

Art Society

By MELLIFICIA, Thursday, March 11, 1915.

A CHARMING matron had to go to the Fine Arts exhibit yesterday afternoon all by herself.

This does not sound so alarming. But just last year she was muchly accompanied. This lady has always taken keen interest in the annual display and is one of the very faithful and regular members.

She had planned on a pleasant afternoon at the art lecture yesterday, and had counted particularly on her husband accompanying her. She cordially invited him to meet her at such and such an hour and have tea afterwards, but he pleaded dutifully, a business engagement of the greatest importance, and a slight lack of interest.

"But," said the young matron, "you went with me last year."

"Oh, yes, but that was before we were married," laughingly slipped from the husband.

But there were men yesterday who showed true sparks of interest. One particularly was noticed. I do not know who he was, but, oh, that real "highbrow" expression he wore! With chin resting deeply in the palm of his hand he was a conspicuous figure, studying at length each picture with the heavy intelligence of the true connoisseur.

At the Fine Arts. The exhibition of the Fine Arts society was in charge today of: William Baxter, William Sears, Alice Carter, Margaret Baum, Mrs. George Fritz, Mrs. Charles T. Kouzine.

Original Cooking Club. Mrs. George Fritz was hostess today at the meeting of the Original Cooking club.

On the Calendar. The regular weekly chicken pie dinner will be given Friday in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church, from 11:30 until 1 o'clock.

Will Send Man East. "Part of the money accruing from new memberships we expect to spend on sending a man through the east to visit all automobile clubs of importance..."

SETTLE CASE OF MRS. GLADYS SHORT

Damage Suit Against Clarkson Hospital for $250,000 for Alleged Negligence Settled.

MRS. SHORT DYING FROM HURTS

Mrs. Gladys Short, 18 years old, who is dying at the county hospital of a broken back, the result of a jump from the fourth story of the Clarkson hospital in a delirium on August 18, following the death of her baby 1 day old, has received $3,000 from the Clarkson hospital in settlement of a $250,000 damage suit brought in her behalf.

W. J. Host, her attorney, declared the legislature should pass a law making hospitals responsible for improper care of patients, asserting that under court decisions in Nebraska it is difficult to compel payment of damages by hospitals conducted in part for charitable purposes.

She was informed of the settlement today, but manifested little interest in it. Physicians refuse to allow her to be moved from the county hospital.

It was alleged in her petition that while delirious she was placed in a fourth-story room in Clarkson hospital; that she was not properly guarded and leaped from a window while in this condition.

Mrs. Short was married to Sanford Short, a mechanic, about one year and a half ago.

Akin to Stick to Ship Until Orders from Washington

"I will not make any move until I get official orders to do so," declares Colonel Akin, cashier at the postoffice. He was slated for dismissal by the so-called efficiency board, and signed a resignation under compulsion.

Colonel Akin says he hopes to retain his position during the remainder of Postmaster Wharton's term, which has almost another year to run.

ADVISE FARMERS TO TEST SEED CORN EARLY THIS YEAR

Although a little early, the Burlington's homeeeking department has inaugurated its annual spring campaign for the purpose of inducing and aiding the farmers of Nebraska and Iowa to test their seed corn. Literature prepared by experts in the agricultural colleges of the two states is being sent to the farmers. This urges them to test their seed corn early and details the method of making the experiments.
