New Books

Miscellaneous.
DEFENSELESS AMERICA. By Hudson Maxim. 28 pp. E. Horat's International Library Company.
 A summing up of the deplorable condition of the country and its obligations and needs. The author goes upon the theory that nothing short of a disastrous war will supply the necessary stimulus to make the United States take adequate measures for its defense, and on that theory chooses England to do the whipping, and if that country does not give us a good, timely whipping, we are to be whipped by Germany or Japan, and further declares that "We have arrived at a time when we must decide whether our safety can be better secured and peace maintained with armaments or without armaments."

AMATEUR RODMAKING. By Perry D.
 Fraser. 22 pp. 7c. G. J. Gilling Publishing Company.
 A practical manual for all those who want to make their own rod and fittings. It contains a review of fishing, a rod history, a discussion of materials, a list of the tools needed and method to be followed in making all kinds of rods.

CONFESSIONS OF A CLERGYMAN. By P. H. R. McBride, West & Co.
 In this book, which is published anonymously, the author unburdens himself, and explains in the preface: "I take the layman behind the scenes with us persons and show him some of the difficulties that often tempt us to forsake the pulpit for the greater freedom of a business career. In doing so I have three objects—a better church, a better churchgoer, a better clergyman."

JESUS: A PASSION PLAY. By Max Ehrmann. 22 pp. E. The Baker & Taylor Company.
 An endeavor to tell in dramatic form what probably happened to Jesus the last three days of his life, according to the author's conception. The play has the color of an ancient oriental world, but it has also the human passions that are always found in every age and among every people.

AMERICA TO JAPAN. Edited by Lind-Russell. 38 pp. E. G. P. Putnam's Sons.
 The larger aspects—political, social, economic and literary—of America's relations with Japan, and many problems of interest to the two peoples, are discussed in this volume. It consists of contributions from the pens of representative Americans—statesmen, publicists, members of the bar and of the pulpit, merchants, manufacturers and educators and is presented as a composite expression of opinion on international issues of importance.

THE EDUCATION OF THE NEGRO
PRIOR TO 1861. By Carter Godwin Woodson. 44 pp. E. G. P. Putnam's Sons.
 This book is neither a controversial treatise on negro education nor a study of recent problems. Dr. Woodson has by scientific treatment amassed numerous facts to show the persistent strivings of ante-bellum negroes anxious to be enlightened. In bringing to light so much information concerning the early negroes, the author convinces us that the history of the colored people of the United States is yet to be written. This contribution is an important chapter of their history.

A-B-C OF HOUSEKEEPING. By Christine Ferriss Herrick. 123 pp. 7c.
 Harper & Brothers.
 A little compendium of housekeeping information from choosing the home, and the best manner of finishing and furnishing it, to the time when company comes.

SHATTUCK'S PARLIAMENTARY AN-SWERS. By Harriet B. Shattuck. 196 pp. 6c. Lothrop, Lee & Shepard company.
 This neat book makes it possible for even a novice at presiding to rule promptly and accurately on any matter likely to come up in any meeting conducted under parliamentary law.

THE ART OF PUBLIC SPEAKING. By J. Berg Esenwein and Dale Barnagey.
 62 pp. The Home Correspondence School.
 Both of the authors of this book have long been before the public as speakers and writers, so that it may be assumed that their book is the outgrowth of experience. One thing about this volume is that it seeks to tell him precisely how he may gather and formulate his matterial so as to produce an effective instrument, and in this way make public speaking less a matter of the schools than one of common sense.

MODERN TENNIS. By P. A. Valle.
 27 pp. E. Funk & Wagnalls company.
 Both amateurs and professionals will find valuable information in this book.
 It is illustrated with photographs of well known players, showing just exactly how they play the various strokes, etc., of the game. Numerous other drawings and diagrams serve to illustrate every possible phase of tennis and these, together with the instructive text, make the book very complete.

MEMORIAL EVENTS OVER FOUR DAYS

School Children Friday, Decorate Graves Saturday, Sermons Sunday, Gatherings Monday.

