

Latest Photos from the War Arena

Turcos cooking mid-day coffee for their lunch

Kaiser's field kitchen - chef preparing lunch for his imperial master at the front.

An Indian Trooper

Women's Volunteer Reserve formed by Lady French and Lady Castlereagh to furnish a trained emergency corps.

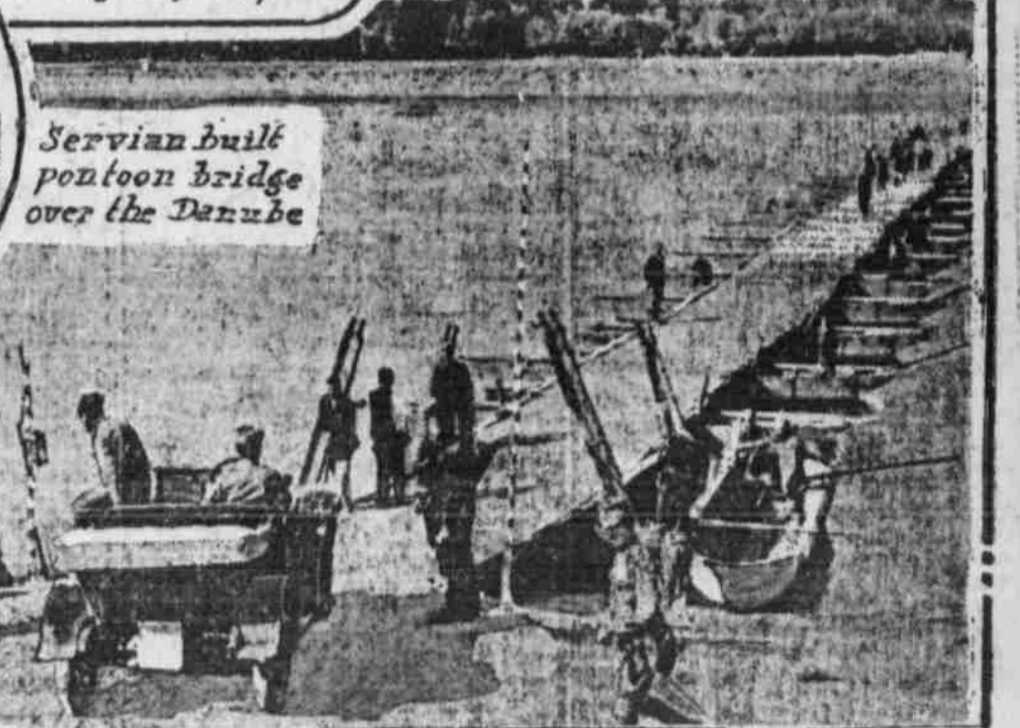

English torpedo boat B-11 that sank the Turkish warship "Hamideyah" approaching a British cruiser for orders

