

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar. SUNDAY—Young Women's Christian association, vesper services, 4:30 p. m. MONDAY—Social science department of the Omaha Woman's club, 2:30 p. m. TUESDAY—Oratory, current topics and philosophy and ethics departments...

MRS. MARGARET J. BLAIR, domestic arts expert of the University of Minnesota, who is to give a series of lectures at the Burgess-Nash store this week, will be honor guest at a luncheon given by the Omaha Women's club...

The state convention of the Nebraska Daughters of the American Revolution will be held in Omaha March 20-22. The local committee in charge of arrangements for this conference includes: Mrs. C. H. Aull, vice state regent; Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, regent of the Omaha chapter; Mrs. R. E. McKelvey and Mrs. I. W. Porter of the Major Isaac Sadler Chapter.

The Central Park Mothers' league met in the school auditorium Friday afternoon, forty-five mothers being present. Mrs. J. W. Metcalfe, president of the Omaha Story Tellers' league, told stories and repeated by special request 'The Little Blue Flower,' which she told at a previous meeting.

The Browning club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. Z. Gould, Wednesday afternoon, at which time selections from Browning will be studied.

A unique program has been arranged for the next meeting of the oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, in Prof. N. I. Rueda's studio. An unknown subject will be supplied each member, who will be expected to give a five-minute extemporaneous talk on this subject.

Leoncavallo's 'Pagliacci' will be the opera enjoyed by the music department of the Omaha Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at 7:15 o'clock. Miss Jessie Connaway, leader of the program, will tell the story of the opera, after which the following program will be given: The prologue, Mr. Carl Sibbert; Balladette, Miss Bertha Coffey; Duet—Temp. Me Not, Miss Bertha Coffey and Mr. Edward Fuller; To Go On, Mr. Floyd Gallup; Serenade, Mr. Fuller (By request); Rigoletto Quartet, Miss Bertha Coffey, Gladys Andersen and W. F. Shafter; Accompanist, Miss Allegra Fuller and Mr. Paul Reaser.

'Medical Inspection in the Schools' will be the subject of an address by Dr. Irving E. Cutter at a meeting of the social science department of the Omaha Woman's club Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Cutter is head of the college of medicine, University of Nebraska. Theodore Hanson, superintendent of the National Public Welfare association, will also address the meeting, and musical numbers will be given by Miss Elizabeth Batty. The program is in charge of the child welfare committee, of which Dr. Grace Wightman is chairman. Dr. Wightman will also give a brief talk, outlining the contemplated work of the committee. Mrs. F. A. Follanbe, leader of the department, has extended an invitation to members of the Board of Education, publicity bureau of the Commercial club, all mothers' clubs and the welfare section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae to be present at this meeting.

HONOR GUEST AT WOMAN'S CLUB LUNCHEON. PRESIDENT OF THE EQUAL FRANCHISE SOCIETY.

MRS. MARGARET JOSEPHINE BLAIR

The Omaha Woman's club at a luncheon, Thursday afternoon, at her apartments in the Knickerbocker. Miss Claudia V. Galloway, instructor for the philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club, will lecture on 'Mental Therapeutics' at the department meeting, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Galloway has been extended a complimentary membership to the Woman's club because of her able service to the organization.

The regular meeting of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Young Men's Christian association, at which time Mrs. W. T. Graham will give a report on the work of the scientific department. Thursday will be a nation-wide day of prayer for the national constitutional prohibition amendment. Cottage prayer meetings will be held all over the city at the following homes:

Mrs. D. L. Johnson, 630 California, 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Fannie Manning and Mrs. Margaret Wilson in charge. Mrs. F. W. Fowler, 1019 Georgia avenue, 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Watson B. Smith and Mrs. J. P. Lord in charge. Mrs. Nellie Patton, 222 Douglas street, 1:30 to 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Edith Shinrock and Mrs. Olive Smith in charge. Mrs. J. L. Edling, 247 Decatur, 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. Mrs. McClair and Mrs. E. P. Sweeley in charge. Mrs. E. Beard, 408 Grand avenue, 8 to 4 p. m. Mrs. W. T. Graham and Mrs. Hoebel in charge. Mrs. J. E. Vietus, 125 South Thirty-third, 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Sarah Powell and W. H. Mick in charge. S. I. Gordon, 184 North Fortieth, 3 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Jeter and Mrs. N. J. McKirick in charge. Mrs. W. H. Underwood, 4321 Farnam, 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. Edith Shinrock in charge.

The Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union will hold all-day services, Wednesday, at 10:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. at the Walnut Hill Methodist Episcopal church, Forty-first and Charles, in behalf of the national constitutional prohibition amendment. The rally cry of 'Our Nation Dry by 1920' has been adopted. Rev. A. F. Ernst of Lowe avenue Presbyterian church, Rev. U. G. Browne, district superintendent of the Omaha district of the Methodist church, and the Rev. Keve of the Walnut Hill Methodist Episcopal church, will speak at the afternoon session. There will also be music and other interesting features on the program. Women's Christian Temperance union members will take their luncheon and stay for both sessions.

The West Side Women's Christian Temperance union will hold an all day prayer meeting at the Jennings Methodist Episcopal church, Fifty-first and Hickory streets, Thursday. This is the day appointed for prayer for the National prohibition constitutional amendment and a program of speeches and special music has been arranged.

The Dundee Woman's club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. E. McCullay, 504 Cuming street. Edith Wharton's 'The Custom of the Country,' will be studied in contrast with 'The House of Mirth' by the same author. Mrs. Charles Leslie, leader of the program, will give the characterization; Mrs. Louverna Hathaway, the setting; Mrs. George C. Young, the plot; and Mrs. John O. Yelzer, the syllabus.

One of the large affairs of the week will be the Association of Collegiate Alumnae luncheon, which will be held Saturday at the Commercial club. The welfare section of which Mrs. H. E. Newbranch is the leader, will be in charge of the program and has secured the services of Theodore Hanson, superintendent of the National Public Welfare association to make an address. It is thought that Superintendent Hanson will speak on 'Moving Picture Supervision.' Mrs. Bryce Crawford, Mrs. E. V. Parrish, Mrs. Newbranch and Miss Elizabeth Brenner constitute the committee on arrangements for this luncheon, for which reservations will be received by Mrs. Newbranch until Tuesday evening.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. O. Carson, 2708 Pratt street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. Della Lynch will give an address on 'Character.' Mrs. C. J. Ziebarth, president of the club, will read a paper on 'Self-Control' and Mrs. G. R. Gilbert on 'The Walls We Build Between Our Girls and a Purposeful, Self-Reliant and Brave Life.' Mrs. J. C. Advers will give two readings, 'Anger' and 'Horace'.

The management of the HOTEL ROME wishes to announce that they are giving to the citizens of Omaha for the first time what all other large cities are enjoying in the DINNER DANZANT where you can dine and dance amidst refined surroundings, excellent music and good cabaret, every Wednesday and Saturday from five-thirty to eight-thirty in our beautiful new Ball Room. Mr. Harry Walker and Helen Kroner have been engaged to instruct and give exhibitions of the late and novel dances. Lamp's Orchestra will render all the popular up-to-date music and the strictest refinement and selection will prevail throughout.

Mrs. E. S. Rood

Boles' Roll call response will be quotations from 'Character,' and musical numbers will be given by Mrs. F. L. Paul and Mrs. F. W. Greenman.

Prof. Margaret J. Blair, director of the department of domestic arts in the University of Minnesota, has been engaged by the Burgess-Nash company to deliver a series of lectures on the third floor of their store every afternoon next week at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Blair has an international reputation as a speaker on the subject of home-making and domestic arts. 'Coming at a time when so much interest centers in matters pertaining to economy in home maintenance, efficiency in management and the cutting down of the high cost of living, these lectures should prove immensely interesting to the women of Omaha. The opening lecture Monday will be either on the subject of 'The Table and Its Appointments' or 'Health and Beauty in Dress.' There will be no charge.

The meeting of the membership committee of the Omaha Woman's club, which comes regularly Monday, will be omitted this week. The P. E. O. sisterhood will study 'France' at the next meeting, which will be held Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Rix. Mrs. N. Newcomb will have the literature of the country as her special topic and Mrs. Blanche Gutter, French politics. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Newcomb.

Mrs. J. C. Hammond will lead the program for the art department of the Omaha Woman's club, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. 'Spanish Art' is the subject for study this year, and Mrs. Hammond's talk will be on the following artists: Domenico Theotocopol, Josef de Ribera and Francisco de Zurbaran. Mrs. G. E. Bryson will talk on 'The Period of Philip II, the Conclusion of Italian Influence.' Mrs. Hammond will be in charge of the pictures that will be shown on the stereopticon.

