SUES FOR PART OF FORTUNE SHE LOST

Mrs. Mary F. Gruber of Denver Testifies She Paid $26,000 to William H. Brown and Wife.

BROWN DENIES THE CHARGES

Mrs. Mary F. Gruber, aged 59 years, of Denver, formerly of Omaha, who in five years dissipated a $47,000 estate inherited from her father, with the result that she has been making her living by scrubbing floors, testified before District Judge Sears of paying $22,000 in sums varying from $40 to $5,000 to William H. Brown of Omaha and Mrs. Cily M. Brown, his wife.

She was the first witness in the trial of her equity suit in which she is seeking to gain title to Omaha real estate purchased, it is alleged, in Mrs. Brown's name, with money received from Mrs. Gruber. The plaintiff declared she paid the money with the understanding that it was to be used in the manufacture and sale of an "Antiseptic Wonder," a patent preparation of which she testified Brown said he was the inventor.

Gives Itemized Account. In June, 1912, Mrs. Gruber said, she first met Brown, being introduced to him by her son, Charles Gruber, at the office of the Omaha Lightning Rod and Electrical company on Twelfth street, Omaha.

Her business relations terminated, she testified, January 8, 1913, when she fled from Ottawa, Ill., to Colorado, following alleged advice by Brown that she was in danger of prosecution by the United States government. During the interval, she asserted, she paid Brown about $22,000, as follows:

June, 1912—$40 for drugs.
June, 1912—$96 for trip to Washington for analysis of drugs.
June, 1912—$420 paid to Mrs. Brown for patent rights.

July, 1912—$2,000 for promotion purposes.
September 1, 1912—$2,000 to get patent in Lincoln.

September 2, $2,500 for patent in Canada.
October 1, $5,000 paid at Princeton, Ill., for installing plant at Aberdeen, S. D.

October 2, $2,500 for building at Aberdeen.
November 15, $2,000 for incorporation proceedings in Aberdeen.
December 5, $2,000 for interior decorations at Aberdeen.

Went to Aberdeen. "In January," said Mrs. Gruber, "I sent my son to Aberdeen and found that Mr. Brown had not built any plant there and had nothing to show for the money I had given him. He had promised that I should receive one-half the profits from the business, and I relied on his promises."

"He wanted more," was the reply always made by Mrs. Gruber to attorneys' questions regarding her conversations with Brown. "He was always in a hurry," she said, "and we never had much conversation."

Mrs. Gruber has a suit pending in Denver in which she alleges she lost the remainder of her $47,000 inheritance in another business transaction. She said she had been earning a living in Denver by scrubbing floors and doing other labor. She is plainly dressed. She has been twice married, her first husband having secured a divorce from her in Illinois, according to her testimony.

Brown's defense is a denial that he received the amounts named by Mrs. Gruber, with the exception of $499, which Brown asserts was paid to him for doing work for her.

A deposition of Hert C. Wiley, an attorney of Ottawa, Ill., in which the attorney testified that he knew that Mrs. Gruber had inherited $47,000 from the estate of her late father, Bowen Gill, a farmer of the vicinity of Ottawa, who died in 1909, was read in court.

Dan Cupid Has Hard Time Landing Iowa Pair, but Succeeds

It took several secret service agents of the United States government, the machinery of the Department of Justice, the police of St. Joseph and other cities and finally United States Deputy Marshal Haze and Justice of the Peace Lester of Omaha to help win Cupid in an exceptionally difficult marriage. But the little lad with the arrows was victorious.

Dan was engaged in his favorite pastime of shooting arrows into hearts over in Fort Dodge, Ia., some time ago. He pierced the heart of Miss Agnes Doyle, and the corresponding arrow he shot into the manly bosom of Archie Armstrong.

The young god hadn't inquired about the religious beliefs of the pair. He just thought they were suitable for each other.

Next appeared stern parents. "This marriage can never, never be," said stern parents.

