Caro on Board Delaware

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Feb. 13.—Jose Caro, the minister of Spain in Mexico, is today an involuntary fugitive on board the American battleship Delaware in the harbor of Vera Cruz. Expelled from the country by General Carranza, first chief of the constitutionalists, Senor Caro has accepted the reiterated invitation of the American authorities to take refuge on board the Delaware.

Acting on an intimation from General Carranza that he was persona non grata and that he leave the country within twenty-four hours from midnight of Wednesday, February 10, Senor Caro arrived here Friday night and was today afforded asylum by Captain William Rogers of the Delaware, who acted in this matter under instructions from Washington. Senor Caro came to Mexico only recently. He had not presented his credentials as Spanish minister, not having received from his government instructions to join General Carranza here at Vera Cruz.

No Official Status, Says Carranza. Senor Caro, sent to Mexico as minister by Spain and now finding asylum on the American battleship Delaware, has in fact no official standing, and he was guilty of attempting to shield a man accused by this government of a serious crime, was the substance of a defense outlined in a statement issued tonight by Jose Urquiza, head of the foreign office under General Carranza.

In this statement, Urquiza recited that Angel Del Caso, a Spanish resident of Mexico, has been identified in the politics with General Francisco Villa, at one time having served as his secretary and that after General Villa's retirement from Mexico City he styled himself minister of Spain without any right whatever. When General Obregon entered Mexico City, the arrest of Del Caso was ordered and the asylum was given refuge in the Spanish legation by Senor Caro, who in the meantime had arrived in Mexico City. General Carranza ordered that the Spanish legation be searched after Senor Caro had denied the presence of Del Caso, and when Senor Caro refused permission for this search to be made, General Carranza ordered him to leave the country. Senor Caro protested, Senor Urquiza asserts in his statement, on the ground that as a duly appointed minister his legation enjoyed the right of extra-territoriality; at the same time he claimed the inviolability of his person.

Robison, who is held in the county jail, had made no statement regarding the shooting. Munroe, in a statement given as his deathbed declaration, said he frequently has been threatened with death because of his employment as an armed guard.

While the shooting has revived discussion of the labor disorders of last year, the authorities say they expect no further trouble.

TWO SHIPS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

Orlovi and London Trader, Small Merchantsmen, Are Victims of German Torpedoes.

FOUR MEN FROM TRADER SAVED

HAVRE, Feb. 13.—(Via Paris.)—Shipping circles here now consider it practically certain that the British steamer Orlovi was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. The last time the vessel is known to have been seen was at 2 p. m. January 30, near Dungeness, in company with the London steamer, London Trader, which is also missing. There is equal certainty that the London Trader shared the fate of the Orlovi. A telegram from Room says James Cullen, a survivor of the Trader, was landed here by the steamer Poland, the captain of which stated that another ship, whose name he could not give, had saved three sailors from the Trader.

The Orlovi left London for Havre on January 28. Its crew numbered twenty-one men. The British admiralty expressed the opinion on February 11 that it had been struck by a German torpedo. The London Trader was a vessel of 64 tons, built in 1915 and owned by the London Welsh Steamship company of London.

He represented himself to be a young farmer from Warren county, who had sold his farm, was to be married, and was coming here to embark in business. He told a straight story and flashed a check book which showed him with a balance noted down of nearly $2,000. He secured $68 worth of clothing and $10 in money, and after he had been gone a few days the checks he gave were returned, marked "forgery."

German War Office Declares Communication Much Friendlier in Tone Than Expected

BERLIN Foreign Office Declares Communication Much Friendlier in Tone Than Expected. SEVERAL POINTS ARE JUSTIFIED. Nevertheless, Kaiser's Government Determined to Adhere to Own Viewpoint. NO DANGER OF COMPLICATIONS.

The Day's War News

BELGIUM AND NORTH FRANCE are again the scene of violent artillery battles. BERLIN WAR OFFICE says victory in East Prussia is so decisive as to end danger of Russian invasion in that section. TWO BRITISH MERCHANT SHIPS are reported sunk in English channel by German torpedoes. LONG DRAWN OUT battle for possession of passes in Carpathian mountains is still undecided. GERMAN ATTACK in the Argonne has gained ground, the Berlin war office announced today, and more than half a mile of French positions have been won. There has been further fighting in the Vosges, and the Berlin official report states that all attacks of the allies were repulsed, laying particular stress upon heavy artillery contacts.

German War Office States that on the Western Front was Found Artillery Ammunition "which undoubtedly originated in American factories."

BERLIN (Via London), Feb. 13.—The German foreign office, after studying the American note respecting the declaration by Germany of a war zone in the waters around Great Britain and Ireland, states that the terms are much friendlier than previously had been expected by reason of the incomplete newspaper dispatches published here. The foreign office had not anticipated that the United States would accept the German position without objections and it even recognizes that from the American standpoint certain of the points raised are justified. Germany, however, it is declared, intends to adhere to its own viewpoint. Various officials, diplomatic, naval and military, whose opinions have been sought, profess to see no elements of danger in the situation and are convinced that the naval campaign can be conducted on the lines laid down in the admiralty proclamation without involving difficulties between the United States and Germany.

Filibustersers Again Get Busy in Senate As Dems Show Hand

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—While the administration democrats were refraining the ship bill for a new drive in the house, the republican filibuster blossomed out anew today in the senate, where Senator Gore tried to have the commerce commission discharged from his substitute, which is to be used as one of the basis for compromise. Senator Burton took the floor for a speech that promised to last all day, and it was apparent that the republican opposition was prepared to hold its lines firm until the administration compromise took a thoroughly definite form. Senator Weeks, author of the bill which is also a part of the compromise, predicted it could not be accepted in the senate with the amendments proposed by the administration in the house. Senator Burton presented two resolutions, one calling on the Treasury department for information of whether there were any negotiations even of a preliminary character to buy any of the German ships now laid up in American ports; and another proposing that a committee of senators investigate along the same lines. Consideration of both went over without action. When Representative Padgett introduced in the house a resolution for a special bill, it was referred to the files committee, which probably will not take it up until after it has been considered by a democratic caucus.

The trial and conviction of these Koreans two years ago attracted considerable attention on account of the allegation that certain Koreans had been subjected to torture in building up the case against the accused. The sentences of six years, imposed by the Tai-Ku court, were confirmed in October, 1914, by the supreme court of Korea.
