By MELLIFICIA. Friday, January 22, 1915.

A recent dinner at the Country club, which always lasts until the wee small hours of the morning, one of the fair members of the younger set was forced to be accompanied home by friends other than her escort.

The evening was progressing beautifully and when 2:30 a. m. came, the father of this damsel started home and left orders for daughter to do likewise soon.

In this family when father speaks, he is obeyed, and following orders, the young lady started to go home, when her gallant escort positively refused to accompany her.

Naturally, she imagined he was only joking, but—nothing of the sort—he merely wanted to see the thing through, and having no regard for the wishes of his friend, saw it through.

The maid of the episode had to be taken home by friends of the family!

Debutantes Work for Charity.

The debutantes will forego pleasure for the next two weeks and interest themselves in the cause of sweet charity.

A musical for the benefit of the Social Settlement will be given Wednesday afternoon, February 3, at the home of Miss Jessie Millard on South Thirty-eighth street at 4 o'clock.

Miss Eugenia Peterson, one of the season's popular debutantes, has full charge of the arrangements and is working overtime for the success of the undertaking.

The program will be given by Miss Marion Kuhn and Miss Harriet Metz.

The program will be given by Mrs. L. F. Crofoot, pianist; Mrs. A. I. Root, contralto; Miss Harriet Metz, soprano, and Miss Helen Sommer, violinist.

The new resident head, Miss Jessie Powell Arnold, will arrive in Omaha on February 1 and this musical will be Miss Powell's introduction to the settlement workers.

The officers of this association are Mrs. W. C. Shannon, president; Mrs. George W. Holdrege and Mrs. J. A. Dumont, vice presidents; Mrs. N. P. Fell, treasurer; and Mrs. Edgar Scott, secretary, and a directorship of twenty.

At Prairie Park.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given at the Prairie Park club took place Wednesday evening, when the Needlecraft club entertained their husbands and children. It was an old-time affair and old party games were used.

During refreshments a cabaret performance was given to C. C. Haynes, E. C. Conley, Kenyon Smith and Albert Wedemeyer.

Mr. Conley, as special dancing professor, demonstrated the new dances, with Kenyon Smith as the tall and willowy Mrs. Vernon Castle.

Albert Wedemeyer, as Miss Baylona also did some splendid dancing with the professor. After that they demonstrated the characteristics of some of Prairie Park's most enthusiastic men dancers. Those present were:

SHOW YOUR GIRL AND MINE

Film Company Managers Here for Its Production in Omaha at the American Next Month.

FOR THE SUFFRAGE CAUSE

To arrange details of the exhibition in Omaha of the famous woman suffrage film drama, "Your Girl and Mine," Omaha suffragists were in conference this morning with Lewis J. Selznick of New York, vice president and general manager of the World Film corporation. He is in Omaha for a day on a tour of thirty cities, where they have branch offices.

Headed being one of the country's most notable converts to the cause of woman suffrage, Mr. Selznick is known as the P. T. Barnum of today and one of the great geniuses of the motion picture business. Within one year, he has built up a business of $1,000,000 per month for his company, and is now planning a gigantic consolidation of feature film concerns.

Consults Suffragists. Mrs. Draper Smith, Mrs. E. M. Fairfield and Mrs. H. C. Sumney of the local suffrage committee met and conferred with him and other officers of the company concerning the suffrage film his company will bring to Omaha and exhibit at the American theater February 25 to 28.

There are at least twenty cities in the United States that have pledged themselves not to pay a cash bonus for any national convention. This was done by the delegates at the convention of the Association of Convention Bureaus in St. Louis Wednesday.

Big Cities Will Not Pay Bonuses to Any Future Conventions. There are at least twenty cities in the United States that have pledged themselves not to pay a cash bonus for any national convention. This was done by the delegates at the convention of the Association of Convention Bureaus in St. Louis Wednesday.

holds forth, but a cash offer it regards as buying the convention outright.

Y. W. C. A. to Hold Annual Election on Next Monday

The annual meeting and election of board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association will be held Monday evening, following the annual supper of the association. Mrs. Emma F. Byers of Minneapolis, head of the north central field, will be the speaker.

Seven new members of the board are to be elected Monday evening. Following this meeting, the new board of directors will meet to elect officers. No important changes in the administration are anticipated.

For Everybody—From Every Point of View. It is sound housekeeping judgment to use

Cottage BRAND EVAPORATED MILK

It is economical—It is convenient—It is sanitary—It is rich. It is economical because you can use every drop and have every drop carry proper food value. It keeps sweet for days after opening. It is convenient because you can always have a fresh supply on hand ready for any emergency. You can use it for every purpose for which you have been using bottle milk.

And Ye Shall Mourn at the Last

Portentous and Ominous words and true of so many. Indeed few there are but what, as they look backwards, mourn some neglected opportunity and as a consequence are troubled and burdened by vain regrets.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co.'s Wonderful Linen and White Sale will soon be over. From the standpoint of sales it distanced far any previous January Sale. The order has gone forth—Clean out all odd lots—use the scalpel vigorously wherever necessary.

Final Words on Certain Numbers of Undermuslins

Gathered into divisions a few garments of a kind—Good, Better, Best—For instance: FIRST DIVISION SATURDAY—Corset Covers, Drawers, Brassieres, etc., sold formerly up to 75c, at 29c. SECOND DIVISION SATURDAY—Mixed lot of fine garments, some lace trimmed, some hand embroidered, sold up to $1.00, at $1.69. Sensational Silk Sale Saturday

We rarely use the word sensational—never without good reason. If the prices made on odd lots for Saturday do not stir up the people—we miss our guess badly. And must conclude that you don't want silks—THREE LOTS— I—Wash Silks, Kimono Silks, Brocades, plain Messalines, some fancies, sold up to $1.00, at yard 39c. II—Foulards, Plaids, Brocades, Pongee, Tubs, yard wide Messalines, Fancies, etc., sold up to $2, at yard 69c. III—Odd pieces of the Silk Aristocracy, 40-in. Crepes, Meteors, etc., and 44-in. Foulards. A lot of remnants in this lot sold at $2, $2.25, $2.50, a few even higher. Saturday at 98c.

In the Women's Section

In going through our stock of Ready-to-Wear Garments as we were listing them for inventory—we threw then to one side all garments which we desired to say good bye to. Another new season is at the threshold. We have had a big winter business. We have made some profit and so we said let's take our medicine and face the sacrifice now.

SO THE HIGH CLASS SUITS which sold from $35.00 to $65.00, will be placed to pick at, $15.00. The fine Coats which sold up to $50.00 you will get on Saturday at $15.00.