Cupid is used to this sort of trouble. First thing stern parents knew their daughter had disappeared and Armstrong had also gone.

Then the government was called on and its thousands of arms reached out and located the pair. Finally Armstrong was arrested in St. Joseph, and technically charged with violation of the Mann act.

However, stern parents, seeing there was no other way, that Dan Cupid had struck the hearts fair and square with his arrows, capitulated, and they were married by the J. P. and, let us hope, will "live happily ever after."

Locked in Fruit Car Seven Days

Seven days' ride in a car of oranges was the unusual experience of Henry Henderson, who was discovered when a car of California fruit was opened in the Union Pacific freight yards. Henderson, who is 19 years of age, survived the terrible ordeal of being locked for a week in a refrigerator car.

The only food the youth had on the trip was that which he found inside the car, and his daily bill of fare was limited to oranges. He was able to eat a hearty meal at the Windsor hotel. He registered as from Pittsburgh, where he said his parents live. He said he was on his way home and had seen enough of the golden west.

New Home Now Assured for Poor Family Whose House Was Destroyed

Subscriptions continue to flow into The Bee office to build a home for Joseph Mecher, whose house at Eleventh and Ogden streets, built with the savings of years, was burned down two weeks ago before he had insurance on it. Henry Pollack started the list a few days ago with $30. R. B. Condon of the Boyer & Van Kuran Lumber company added an equal sum.

Steve Toth and others arranged for a ball Saturday night, which netted $80.60. This sum was turned over to Mr. Mecher at once, and with it and some material already donated he has started to rebuild.

Louis Urim is drawing the plans and helping Mr. Mecher personally. The excavation has been made and the foundation is ready to be laid.

Next Sunday forty carpenters will donate their services and the house is expected to rise with record speed.

Pending the completion of their new home Mr. and Mrs. Mecher and their two sons are living with Joe Suhada, a brother-in-law, at Tenth and Izard streets.

The fund previously acknowledged in The Bee was $90. Additional subscriptions have come, making the total as follows:

Previously acknowledged	$ 90.00
Morris Gross	5.00
A friend	1.00
Sam Newman	1.00
Ball arranged by Steve Toth	80.60
Total	$177.60

LIGHTNING CAUSE OF SEVERAL FIRES

Electrical Storm Visits Omaha, Driving Families from Homes During the Night.

INCH AND A HALF OF RAIN

Four families living in a boarding house managed by Mrs. Frances Folambus at 602 South Twenty-eighth street, were routed out at 2 a. m. and driven out in the rain when lightning struck the roof of the building and started a fire.

The fire department extinguished the blaze before much damage had been done. Considerable excitement prevailed for a few minutes.

S. P. Myers, wife and four small children made a hurried exit from upstairs rooms of 85 Hurt street at 3 a. m., upon discovery that a broom factory below was ablaze, lightning having struck the place. The damage was nominal. The occupants were soaked by the rain, but

To File Stoppage in Transit Case Briefs

The stoppage in transit case in which the National Implement and Vehicle association is seeking to compel the railroads to continue to grant the privilege in implement shipments, is to be filed with the Interstate Commerce commission by June 15. The case is then to be argued before the commission some time between June 16 and the latter part of August. B. J. McVain of Omaha is retained by the National Implement and Vehicle association in this case. As the suspension ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission expires September 30, it will be necessary that the commission's decision be handed down several weeks before that date in order to give the railroads time to get out their new tariffs and schedules based on whatever the order of the commission may be.

"I have been a trained nurse for some fifteen years, and like many nurses, drank strong coffee. About two years ago I had to call a halt. I missed my coffee until some one remembered Postum, which I have used ever since, recommending it to many of my patients."

A Teacher Says:

"I have been a coffee drinker ever since I can remember. I have been teaching school for sixteen years, and became more and more nervous. I could not sleep. After reading some of your literature I decided to try Postum. I have been using it about thirty days; my nerves have improved; I have no headache; sleep peacefully, and am able to do my school work better."