The Wycho Story Tellers' league will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the public library. Bible hero stories and stories for kindergarten and primary grades will be told under the leadership of Miss Abigail Manning, who will be assisted by Misses Ida Crowell, Vera Du Bois and Agnes Fitzgerald. 'National Prohibition,' will be the special topic for discussion at the current topics department meeting of the Omaha Woman's club. The meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with Mrs. M. I. Creigh in charge.

The home economics department of the South Omaha Woman's club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Claude Talbot Tuesday afternoon. Miss Fulton will give interesting pointers on 'Cookies,' and Mrs. R. O. Bagby on 'Salad and Salad Dressing.' The hostesses will be assisted by Mesdames J. E. Rednar, E. Brown, George Brown and W. O. Neilman. Mrs. N. M. Graham, president of the club, reports the remarkable success of the hot lunch experiment at the West Side school. Between ninety-five and 100 hot lunches are being served every day to children at this school.

The Sermo club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Alice Bergen, 404 Charles street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A program of readings and papers will be arranged for this meeting. The Monmouth Park Mothers' club will hold its regular meeting in the school auditorium, Tuesday afternoon, January 12. All mothers are invited to be present. The author, Margaret Deland, will be the subject for the afternoon. Reading from her works will be given by Mrs. A. E. Gantz and Mrs. J. P. Morelock, and papers will be read by Mrs. Charles Copeland and Mrs. C. M. Flotts. Recitations will be given by Mrs. Gus Miller, and vocal selections by Mrs. W. Griffith.

The Benson Woman's Christian Temperance union met Saturday at the home of Mrs. R. S. Beasley, when fifteen new members were reported. The next meeting—January 15—will be a social event at the home of Mrs. E. J. Whistler, 2713 Sixtieth avenue, when a program and banquet will be given, to which local clergy and all honorary members are especially invited. The French department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence-studio of the instructor, Miss May Mahoney. Besides the grammar lesson, there will be a discussion of the interesting points on the right bank of the Seine, in French.

LOCAL GIRL ENGAGES IN CIVIC WORK IN CHICAGO.

Ida May Gordon

The Benson Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Swetland, Sixteenth and Riggs, when Mrs. J. A. Nickelson will be leader.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. At the regular Sunday afternoon vesper service this afternoon at 4:30, Mrs. G. W. Garloch will speak on the subject, 'A Sweet Briar Rose.' Mrs. Garloch is a very pleasing speaker. Miss Isabel Fulton will be the soloist of the afternoon. After the vesper service there is the social hour, when refreshments will be served. Miss Edna George is the hostess for this week. All young women are invited to these services, whether they are members of the association or not. Beginning Thursday at 8 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Hulbert of the St. Mary's Avenue Table and Its Appointments' or 'Health and Beauty in Dress.' There will be no charge. The members' council will have a meeting following supper Saturday night, January 16, at 6:15 o'clock. There are several matters of importance to be considered. Reservations should be made at the general office.

Children Steal Butter and Meat from Freight Car

Mary Janczkiewicz, 12 years of age, 23 North Thirty-third street, South Omaha, with two boy associates, Kazantny Pillepowski and Isadore Honyazski, aged 11 and 12 years, respectively, was convicted in juvenile court of stealing $16 worth of butter and meat from a Burlington car in South Omaha. The children were sent to Riverview home for a month.

OMAHA GIRL JOINS FORCES WITH CHICAGO CIVIC LEAGUE

Miss Ida May Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gordon, has taken a position with the Chicago Civic League. Miss Gordon received her degree as bachelor of philosophy from the University of Chicago at the midwinter commencement, having taken special work in sociology and political science. Two scholarships were awarded her at the university for excellent work in public speaking. Miss Gordon formerly taught in the Omaha schools.

ASKS FIFTEEN THOUSAND FOR SHOT THROUGH HAND

Arthur A. Diamora, manager of Nathan's lake, an amusement resort in Washington county, has brought suit in district court against Samuel Nathan, owner of the location, for $15,000 damages, alleging that Nathan came to the resort November 12 and shot him through the hand, inflicting a severe wound.

Dresher Bros. Clothes Restoring System. Phone Tyler 345 is the connecting link to the land of cleanliness. The clothes cleaning, dyeing, pressing, repairing and remodeling problems of a few years ago, are problems no longer at Dresher's. The seemingly impossible is accomplished here every day. 'We Do It Better' Dresher Brothers Cleaners 2211-2214 Farnam Street

Sixty Days for Man Who Insists on His Attentions to Girl

'This man persists in visiting my little daughter, although I have told him to keep away from her, as he is no fit companion for my little girl,' declared Mrs. Ella Corson, 614 North Twenty-second street, indicating Harry Floth, whom she had had arrested. 'Where is your little daughter?' inquired Judge Foster. 'Blanche,' called Mrs. Corson, and Blanche, who tips the beam on the shady side of 50 pounds, came tripping lightly before his honor. 'How old are you, Blanche?' again questioned the magistrate. 'With drooping eyes Blanche murmured '60.' 'Too young,' whispered Foster. 'Sixty days,' Floth. And the defeated lover was led away to the dungeon.

