Plain Clothes Men Find Place to Get Free Beer at Night

Isn't it excusable to "give away" a bottle of beer when men plead pitifully for it and say they are as dry as a bone? This puzzling question was propounded to Judge Foster in police court by Mrs. Josephine Ryburn, keeper of a restaurant at 308 South Eleventh street, who had been arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a license.

Mrs. Ryburn, who said she had been trying to support six children and herself by running a restaurant, just happened to have some beer on ice, and she felt sorry for the plain clothes men who begged for a drink. She admitted giving them some beer, but said she accepted no money.

"You have no business either to give away or sell any beer," the judge decided. "Thirty days, suspended sentence, and don't get caught again, or you'll have to serve it out."

Jack Kaplan, arrested on the charge of keeping a disorderly house at the Berlin hotel, was fined $50 and costs, and he appealed to the district court.

Return Valuables for Reward and Are Promptly Pinched

After returning some stolen jewelry to Mrs. B. O. Esperson, 135 North Thirty-fifth avenue, two men who had a quantity of other small jewelry and a diamond ring, were arrested by Officers Emory and Wheeler, and are held in jail while the matter is being investigated.

They gave the names of Charles Clark of Chicago and Louis Strauber of Reading, Pa. They found Mrs. Esperson's name and address in the back of a locked trunk among the goods, and secured a reward from her for returning her valuables, which were stolen from her house recently.

Postoffice Shows a Big Gain for May

The business of the Omaha postoffice is growing by the well-known leaps and bounds, according to the report for May just issued by Postmaster Wharton. Receipts leaped and bounded up 104 per cent this May, over May of 1914. These are the figures:

Table with 2 columns: Receipts for May, 1915; Receipts for May, 1914. Values: $122,740.27 vs $111,306.16. Increase: $11,434.11.

ODD JOBS ASSIGNED TO THE OMAHA POSTMASTER

Postmaster Wharton gets all kinds of odd little odd jobs to do for people. J. E. Riegel, 430 East Monroe street, Springfield, Ill., writes: "Please do me a favor and call up one of the leading morning papers and tell them that I would like to have a sample copy of their paper."

In this connection the postmaster calls attention to the fact that mail addressed "Leading newspaper," or "Best dry goods store," or even "A newspaper" or "A dry goods store" is undeliverable. The postoffice is not allowed to deliver such mail to any one of the newspapers or dry goods stores. Mail, to be delivered, must be addressed to one particular person or firm at one particular address.

CRICKETERS TO MEET AT MILLER PARK SATURDAY

The Omaha Cricket club asks that all cricketers in Omaha meet at the Miller park course Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A match or two will be played.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparation of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

OTHER LINES WILL USE U. P. TO COAST

Great Western, Illinois Central and Northwestern from St. Paul to Turn Over Cars.

The move upon the part of the Chicago Great Western and the Illinois Central, it is asserted, comes by reason of a protest upon their part that special favors were granted to the Milwaukee and the Chicago lines of the Northwestern and the Burlington. It was contended that the Union Pacific was hauling the cars of these lines from Omaha and Denver, while the protestants were completely shut out on account of not having any westbound connections at Omaha.

HAULED WEST BY UNION PACIFIC.

Under the new plan that will be put in operation within a few days, the Chicago Great Western, the Illinois Central and the St. Paul and Minneapolis line of the Northwestern will bring sleepers into Omaha on their regular trains. Here the cars will be held and run west as a section of No. 19, leaving Omaha just after midnight.

Unless there should be a radical change in the running of the trains on the three roads that have formed a traffic alliance with the Union Pacific the passengers will all spend several hours in Omaha. In the three roads joining the Union Pacific in the traffic arrangements the trains reach Omaha early in the evening and will remain here four to six hours, or until the departure of the section of No. 19.

NO LOCAL BUSINESS.

The new train on the Union Pacific will be a counterpart of the regular No. 19, carrying nothing but sleepers, diner and observation and parlor car. No local business will be done.

At Ogden the train will be split, San Francisco and western California passengers going through to the coast on one of the fast trains, but still occupying their own cars. Those ticketed for Los Angeles and southern California will have their cars attached to the fast train on the San Pedro line and over this road be carried to destination. The same plan will be maintained in connection with eastbound business.

ANHEUSER SAYS CRAP GAME WITH NO STAKES POOR ENTERTAINMENT

Is there a man with soul so dead, who never to a friend has said, "I'll shoot you a quarter?"

Evidently there is, at least two, and they are Officers Coffey and Dolan, who wander about the city in plain clothes after dark, seeking whom they may arrest for tilting the lid or otherwise violating the law. They chanced to see dice rolled on the prescription counter in Dr. Robert O'Reilly's drug store at Sixteenth and Webster streets, so they arrested him and four customers.

When the men were arraigned in police court, the policemen declared they had been shooting craps, but admitted that no money changed hands in their presence. The officers thought craps could be played without any stake. Prosecutor Fred Anheuser informed them that "there had to be something to shoot for," and the case was dismissed.

ITALIAN COUPLE TO HAVE POMPOUS JUNE WEDDING

An Italian wedding will be celebrated with much ceremony Sunday, June 30. Anna M. Bova, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bova, will be married to Joseph A. Morinelli, a Union Pacific employe. The wedding will occur at 2:30 o'clock at St. Philomena's church, Tenth and William streets and the reception will be held in the evening at Mackley's hall, Nineteenth and Harney streets.

