Oats were also higher, they selling he higher than yesterday.

According to advices received from the scaboard, the export business in wheat is greatly restricted by the scarcity of vessel room on the ocean.

At least one of the big houses in the wheat trade reports buying orders in its hands for goodly lots of old wheat, but much higher prices than those now prevailing are asked by those carrying the Srain.

This inquiry comes not only from individual exporters, but one or two of the governments abroad are said to be in the market for both wheat and flour.
Advices from both Winnipeg and Montreal were to the effect that the representatives of Great Britain were making strong bids for the old crop wheat.
Clearances were: Wheat and flour,
equal to 1,085,000 bu; corn, 292,000 bu;
oats, 529,000 bu.
Liverpool spot: Wheat, unchanged to Primary wheat receipts were 584,000 bu,

and shipments 780,000 bu, against receipts
of 512,000 bu, and shipments of 276,000 bu, last year.

Primary corn receipts were 45,000 bu. and shipments 659,000 bu., against receipts or 410,000 bu. and shipments of 414,000 bu. Primary oats receipts were 490,000 bu. and shipments 914,000 bu., against receipts of 500,000 bu, and shipments of 479,000 bu. last year.

Wheat speculators appeared to give attention almost wholly to the question of how great had been the amount of injury to the domestic crop. Despite the scuteness of the war situation, foreign news was warrely considered.
