MOREHEAD TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Governor Delivers Message to Joint Convention of Senate and House Members.

HAS MANY RECOMMENDATIONS

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 7 .- (Special.) - Governor joint convention of the two houses this afternoon. In his address he said; To the Members of the Thirty-fourth Session of the Nebraska Legislature-

"In accordance with the constitution of our state, I appear before you this afternoon to lay before you such information as I have gained during my term of service as governor and to suggest, for your consideration, such measures as appear to me deserving of special consideration. There were many good taws enacted by the last legislature, and I am glad to see so many members of that legislature returned for the present session.

Lack of Harmony Among Douglas County Members

LINCOLN, Jan. 7. - (Special.) - As usual, there is lack of harmony in the Douglas county delegation. Trouble began in the democratic caucus of the house when Howard nominated a man for chapiain and Hunter nominated another. They of declaying the amendments carried and in this case it was Hunter and Barrett. In the senate the successful efforts of Quinby to kill off "Doc" Tanner, who was being boosted by Howell, started things humming.

None of the other members as yet have been in the spotlight, with the exception of Dodge, republican. Dodge has taken a part once, that of peacemaker or guardian angel. In the Tanner controversy Dodge disliked to interfere, so he said, but he admonished the majority that they should be mighty careful.