DANDELION WAR HAS COME TO END

Prizes Given by Mrs. A. S. Smith to Be Given to the Winner This Afternoon.

GREGORY WAKEFIELD CHAMP

The war against dandelions, waged by Omaha boys and girls for the last month, has ceased. Four bright, shining $10 gold pieces, offered by Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith of the Civic league committee, will be awarded to the children who collected the most basketfuls of dandelions, roots and all, and the "yellow perils" may now raise their heads without fear of attack.

In all 15,000 baskets of the yellow enemy were destroyed by youthful fingers and deposited in designated fire stations. Gregory Wakefield, 577 Meredith avenue, is champion long-distance annihilator, having picked 1,404 baskets. Gregory won the prize in the northwest section.

Little Marian Wilmoth, 3711 North Twentieth street, won the prize in the northeast section of the city. She picked 1,300 baskets of dandelions.

Ralph Bonacc, 1019 South Twenty-seventh street, brought 1,200 baskets to the fire station in the southwest district, and thus carried off the prize there.

Otto Mohr, 618 South Seventeenth avenue, collected 919 baskets in the southeast section.

Little Harriet Stanley, 2814 North Twenty-fifth street, collected 1,080 baskets, but is not eligible for the prize in her district. Because of her good work, however, Mrs. Smith is going to present her with a special prize.

The gold pieces will be presented Friday afternoon after school in Fire Chief Salter's office.

More dandelions were picked in the north part of town than the south. Mrs. Smith accounts for it by the lack of temptation offered by amusements.

"The children are farther away from downtown and there are not so many moving picture shows on the north side," she said. Mrs. Smith is enthusiastic about the good the children derived from being in the open air while picking the dandelions.

MATRON OF COUNTY JAIL IS TO RESIGN

Friend of Unfortunate Women for the Last Nineteen Years to Take Needed Rest.

THINKS A MAJORITY REFORM

Mrs. Jennie McPherson, friend and counsellor of thousands of unfortunate women, has decided to resign her position of matron of the Douglas county jail, which she has held for nineteen years. A statement by friends that she will make known her intention to Sheriff McShane as soon as he returns from a trip to Indianapolis was confirmed by her today.

"Mrs. Mac," as she has been known in the jail during all the years she has been in charge of the women's department there, is a kindly hearted Scotchwoman, who has never permitted one of her charges to leave the jail without urging the unfortunate to quit the ways of sin. Scores have taken her advice, many others have been indirectly helped by her.

MOST DESIRE TO DO RIGHT.

"Has your experience caused you to lose faith in human nature?" Mrs. Mac was asked.

"Human nature," she answered, "is the same inside a jail as outside. It is partly good and partly bad. I always have believed and still believe that most men and women desire to do right.

"Lack of moral virtue in women goes with the loss of their self-respect. That is why so few women who become criminals long retain personal morality. They are not like men who may be criminal in some motives and actions, yet keep for themselves a standard of some sort which is the measure of their self-respect.

MAJORITY REFORMED.

"It is not true that most unfortunate women descend lower and lower, as is generally believed, until they die in misery and disgrace. Many reform and become wives and mothers, or make honest livings.

"Of the few women who have been inmates of the jail whose later lives are familiar to me, more have reformed than have not done so. One exception is a woman who has been an inmate at intervals during the entire nineteen years I have been matron. Yet even she comes here must less frequently than in former years. She may yet die an honest woman.

"I am more than 70 years of age. I need a rest," was Mrs. Mac's reason for retiring from service.

Steals Drugs from the Medicine Case of Police Surgeon

A dope fiend who rifled a medicine case belonging to Dr. C. B. Foltz in order to get the drug his system craved, is being sought by the police. The physician, who is one of the city police surgeons, found that somebody, evidently driven to desperate means to get dope, had cut a hole in the leather side of a locked medicine grip left by Dr. Foltz in his office in the Creighton block.

Police Surgeon Foltz's medicine case was found to be empty, and the police are searching for the thief.

Maney Again Ousted as Chief of Police of Benson by Default

James Maney, chief of police of Benson, whom the district court said Mayor Mather could not discharge by casting the deciding vote in the village council, was ousted a second time Wednesday, when the mayor played another trump card in the game.

The council held a meeting. "Regarding James Maney, the chief of police," Mayor Mather remarked, "he failed to qualify within ten days as provided by law as an officer holding over from a previous term. I hereby declare the office vacant."

A hurried search of records and law-books failed to reveal a flaw in the mayor's logic. No successor to Maney has yet been chosen.

BURNING PIMPLES ON ARMS AND LEGS

Would Itch, Scratched and Irritated Them. Clothing Aggravated. Could Not Sleep. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In Four Months Was Well.

1324 N. Oakley Ave., Chicago, Ill.—"Little pimples began to break out on my arms and legs. The skin was red and water would run from the pimples. They would itch and burn and that made me scratch and irritate them. My clothing aggravated the breaking out. I could not sleep.

"I used a great many remedies but they failed to help me. I had the eczema for five months and then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed my arms and legs with the Soap, then I applied the Ointment. They stopped the itching and burning and gave me good night's rest. In four months I was well." (Signed) Benjamin Schedel, Oct. 15, 1914.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of affections of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are also most valuable for everyday use in the toilet, bath and nursery because they promote and maintain the health of the skin and hair from infancy to age.
