In the absence of the Rourkes Manager Bradford can always be relied upon to furnish an interesting attraction at Rourke park, The pilot of the tSorz now has secured Sam Crawford's All Stars, halling from Chicago. Crawford is the colored twirler who twice defeated the Brewers while twiriing for the Leland Glants last season. Crawford writes that his cohorts are composed of a galaxy of stars selected from the star colored teams of the country. He has Jackson and Buckner from the famoous Lincoln Giants, Louis from the Louisville White Sox and Hayes from the Chicago Royal Giants, in his squad. The tSorz are now the possessors of three clever boxmen in Hayes, Gray and Olson. Hayes and Gray have demonstrated their twirling skill in their recent work against the All Nations. Olson also has gained a lease on life and is now ready to exhibit his 1913 pitching performances.
