WANT BUILDING REPAIRED NEW PRESIDENT OF NEBRASKA

Tenants of Board of Trade Building Divide on What They

Want Done. LEASES RUN UNTIL YEAR 1919

When E. M. Morsman gets back in the city after being gone a few days he will be facing a little difficulty in regard to what to do with the Board of Trade building since the fire-a difficulty that involves the tenants and the leases. The leases run until 1919. The tenants are divided on the matter as to whether they want to force the stockholders to put up a building, and let their leases run their normal course on that corner, whether they want to force them to repair the old building in the shortest possible time, or whether than want to move out and forget the leases.

A certain clique of the tenants is being banded together to demand the immediate repairing of the building and the putting of their offices back into shape so that the tenants may occupy them until the termination of the lease. Others of the tenants are not in sympathy with this movement, as they hold the fire which destroyed the office rooms and made them uninhabitable necessarly terminated the lease automatically.

In the meantime the wreckers are at work taking down salvage, removing at least the upper two floors in accordance with the orders of City Commissioners Withnell. At the same time they are dragging out the wrecked parts and must be removed at any rate, whether the building is repaired or rebuilt eventually.

Ex-Governor Eberhart of Minnesota presided at the meeting. He appointed a committee consisting of two men from each of the several states interested, to constitute an official body, whose function will be to keep in direct touch with Faces As Fair the cities planning on river navigation, and co-operate with them. J. W. Gamble and Robert Money were appointed as the members of committee from Omaha.

"It was the general feeling," Manley, on returning, "that whatever develops along the line of river navigation, it will be of necessity along fines that are not antagonistic to the railroads, but that it will be conducted in such a way that each type of transportation will be a benefit to the other."

Wheat Makes Drop Account War News

Germany blockading the English ports had the effect of driving the wheat prices down fully 5 cents again. On the Omaha Grain exchange the cereal sold at $1.44 to $1.55, with a weak market during the entire session.

Corn was not hit as hard as wheat, but it was off a cent, or more, selling at 65 to 70% cents per bushel.

Oats lost about a cent. 54% cents being the highest price paid during the day. Omaha grain receipts continued light, there being but fifteen cars of wheat, forty-one of corn and seventeen of oats on the market.
