There accuped to be a good outlet for what siuff showed up, and a clearance was made in good season. No real good lambs, of desirable weights about 150. A little bunch of native seriogness brought $1.50, and a load of Coloredo feeders that scaled a little better than fifty pounds brought $1.50. There have been very few aged sheep have she well, but prices at other points are considerably lower on ewez, and it

Shampoo Hints

It's not the soap that you put on your head that hurts the hair,—its the soap that stays in the hair, the remains of the soaky suds that penetrates hair fibre and scalp pores. Lee's Liquid Shampoo cleans itself out too.

 The purer the soap the more likely to curdle in hard water. Use rain water or distilled water for the "lather-up." A few ounces suffice. Any clean water will do for the quick rinse-off.  Don't use hot water, —its too soaky.  Oily or greasy hair takes more shampoo than dry hair and more need of soft water.

 For excessive dandruff, falling hair, scalp eruptions, etc., use Lee's Liquid Tar-Sulphur Shampoo twice a week for a while, then use regularly Lee's Liquid (green) Shampoo, once a week and you will have no more hair troubles.

 Lee's Liquid Shampoos clean quicker, dry quicker and leave hair and scalp in better condition than any other.

 Sold by druggists.

 Accept no substitutes.
