

STATE TRAP SHOOT OPENS IN THE COLD

Trappers Shoot 100 Targets, Despite Cold Which Makes Good Marksmanship Impossible.

SAM HUNTLEY IS THIRD HIGH

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., May 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Over seventy-five trap shooters participated in the first event this afternoon of the annual trap shoot of the Nebraska State Sportsmen's association at the Buffalo Bill Gun Club shooting grounds. The day was intensely cold and chilled the shooters through and through. The scores were really remarkable considering the weather.

Sam Huntley and Bert Dixon were the advance heralds of the Omaha aggregation who arrived today. Huntley registered third in the money by breaking 58 rocks in the 100-target sweepstakes. Dixon broke 55. Gulliaty led the field with 91 and Rebhausen second with 89. The shoot will continue until Friday afternoon, when the championship shoot will be held. The state convention will be held Thursday night.

The following is the score for the first 100 targets:

Small Canadian Ship is Sunk by Canadian Submarine at Ottawa

QUEBEC, May 19.—The little government steamer Christine, which was sunk with a loss of eight lives in a collision off the Island of Orleans last night, was rammed by a Canadian submarine. Announcement to this effect was made here today.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 19.—Eight of the fourteen members of the crew of the small government steamer Christine were drowned when that steamer was rammed and sunk off the Island of Orleans last night. It was learned today that the vessel sank within three minutes and that the crew was unable to launch a lifeboat or don life preservers. Six of them were saved by another vessel. The bodies of the drowned have not been recovered and their names were unknown early today.

The Christine was formerly Lord Strathcona's yacht and was chartered by the naval authorities as an examination steamer.

HATTERS MAY ASK FRIENDS TO PAY BIG JUDGMENT

NEW YORK, May 19.—Friends of the United Hatters of North America may be asked through organized labor to come to the assistance of the 138 members of that body who are defendants in the suit of D. E. Lowe & Co., in whose favor judgment for $252,130.00 was rendered in November.

This statement was made today by John W. Sculley, president of the United Hatters, presiding over the sixth annual convention, now in session here. Mr. Sculley said that so far the convention had not taken any action in the matter, although it had been discussed in executive session.

GERMANY WILL OFFER CONCESSION

Will Give Passengers Chance to Escape if Segregated from Contraband on Unarmed Ships.

REPLY EXPECTED IN TEN DAYS

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Official information was received here today that Germany's reply to the American note will not be completed for at least a week and probably not reach Washington for at least ten days.

It is now known with some definiteness that Germany will indicate its willingness to have its submarines act toward all merchantmen just as destroyers or cruisers would, giving ample time for passengers and crew to leave, providing that merchantmen are not armed, or if passengers and contraband traffic are separated.

That proposition is looked upon with some favor here, provided it is suggested as a modus vivendi, or temporary arrangement, and does not involve the relinquishment by the United States of the rights of its citizens to travel anywhere on the high seas on enemy or belligerent unarmed ships. There is an insistence on the part of the United States, however, that the principles of law and humanity expressed in the note must be recognized and admitted by Germany, and that any intention to destroy American lives on the Lusitania must be disavowed. That the United States will stand firmly on the principles set forth in its note has been conveyed indirectly and informally to Germany since the communication itself left here.

Another factor in the situation which is expected to be clarified in a day or two is that with respect to Great Britain over the embargoes proclaimed by the allies. That a note on the subject is practically completed is authoritatively known, but it was learned today that President Wilson probably will not make any move in that direction until Germany's reply is received.

Roumania Probably Will Enter Conflict as the Ally of Italy

ROME, May 18.—(Via Paris, May 19.)—Roumania's attitude regarding the war is being watched with keenest interest as no official announcement has been made as to whether the cordial relations which have always existed between that country and Italy have been transformed into an actual alliance. There undoubtedly is a diplomatic understanding between the two governments as Prince Ghika, the Roumanian minister, is the only foreign diplomat who has had long daily interviews with Foreign Minister Sonnino during the last fortnight.

