RINTING BIDS ARE OPENED BY BOARD

entracts This Year for Work of State Departments Appear to Be at Lower Mark.

BID IS THROWN OUT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 28.—(Special.)—Efforts the State Journal company to get in on printing bids were ineffectual, it ng out entirely on every item let this rning. About a month ago bids were de and let on the printing of the senjournal and several reports of depart-The Journal protested the bond some of the bidders, principally that of York Book company, which was rarded the contract for printing the sate journal at $1.08 per page. As a ult the printing board declared all is off and called for new bids.

se result shows that Milburn & Scott Beatrice are the lowest bidders on nting the senate journal, their bid ng $1.11 per page, or 3 cents more than would have had to pay under former bid. The company which was arded the contract before raised its d to $1.18 per page and lost out. as the bids stand today the lowest bid-

One thousand senate journals, Milburn Scott, Beatrice, M.H per page. 7,000 aricultural reports, Claffin & Co., University Place, S. 14 per page. 2,500 Horticultural reports, Office Equipment company, Lincoin, $1.40 per page 2,500 Insurance reports, Gillispie, Lincoin, $4.17 per page. 1,700 Railway Commission reports, Hammond & Co., Fremont, $2.50, L550 Dairymen reports, Milburn & Scott, Beatrice, $1.25 per page. 1,000 Veterinarian reports, Millburn & Scott, $1.20 per page. 4,500 Board of Irrigation reports, Woodwiff, Lincoin, $1.20 per page.

Under the reladding, the senate journals will cost 3 cents more per page, the agricultural reports 60 cents more, the hortfoultural reports It cents less, the insurance reports 50 cents more and the rallway commission reports 9 cents less,

It remains for the printing board to go over the bids and bonds and ascertain if they are in proper shape to be

The Chicago printing firm, which had man on the grounds for the purpose of walking off with some of the printing, did not come within shooting distance of some of the bids, being considerably more than many of the Nebraska bidders, of which there were about a dozen
