After being brought into battalion line formation, the organization was formally presented by Drill Sergeant Ferris to Chief Dunn, who was supported by Capchief Dunn, who was supported by Captains Dempsey and Heitfelt. The latter three men then accompanied the four city commissioners as they inspected arms, uniforms and equipment, finding all in uniforms and equipment, finding all in perfect condition. In the review and drill maneuvers that followed for the benefit of the city officials and assembled crowd, the policemen proved that they were skilled in intricate marching under Sergeant Ferris' direction. As the platoons passed the reviewing stand, demonstrative applause greeted each one in turn. Then the men were assembled in mass formation and were addressed by Commissioner Kugel and the mayor.

MYERS-DILLON DRUG CO'S NOTICE TO VACATE SALE NOW ON!

We thought we had already made a huge gap in this stock, but we HADN'T. Those Harney Street warehouses seem fairly bottomless and every time we unearth a staggering quantity of this, or that, DOWN goes the prices some more. Mind you, there was a $75,000 stock at the START and there's a WORLD of selling to be accomplished YET. The calendar confronts us steadily-it seems to say: "July 2d"-"July 2d"-then we reduce prices some more-for we have received NOTICE TO VACATE THIS BUILDING by July 2d. (Every item in every line is reduced; know that the price is cut even if you DON'T see it advertised.)