The Wayne

(By the House of Kuppenheimer)

To know Who's Who in the world of Young Men's Clothes it is only necessary to keep your eyes open.

Where else will you find such class as in the WAYNE, for instance?

It mirrors every latest detail of fashion. There is a self-possession, a general expression of rightness about it that makes it a safe suit to buy and an effective one to wear.

The coat has a soft roll front and closes with two buttons. It shows the new military tendency in its high waist-line, natural shoulders and its shapely sleeves finished with narrow cuffs.

If we were asked to account for the remarkable growth of our young men's business over the entire country, we should say that the facts are getting across to more young men every day.

They have a better idea of the thing to wear—who makes it, the dealer who sells it and where they can come the nearest to getting value for both sides of their dollar.

Prices—$20 to $40

"We let them beat us on time to beat them on quality"

THIS is what Hugh Chalmers of the Chalmers Motor Company says about the Chalmers new Six-40 at $1400.

He refers to the many cars in the $1000 to $1500 class put on the market in the past two years. All the time the Chalmers Company had this car, but were resisting the temptation to put it out until they had absolutely proven it beyond doubt.

And now here it is—a car with all the Chalmers quality at $1400, the lowest price at which a Chalmers has ever been offered.

FORMER WYOMING GOVERNOR IS DEAD

In 1890, he was nominated as the republican candidate for secretary of state, and was elected by an overwhelming majority, the range people demanding that "Doc" Barber be given anything he wanted. When a few months later, Governor Francis E. Warren was elected to the United States senate, he succeeded to the executive authority, serving as acting governor until 1893. During his administration there occurred two of the most serious crises in the state's history, the Pine Ridge Indian outbreak in Dakota, near the eastern Wyoming boundary, and the cattlemen's war. The invasion of central and northern Wyoming by an armed band of large cattlemen, accompanied by Texas mercenaries, with the avowed intention of exterminating small settlers who were suspected of rustling, made it necessary for him to call on the federal government to suppress an insurrection. Federal troops which were sent in response to his call arrived on the scene in Johnson county in the nick of time to prevent a sanguinary battle between the "invaders" and a large force of the "dead-listed" small settlers who had rallied and besieged their organized enemy.

No Call Disregarded. At the beginning of the Spanish-American war Dr. Barber again entered the service of the War department as a surgeon and continued therein for several years. The demands of his private practice eventually made it necessary for him to give his entire attention to it. For the last two decades he has been probably the best known surgeon between Omaha and Salt Lake City. Despite the enormous amount of professional labor which he performed, and during his latter career he adhered faithfully to the rule which he adopted as a young man that he would disregard the call of no sufferer, he responded to the call made upon him whenever a Wyoming governor was to be inaugurated, or any other large social function was to be held in Cheyenne, and took executive charge of arrangements. He directed virtually every inaugural ball and large state function which has been held in the last two decades.

Dr. Barber was an intimate friend of many notable characters, including the late E. H. Harriman, Dr. S. Weir Mitchell and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. He arranged the famous "beans dinner" which was given to Roosevelt, near Cheyenne, in 1898, on the occasion of the ex-president's overland ride from Laramie to Cheyenne.

In 1902 Dr. Barber was married to Miss Amelia Kent of Cheyenne, who, with their two children, survives him.

BABY CRUSHED TO DEATH UNDER A GRINDSTONE

ETHAN, S. D., May 19.—(Special)—The toppling over of a heavy grindstone beside which she was playing caused the instant death of Ella Margaret Schurz, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schurz, living on a farm ten miles northwest of town. The mother was busy about her household duties when the child and a 12-year-old brother went to the barn. The little girl went to the machine shed and while playing there tipped the grindstone over upon her, crushing out her life.

The boy was driving in some horses and was thrown from his horse, becoming entangled in the stirrups in such a way that he could not release himself and was dragged to death.