PARTY DRESSES. This is the season for Party Dresses and Ball Gowns, White Gloves and Opera Coats. They sell easily but clean nicely. We clean dozens of them every day and send them home looking like new. Don't hesitate to send us your fine clothes; we take all the risk and guarantee satisfaction. The best dressed women in Omaha send their fine garments to The Pantorium because they have learned by experience who cleans them best. A phone call brings one of our autos to your door promptly. Our new office at 2016 Farnam street is handy for those living in the west part of the city. THE PANTORIUM 'GOOD CLEANERS AND DYERS' Phone Douglas 968. 1515-17 Jones Street. N. B.—We pay charges one way on all out-of-town orders. Send by Parcel Post.

BRANDEIS STORES 'The Stores For Corsets' Introducing a New Nemo Corset. WITH a new self-reducing strap. You cannot see the strap when on the figure, as on other Nemo models; but the new Nemo strap is there, and so placed that it supports and reduces the figure and makes the wearer comfortable and keeps corset from riding up. There are two models—342 for the tall figure, and 341 for short figures. These corsets are made just full enough above waistline to allow figure to rest comfortably either sitting or standing. Slight nip at waistline, long skirt with six Lastikop hose supporters attached. $3.00. We urge you to have your corset fitted, not because the fittings are FREE, but because then only can you be assured of a perfect fit; and you will be benefited by giving us a little of your time. Our fitting rooms are comfortable. No need of fear of taking cold. Model 403 for short stout figures, low bust and under arm; long hip with rubber band at bottom of back wires, which insures a close fitting and comfortable corset when sitting. A special feature of this corset is the rubber abdominal supporter attached to inside of corset at sides of front steel. Long over hips, with heavy web garters attached. Sizes 21 to 36.. $4.00. Other Models for Slender, Medium and Stout Figures $3.00 to $10.00. Two Very Special Values for Monday. Coutil and Treco Corsets Medium and long hip; lightly boned. Sizes up to 30. These are worth much more than the price quoted here and they should all sell Monday. Choice at $2.00. Brassieres Made of best quality cambric. Neatly trimmed with embroidery with medallion set in front. Others are handsomely lace trimmed. Actual 1.00 numbers go in this sale Monday, choice of the entire lot at 50c.

The World's Greatest Instrument. Equals World's Greatest Pianists. HAVE A PLAYER PIANO IN YOUR HOME. The Strongest Word is APOLLO. This is Apollo Week at Hospe's. is the ONLY Player Piano that strikes DOWN on the keys like the HUMAN HAND strikes and that can possibly bring out the exact tempo and tonal interpretation of the composer. The ONLY Player Piano that has a Metronome Motor, the ONLY motor that sets the STANDARD of time. The ONLY Player Piano that has a POINTER that follows an EXPRESSION LINE on the Music Roll. The ONLY Player Piano that really shows how to pump, with no LEVERS to manipulate. The ONLY Player Piano that will wind and rewind the roll without electricity and without PUMPING. The ONLY Player Piano with Pedals built at an angle of leverage which makes playing TIRELESS. Featuring Now the NEW Apollo Upon Convenient Terms of Credit. From Monday to Saturday, Jan. 11th to 16th, Special Demonstrations by Mr. Earl Holland, Special Representative of the Apollo factory. Don't Miss This Opportunity. Tempting Prices. Terms. A. HOSPE CO., 1513 Douglas St. AN INVESTMENT THAT PAYS BIG DIVIDENDS A BEE WANT AD

Announcement. The Management of the HOTEL ROME wishes to announce that they are giving to the citizens of Omaha for the first time what all other large cities are enjoying in the DINNER DANZANT where you can dine and dance amidst refined surroundings, excellent music and good cabaret, every Wednesday and Saturday from five-thirty to eight-thirty in our beautiful new Ball Room. Mr. Harry Walker and Helen Kroner have been engaged to instruct and give exhibitions of the late and novel dances. Lamp's Orchestra will render all the popular up-to-date music and the strictest refinement and selection will prevail throughout.