

Latest Photos from the War Arena

Servian artillery in pursuit of retreating Austrians

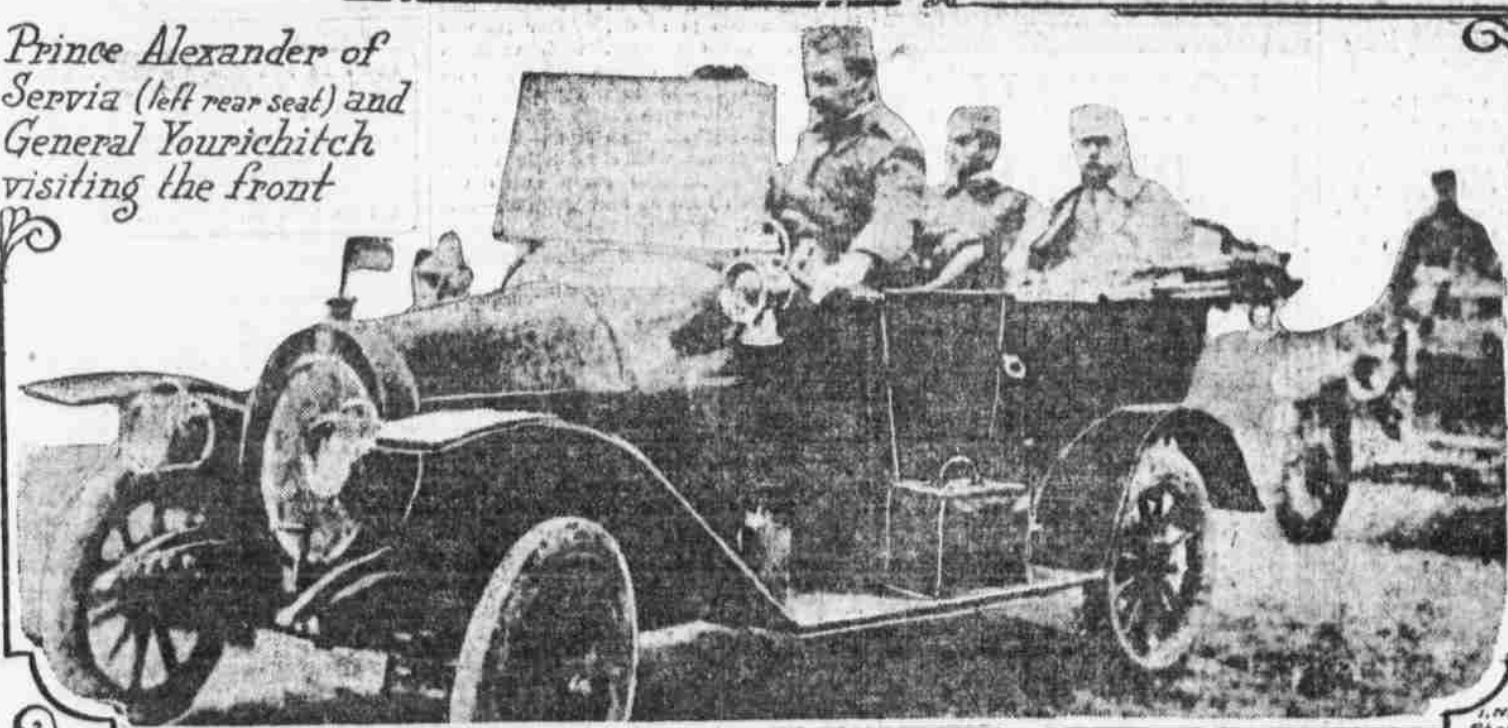

Remains of Zeppelin L.3 wrecked on coast of Fanoe, Denmark. This airship is supposed to have taken part in the raid on Yarmouth

Czar's Hunting Palace used by Germans for general staff headquarters at Skiermierce, Poland

Recruiting in France. Minister of Instruction Parrant inspecting a new company

Prince Alexander of Servia (left rear seat) and General Yourichitch visiting the front

Pile of German 15 centimetre shells and the basket-like casings used to transport these deadly explosives

Camels unloading crushed barley for the British army at their camp near Cairo