FFRAGISTS are making a final dash to sell enough tickets for the suffrage movie "Your Girl and Mine," which will be shown at the American theater Thursday, Priday and Saturday, to insure their winning the $100 prize offered for the sale of a certain amount of tickets. The prize, if won, will swell the coffers of the local suffrage organization. Christabel Pankhurst, eldest daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant leader, and Frau Rostka Schwimmer, the Austrian peace advocate, were negotiated with to give speeche; on the opening evening of the performance. Since then it has been ascertained that Frau Schwimmer has a previous engagement, but will spend Wednesday in Omaha, at which time a dinner will be given in her honor. No definite word has as yet been received from Miss Pankhurst, announcing her coming.
