffeur, whose alleged escapade with Agatha Zimmerman, aged 16 years, one year ago, caused several arrests and stirred juvenile authorities to an investigation of third class hotels in Omaha, was acquitted of a statutory charge in connection with the case by a jury in Judge English's district court.
The acquittal was a surprise to Juvenile Judge Sears and Probation Officer Miller, who before the trial began had refused to consent to a proposal that McLeod plead guilty to a lesser charge of contributing to the girl's delinquency and fake a jail sentence. The jury took the case at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, remained out all night and brought in a verdict at 10 o'clock in the morning.
The Zimmerman girl, who was brought from a state institution to appear against McLeod, testified that she had spent the greater part of several days in his company and with other companions, several of whom are facing criminal prosecution. Her testimony directly implicated McLeod in her own downfall. She was corroborated by other witnesses for the state.

Denies His Guilt.
McLeod declared in his own defense that he had nothing to do directly with the girl's downfall and was corroborated by Annie Smith, a companion in the various events which made up the case of the prosecution. She asserted that McLeod had been in her company on all these occasions.
Following were the jurors who acquitted McLeod: Anthony Schneider, 3629 R street, South Omaha; Roy T. Planteau, 221 California street; William E. Nielsen, 263 Lake street; H. A. Morrison, 257 Rees street; Emil F. Krands, 1919 South

Sixteenth street; G. C. Everson, 175 South Twenty-eighth street; Daniel Enright, 1223 North Twenty-fourth street, South Omaha; Harry W. Cowdroy, 115 South Twenty-ninth street; W. D. Clark, 2829 Decatur street; B. S. Clair, 662 North Twenty-first street; George Christian, 3520 W street, South Omaha, and John D. Mehrens, 531 Himebaugh avenue.

MAKE MORE NOISE EVEN THAN THE POLITICIANS

Coincident with the beginning of the new city administration a paving contractor started work in the alley at the rear of the city hall, using what some of the city officials believe is the largest and noisiest concrete mixer in the world. Unable to successfully compete with the sound waves sent forth by this sound battery Mrs. Clara Young is using a megaphone to make herself heard within the office of public accounts and finance. This megaphone habit may spread throughout the city hall, as the mayor has sanctioned the use of speaking trumpets in times of necessity.

How Many Dollars Would You Buy at 25c Each?

A story is told of a man standing on London Bridge offering Sovereigns for Five Shillings. He made a wager that he would only be able to dispose of a very limited number—AND HE WON. Now it goes without saying that if the people would have had CONFIDENCE in their own judgment or CONFIDENCE in the seller the sovereigns would not have lasted long.

CONFIDENCE is just as necessary in the buying of merchandise. For it is more difficult to judge merchandise than it is to judge gold. Statements are made daily which you do not credit, and largely because you do not believe those who pretend to offer you dollars for quarters.

Thursday, May 13th, we ask for your confidence—for in effect we will sell you a dollar for twenty-five cents

- A Sale of Dress Fabrics, made from Cotton and Silk and Cotton. Excellent materials and wanted colorings. Similar fabrics have sold from 75c up to $1.50. Thursday, in Wash Goods Section, 25c yard.
- Sun-Shedders—Useful as a protection from Sol's rays and adding a charm to lady's get up, topping off as it were. Parasol styles are novel this year, showing a marked departure in general get up. We price children's from 25c to $1.75, and for grown-ups from $1.00 to $13.50 each.
- Ready-to-Wear Section—Not a day but sees new arrivals—in many respects "Kayser Silk Suits" take front rank. Made from the Kayser Silk Jersey Cloth—they combine ease with elegance, durability with dressiness, fit indeed "like the paper on the wall" bringing out and accentuating what has been described as "the charm of fashion and the mold of form."
- Thursday—Blouses in Crepe de Chine and popular Georgette, at the special price of $3.98 ea. Suits for Thursday—A sort of experimental sale. One of a kind taken from the $35, $37.50 and $40 new models, $24.75 each. Coverts, Serges, etc.
- A Skirt Opportunity—The usual rule is to lay aside the odd skirts left from a range—and then a little later burn them in a sale. Thursday you will get them—instead of waiting for the - Basement Salesroom—A gathering of specials for Thursday, priced at what are usual wholesale figures. Prices not likely to continue. Suggest, therefore, if you have needs, supply them now.
