HER ENGAGEMENT TO WED JUST ANNOUNCED.

Jessie M. Pierson

The formal opening of the Country club and the brides with the affairs given in their honor, is all society has to consider for the coming week. The club members are to have a gay and busy time of it Saturday night. With all three clubs opening the same evening the members, who belong to all, are a little perplexed and some envious. A little tension with the members joining a little tension with the members of their families and their intimate friends as to which to patronize, so many have decided to be present for a while at each.

The list for reservations for the Country club opening is growing daily. Besides the two large dinner parties to be given by Mrs. Ben Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige, reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dooly for fourteen guests; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Comings six; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Love, four; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelly, ten; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelly, ten; Mr. and Mrs. George Prinz, six; Mr. Alfred Bush, four; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stout, ten; Mrs. Herman Kountze, six; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters, twelve; Mr. Earl Ganett, twelve.

Wedding Plans. Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Pallion of North Bend and Mr. Ray Conley of Omaha, the ceremony to take place June 15. Miss Pallion is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's academy and is an accomplished musician and teacher.

The wedding of Miss Irene Beatrice O'Neil and Mr. LeRoy MacMonagle will be celebrated Tuesday morning June 1, at Sacred Heart church. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Father Judge in the presence of a few friends. Miss Myrtle Sroufe will be the maid of honor and Mr. Thomas Cerran best man. The wedding will be followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's father, J. K. O'Neil. After a short wedding trip the young couple will reside in Omaha.

The wedding of Miss Maurine Lehnhoff and Mr. Evert Lynne Kilgore will be celebrated Wednesday evening, June 2, at the North Side Christian church at 8 o'clock. Miss Helen Davis of Newton, Ia., will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Gailie Thompson and Miss Madeline Metz. Miss Janet Lehnhoff and Miss Frances Miller of Newton, Ia., cousins of the bride, will be the flower girls, and Misses Louise Thompson, Virginia Powell and Audrey and Iris Kilgore, the latter nieces of the groom, will stretch the ribbons.

The groom will be attended by Mr. Earl Josselin of Cheyenne as best man. The ushers will be Messrs. Alvin Forrey and Mr. Carl Cain. Some Josephine Craig, Mr. Charles Cook and Miss Jessie Cady will have charge of the music.

Griffin-Hunziker Wedding.

Miss Ruth Hunziker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunziker, and Mr. Maurice E. Griffin were married in St. Philomena's church, Tuesday. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chene, made with court train and trimmed with seed pearls and duchesse lace. Her veil was worn in the Juliet cap style and hung to the end of her train and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Marion McCaffrey, wore a frock of pink Georgette crepe, with overdress of white plaited tulle and hat to match. She carried an armful of pink sweet peas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Esther Zang, cousin of the bride, and Miss May Griffin, sister of the groom, were gowned alike, in pink taffeta, with hats to match.

To Attend Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cornish of New York arrived today to be the guests of Mrs. J. M. Metcalf. They are on their way to California and the last week in June they plan to be in Portland, Ore., for a family reunion at the home of Mr. Cornish's sister, Mrs. Hertsche. Mrs. Metcalf and Judge Cornish and his family of Lincoln will be there to complete the family gathering, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cornish return to San Francisco to take boat for New York by way of the Panama canal.

At Seymour Lake Club.

The first membership dinner of the season will be held at the club on Tuesday evening. Among those who will respond to toasts are Messrs. J. S. White, George Francis, George Macdonald, L. M. Lord, H. C. Forster, J. Dean Jinger, W. B. Cheek and J. E. Hednar. Special music has been arranged for the evening and Vice President T. L. Combs will preside.

One of the most enjoyable pre-season events of the club was that of an outing day given by the ladies of the house committee yesterday afternoon. There was tulle and hat to match, she carried an armful of pink sweet peas.

As this dinner is, of course, for the public, we would like every person interested to submit a sample menu of a 75c dinner they personally would like, and the menu chosen from those submitted will be served the following Sunday. It should be borne in mind that the dinner will be served for 75c per person and cost will be one of the deciding factors. The prize will be a $6 Book of Meal Tickets and one will be awarded each week to the person whose menu is chosen.

Menu received up to midnight Thursday each week will be counted in the contest for the following Sunday dinner. Those received after Thursday will be considered in the next week's contest. The name of the winner will be published each Sunday with the menu to be served that day.

Attend Yale Banquet.

Mr. Willard D. Hosford and Mr. John T. Stewart, 23, went to Kansas City Thursday evening to attend the Yale banquet at the Baltimore hotel Friday evening. They were joined by Mr. John Madden, who went down from Excelsior Springs. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Hosford return home today and Mr. Madden will be home Monday.