Turkish recruits from Anatolia

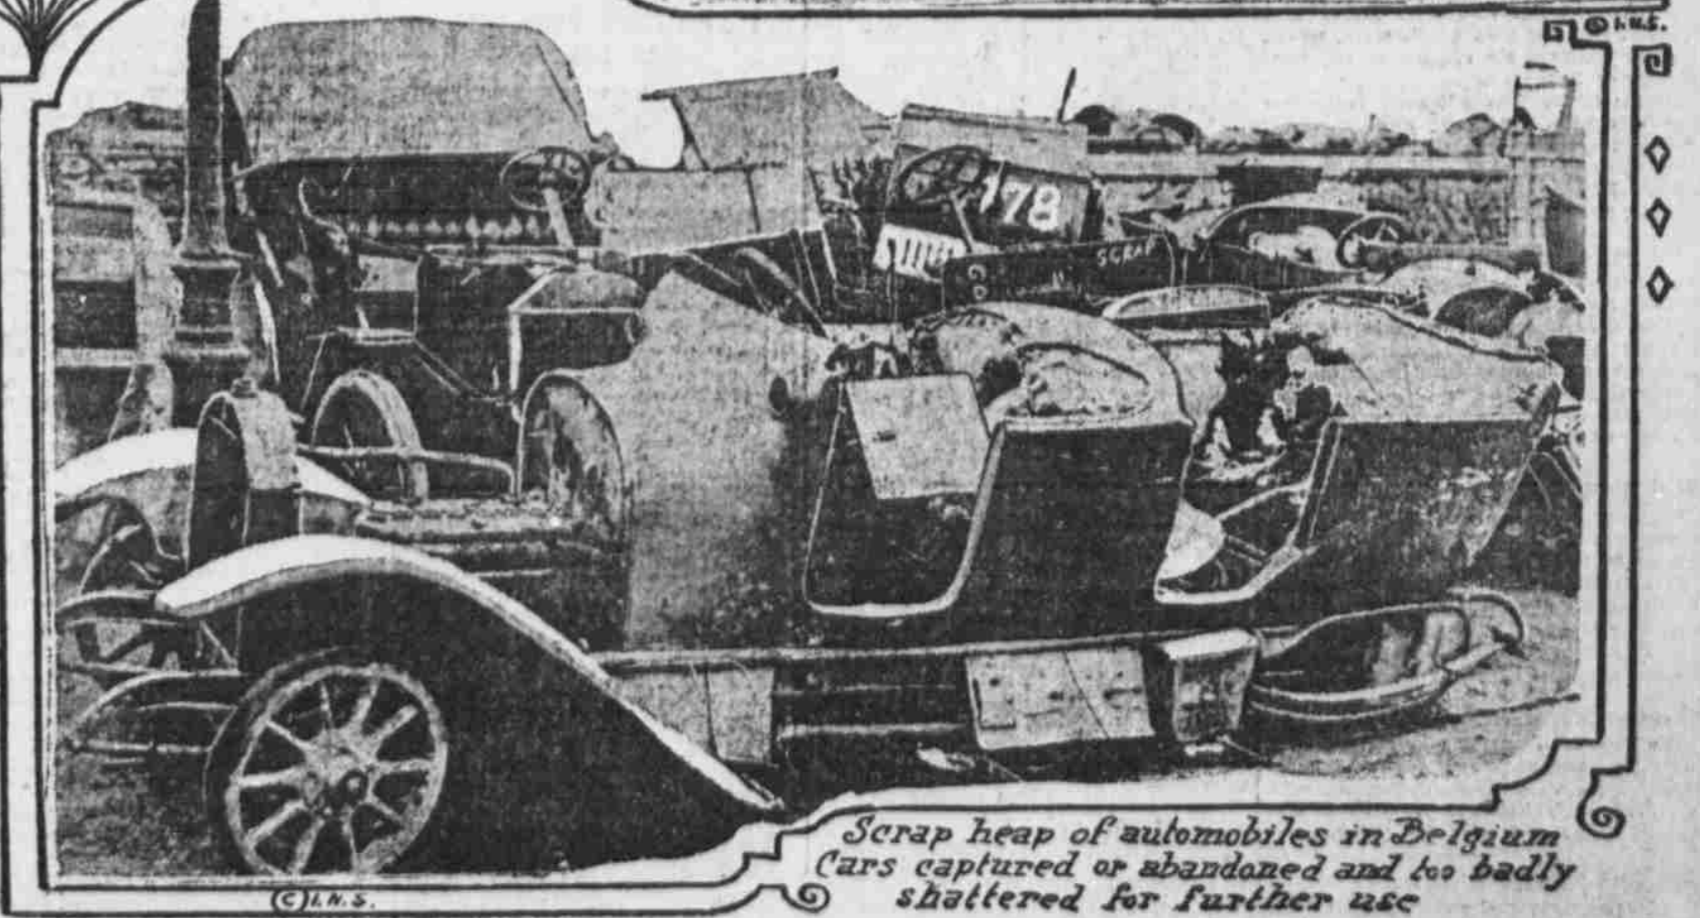

H.R.H. Prince of Wales at the front. His companion is Prince Alexander of Teck

Servian built pontoon bridge over the Danube

British army veterinary corps extracting a piece of shrapnel from a wounded horse in France

Scrap heap of automobiles in Belgium. Cars captured or abandoned and too badly shattered for further use