

Don't Ever Rub Your Eyes

Use "Benetol" As An Eye Wash. Not Only Soothing and Cleansing, But Kills Every Germ That May Have Been Brought or Rubbed In.

The hands or gloves collect untold millions of germs. Some may be harmless, others dangerously poisonous when brought into contact with the eyeball or eyelids. When you come home from auto riding and your eyes burn from the dust and wind—or when they smart from any cause—don't rub them. Give them a cooling, healing bath with a mild solution of "Benetol."

Soothing, Cleansing, Antiseptic. This is only one of the hundreds of uses for this wonderful antiseptic and germicide. The sooner you learn of this most remarkable preparation, the better will be your health and general welfare. As a gargle it cures sore throat, as a mouth wash it keeps the teeth free from tartar, cures pyorrhea and keeps the gums healthy and free from disease, as a nasal cleanser it cures catarrhal conditions, applied to cuts and burns it heals and makes infection impossible, and taken internally it keeps the bowels, kidneys and liver pure, sterilized and free from germ life.

For children and grown-ups it is alike harmless, both internally and externally, yet as a destroyer of disease germs it is more powerful than even pure carbolic acid. Never before in the history of medicine has such a preparation been known. "Benetol" is sold by druggists in 25c, 50c and $1.00 packages. Send for our trial assortment of "Benetol" liquid, ointment and tooth cream.

This trial assortment is not to be had from stores and is sent direct on receipt of 10 cents (silver or stamps) only to those who have never tried "Benetol."

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Shares Dull and Heavy Following Publication of German Note.

OPENING PRICES ARE LOWER

NEW YORK, June 1.—Stocks were dull and heavy today following the publication of Germany's reply to the note of inquiry. Affairs in Mexico, which point to a decisive action by this government, also entered into speculative calculations. Opening prices were lower by one to three points, and were generally lower than yesterday. The market was generally heavy, but the movement as a whole was without significance. Total sales amounted to $14,000,000, the largest since the first week of the year. Foreign exchange continued to reflect the sentiment of the European money markets. Paris checks making the new low record of 5.57, which means that it takes three francs to buy one dollar. American dollars have never before been weakened by a 5.57, against 5.55 last Saturday. After the close of the market, the dollar was quoted at 5.57, equaling the recent low quotations. Bills on London were little changed and mostly for remittances to that center was extremely light. More gold was received here from Ottawa and the proceeds favor additional shipments from Canada and France.

Local time loans were easier, though most unchanged. Cash rates were further in excess reserves was duplicated at other important reserve cities. Chicago and St. Louis are showing a lower tendency for long maturities. Domestic developments were mainly favorable, ranging from the New York Central system for April to another dividend increase by one of the large copper companies. Other railway statements for April were variable. Atlantic Coast Line sailing $14.00 in net, while Missouri Pacific lost $7.00. The latter stock was under restraint all day, pending the outcome of the extension plan. Western freight shipments of various classifications were up to last year's average and in some instances ahead of the period. That section continues to pin faith on big crop yields and abundant money supplies. Bonds were easier, with little investment inquiry. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,754,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Missouri Pacific Gets an Extension on Money It Owes

The Missouri Pacific, according to reports from New York reaching the local offices, has been able to arrange its finances for at least another year and continue on easy terms.

Three years ago, in order to meet obligations and get the floating debts together, the Missouri Pacific borrowed $2,000,000. Out of the proceeds, besides paying off a large sum of floating indebtedness, another large sum was expended in rebuilding considerable of the lines of the system and still more was put into new equipment and betterments. The money was borrowed on promissory notes, becoming due July 1 of this year. Not being able to pay off the notes the Missouri Pacific has secured an extension of one year, with interest at 6 per cent. Besides the interest, to secure the extension the company pays a cash bonus of $5 on each $1,000 note extended. Of the $2,000,000 notes the executors of the Gould estate hold $600,000.

FIFTY TOURISTS TAKE RIDE OVER THE CITY

Fifty westerners who came in from the west over the Union Pacific-Northwest, making up one of the Raymond Whitcomb excursions, had an opportunity of seeing Omaha Monday afternoon. The manager in charge of the Whitcomb party telegraphed ahead for automobiles and when the train arrived ten machines were at the depot. The excursionists were taken on a two-hour drive over the boulevards, through the parks and residential and business sections of the city. They departed very favorably impressed with Omaha.

FRED STUBBENDORF IS TO BE BURIED THURSDAY

Fred Stubbendorf, a resident of Omaha since 1882, died Monday at his residence, 1230 South Tenth street, after a long illness brought about by hardening of the arteries. Mr. Stubbendorf was born in Rhina, Germany, October 28, 1841, and came here in 1867. He was in the wholesale liquor business until 1882, when he retired. He was also a member of the school board at one time. Mr. Stubbendorf is survived by two sons, F. W. and Herbert A. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from the residence with interment at Prospect Hill cemetery. Diarrhoea Quickly Cured. "About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement."

Little Tot Seeks "Daddy," Who is Sleeping Long Sleep in the Grave

A little flaxen-haired girl of about 13, with big blue eyes, dressed in a cheapingham dress, lay upon a grave in Forest Lawn cemetery Monday, weeping as though her heart would break. It was in the poorer section that portion given over to the single graves as the last resting place of those not fortunate enough to own a lot. A bouquet of flowers was carefully placed at the head of the grave and one little chubby hand rested against it. Along the driveway came a big, luxurious limousine and a big cluster of roses and hothouse flowers rested on the seat at the side of the liveried chauffeur. Inside a richly clad, sad-faced woman lay back among the cushions. The weeping of the child attracted the attention of the woman, and seeing no one near, ordered the chauffeur to stop. Somehow the little one reminded her of her child asleep in another part of the cemetery; to whose grave she was carrying the flowers. The tears started from her eyes and impulsively she clasped the child to her breast and tried to comfort her. "Papa, papa, I want my papa," sobbed the child. "What's your name?" "Rose." "Rose, what?" "Just Rose." "What is your mother's name and where do you live?" "Mamma's name is Dede and we live on a farm."

Careful questioning failed otherwise to bring out the name of the child or its home, further than that she had accompanied her mother, grandmother and aunt to the cemetery to place flowers on Daddy's grave, and becoming separated from them, had wandered back to the grave to get Daddy to go home with her. Putting some of her flowers on the grave of the child's father, the lady undertook to find the child's relatives.

HELEN MILLARD TO READ TO THE BLIND

Offers to Give Her Time to Helping Those Who Cannot See for Themselves.

TO TRY TO GET UP A CLASS

Although raised-letter books for the blind are scarce at the public library and no more can be bought now because of lack of funds, Miss Edith Tobitt, the librarian, has planned a scheme that will give blind patrons of the institutions all the pleasure and satisfaction of hearing the latest news and fiction, or recent works of history, science, or whatever else they desire without having to read with their finger tips.

Miss Helen Millard has gladly consented to help the library and will read aloud to blind people regularly, if the latter will go to the library building. Miss Tobitt announces that if blind people will communicate with her at the library before Friday morning, indicating their intention of attending, the first free public reading for the blind will be held in the second second floor lecture room of the library Friday at 3 p. m. by Miss Millard. This is a new feature at the Omaha library, and so far as known, has never been tried at any other metropolitan library in the United States. It is expected that quite a number of blind people will take advantage of the readings during the summer.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on overloading their stomachs or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "fish cream," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This marvelous method of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its re-generative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your nose, shoulders and hips disappear and you take on from 10 to 25 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. It is sold at all drug stores and other leading druggists of Omaha and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied as per the guarantee in every package.