MEETINGS AT THE AUDITORIUM

Observances of Memorial day began Friday with the usual exercises and addresses in the city schools.
 Because Memorial day itself falls on Sunday this year, the various public and semi-public meetings and programs in observance of the occasion will be held today and Monday, as well as Sunday. Monday has been declared a general holiday and will be so observed by public offices, schools and the banks.
 Saturday and Sunday will be spent by the various veterans' association and relief corps in decorating the graves of soldier dead with the flowers presented by school children.
 George Crook and George A. Custer posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, Lee Parry and General Lawton camps of the Spanish War Veterans, with their various relief corps and Garfield circle of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will hold separate memorial services for their dead of the year at various cemeteries Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Memorial Addresses.
 A Memorial day sermon will be preached Sunday at 11 a. m. at Dietz Memorial church by Rev. C. N. Dawson, which will be attended by the Grand Army veterans and relief corps in a body.
 "Men of 1861 and 1898—the Blue and the Gray," will be the subject of a memorial address by John Dale at the Jennings Memorial Methodist church, Fifty-first and Hickory streets, at 11 a. m. Sunday.
 All old soldiers are especially invited.
 "American Destiny" will be the subject of the Memorial day meeting at the Young Men's Christian association Sunday at 4 p. m. with Rev. T. M. C. Binningham as the speaker.

The first free band concert of the summer will be given Sunday afternoon at Hanescom park by the Letters Carriers band, under city auspices.
Children at Auditorium.
 Monday morning's chief Memorial day event will be the big gathering of patriotic school children, 5,000 strong, at the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. Appropriate exercises will be held, with Nelson H. Loomis as the chief speaker.
 In the afternoon at the same place, the regular Grand Army observance of the day will be held, following the street parade of National Guardsmen, High School Cadets and bands.
 After the Grand Army memorial program at the Auditorium Monday afternoon, the women of Garfield circle will launch a flower-laden boat on Hanescom park lagoon in memory of the sailor dead. This ceremony is scheduled for 5 o'clock.

Two Orphan Homes to Be Soon Built at Fremont by Masons

Two Masonic orphan homes are soon to be erected at Fremont, one is already arranged for and the other will likely be decided upon at a meeting of the Eastern Star at Fremont Saturday. John Latenser of Omaha has already drawn plans for the girls' orphanage. The specifications are in the hands of contractors, and a contract is to be let soon. The building is to be 30x40 feet and to have eight bedrooms. An orphanage for the boys is in prospect also at Fremont, and it is this which the Eastern Star is to consider at the Saturday meeting. These institutions will be the property of the Grand Lodge of Free Masonry, and are to take care of any orphan children of Masons in Nebraska.

Dietz Says Victory at Polls Tuesday is Now Assured

"We have as good as won the day," says Commander Gust Dietz, of the Greater Omaha forces, "so far as old General 'Apathy' is concerned. General 'Apathy' and his crowds are not only licked, but they are deserting to our lines. The Murphy-Seiby-Winters 'snipers' are about ready to do the same thing.
 They have as a matter of course surrendered all hope of victory, they have even abandoned all hope of a little official salvage, and we predict a wholesale surrendering of their forces Tuesday."

Light Company Puts Value On Its Plant

The Omaha Electric Light and Power company, answering a motion filed by the city in federal court, relating to the contested light and power rate ordinance, states that the valuation of the plant within the limits of Omaha is more than $5,000,000. This information was sought by the city legal department in its efforts to arrive at some basis upon which to determine the reasonableness of the new rates.
 One of the attorneys of the light company admitted to a representative of the city that the present rates are too high, but he contended that the new rates are too low.

Mother and Child Seeking for Kolod

The police are trying to locate Joe Kolod, 306 South Nineteenth street, who came to Omaha last Saturday from St.
 Paul and was to meet his wife and child at the Union station.
 The woman and her little one arrived here but were unable to find Kolod, whose whereabouts so far have not been ascertained by the police. In the meanwhile Mrs. Kolod and her child are being looked after by Police Matron Gibbons.
