Blood Sufferers Want to Know

The Light is Turned on to a Subject of Darkness.

The mere fact that S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, drives out disease is a world's story, a topic of conversation wherever men get together. They wonder why, simply because most remedies are mystified and put before them as "discoveries." The facts are that we pay too much attention to possibilities and not enough to real, homoeopathic accomplishment. S. S. S. is a remedy of our fathers. It has a history that is written deeply in men's minds because it has done the work, driven out deep seated disease, revived hope, put the O. K. on an appearance and clamped down tight any effort of germs to get the upper hand. Any sore spot on the skin is an immediate demand for S. S. S. since the first principle of this famous remedy is to strike out for places of trouble. This is a physiological fact and S. S. S. is true to the workings of our body. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today at any druggist and begin blood health. It will master any blood disease and do it in a way to emphasize its influence. And if you would like definite advice write The Swift Specific Co., 26 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Their medical department is where most people first seek advice that puts them on the straight road.

Express Safe is Thrown from Train Near Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Police and deputy sheriffs were searching the Virginia hills today for two robbers who raided the express car of the Seaboard Air Line's Florida flyer just after it passed Alexandria, Va., last night, but got only an empty safe for their risk. The two robbers boarded the express car as the train stopped at Alexandria station, almost within sight of the Washington monument and bound and gagged the messenger. They rolled the safe out of the car door as the train was slowing up for a bridge and then jumped after it. The helpless messenger rode on and the robbery was not discovered until after the train reached Richmond, three hours later. A train robbery almost within the gates of the capital stirred up the police authorities considerably.

The police asserted that the fight was between strikers from a nearby tailoring establishment and men who sought to take their places.

In the White House at Washington, the president will press a button and the aerial of the great government radio station at Arlington will snarl and sputter. As soon as the signal is received the wheels will begin to turn and the fountains to play, the gates will swing open and a procession of citizens, with the mayor at their head, will march onto the grounds.

Conditions Among Chemical Workers Indescribably Vile

ROOSEVELT, N. J., Feb. 19.—Living conditions among the laborers at the plants of the American Agricultural Chemical company were denounced as "indescribably vile" by Dr. Max Jacoby, a local physician, in testimony today before the state legislative committee which is investigating the causes of the strike at the plants here last month and the shooting of strikers by deputy sheriffs. Disease was rampant, he said, and malaria and tuberculosis so common that it did not even excite pity. The chemical fumes in which the men worked weakened the throat, lungs and intestines so that they became susceptible to disease, he said. "Men and women die from tuberculosis right along, after exposing others to it," said Dr. Jacoby. "Little attention," the witness said, "was paid to sick children, and physicians were seldom summoned except when a child was dying, and then more to insure a proper death certificate than with any hope of saving the life of a child."

Metcalf's Comet Again Reappears

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 19.—The reappearance of Metcalf's comet, discovered in 1905 by the clergyman-astronomer of that name, was announced at the Harvard college observatory tonight. Miss Leavitt was aided in her search by the ephemeris of the comet's probable course around the sun computed by Bianchi, an Italian astronomer. The observatory bulletin gives the exact position (epoch 1875) of the comet as follows: February 9, 683, Greenwich meantime. Right ascension, 8 hours, 28 minutes, 36.2 seconds. Declination minus 1 degree, 30 minutes, 41 seconds.

The sheriff was on the way to convey the news to Casari when he made his fatal dash for liberty.

CABINET TALKS OVER KAISER'S NOTE

President's Advisers Do Not Believe An American Craft Will Be Sunk by Germans.

OFFICIAL TEXT IS DELAYED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The official text of Germany's reply to the United States' note warning against damage to American ships in the naval war zones about the British isles had not been received at the State department today. Officials know, however, that the reply has been delivered to the American ambassador and is now on its way to America. Officials explained the delay by pointing out that the ambassador had been using the cable which comes from Rome and goes over a circuitous route with numerous relays. When the cabinet assembled for the usual Friday meeting the unofficial report of the text of the German note published yesterday was discussed informally. After the cabinet meeting it was said it was considered that the situation was not at all threatening and that the administration had no fear that any American ship would be sunk.

Oil Cargo Intended for Government of Bulgaria is Seized

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Standard Oil company today reported to the State department the detention at Malta by British authorities of the British steamer Onega, which sailed from New York, January 2, laden with its cargo of American oil, part of which was destined for the government of Bulgaria. The oil company contends that the oil billed to Bulgaria was for the Bulgarian government, but British suspicion was aroused because of the close proximity of Turkey. Three-quarters of the oil was destined for Greek ports and the British authorities permitted the ship to make those deliveries upon promise to return to Malta before proceeding to Bulgaria. In the meantime, it was said, Great Britain would determine whether the Bulgarian cargo would be permitted to proceed or to go to a prize court. The owners of the cargo are seeking the delivery of the oil without prize court proceedings.

Predicts General Use of Aeroplanes in Next Few Years

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—After Secretary Walcott of the Smithsonian Institution had reminded the house naval committee today that while Samuel P. Langley was the first man in the world to make a heavier than air machine fly, his country was last of all in the world's development of aviation, a resolution was reported authorizing the president to appoint an advisory committee of scientists to work on aircraft development. Secretary Walcott said the dirigibles in the European war had not proven a success because they cannot weather gales and are endangered in bad weather. He said that he had information from English aviators that heavier than air machines are now flying in all kinds of weather. "If aeroplanes develop in the next ten years as in the last decade," he said, "they will be used for mail carrying where there are no railroads; where there are no bridges and where mountain ranges are to be crossed. They will cut expense of reconnaissance and certain kinds of traveling and will open large areas to rapid communication. I believe we eventually will have cheap fliers just as we have cheap automobiles."

BILL WILL PROVIDE ROAD IN INDIAN RESERVATION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The senate committee on Indian affairs today agreed to report as an amendment to the Indian appropriation bill a bill which has the endorsement of both Nebraska senators giving the secretary of the interior the right to connect up county roads through an Indian reservation. The bill, which was favorably reported from the Indian affairs committee of the senate and now on the calendar, was prompted through the refusal of an Indian of the Winnebago reservation in Nebraska to sign the necessary permits as provided for under the old law relating to the construction of county roads. The Indian in question originally agreed to the construction of a county road through his property, but later withdrew his consent, which tied up the proposition completely. It is for the purpose of correcting an obvious wrong that the bill was agreed to today. W. E. Whitcomb of Winnebago, who has been interested in the matter, left for Nebraska today, feeling certain that the legislation will get through all right. Will H. Thompson and Herbert W. Daniel of Omaha are in the city. Horses Sold to Farmers. (Correspondence of Associated Press.) PARIS, Feb. 19.—In order to assure the
