Women of German-American Relief Society to Collect Autographs for Commemorative Album.

LETTER TELLS NATION'S NEED

Women of Omaha, who have formed themselves into the Deutsch-Amerikanischer Hilfs-Verein, or German-American Relief association, have inaugurated a novel plan for raising funds, which they are pushing all over the country...

The plan contemplates the collection of the autographs of the contributors upon sheets that are to be bound with a handsome allegorical frontispiece into a commemorative autograph album to be deposited in the imperial library in Berlin.

The officers of the local Hilfs-Verein are: President, Mrs. Bertha Getzmann; vice president, Mrs. C. Haarman; secretary, Mrs. Olga Koehnman; treasurer, Mrs. A. Brandes. The blank sheets to receive the signatures are each separately numbered and contain blanks for 100 names inside of a decorative border.

On a stick about the outer door hung a lantern and the other appointments were in red old-fashioned barge dance style. Plenty of seats were provided all along the walls by means of planks resting on milk bottle cases.

Three big "salamanbers" filled with coke provided heat for the big room. The floor was strewn with cornmeal to make the dancing feet move more easily to the music.

The splendid music was provided by White's Alamito orchestra, Clarence White director. All including the leader are employees of the dairy company.

More Than One Hundred Employees. The company has 110 employees and they seemed all to have come and each to have brought a friend or two.

White ribbons worn around the left arm and marked with figures told how long each employe had been with the company.

Charles F. Schwager, president; George B. Dyball, treasurer, and P. L. Kernan, secretary of the Alamito Dairy company, were among those present.

Refreshments were of the real barn dance variety, consisting of cider, doughnuts and apples with unlimited Alamito milk and buttermilk.

The barn is modern in every respect from the ground floor which is cement and electrically lighted is fitted up as the permanent residence of the head barn man.

Kaiser Fears Power Coming to Odessa

LONDON, March 21.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says: "The emperor received David Bey, the Turkish minister of finance, at Berlin yesterday, when the Dardanelles situation was discussed."

ALLIES FIRE OVER 100,000 SHELLS AT TURK FORTS

BERLIN, March 21.—(By Wireless to Bayville, L. I.)—The Overseas News agency today gives the following: "Reports from Constantinople say that up to the present three allied fleets which are bombarding the Dardanelles had fired more than 100,000 shells. The Turkish loss of life has been small. Many of the guns of the enemy already are worn out."

MILWAUKEE FREE PRESS NOW IN NEW HANDS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—The Milwaukee Daily Free Press, owned by former United States senator Stephen P. Duggan, was turned over to a new company at a meeting held here tonight. The new company is capitalized at $125,000 and there are sixty stockholders.

USE COCOANUT OIL FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unrefined coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing.

To Treat Wounded On Neutral Ground

CHICAGO, March 21.—Removal of all wounded soldiers of the warring European nations to neutral countries for treatment is planned by Dr. Alex. Carrel, formerly of the Rockefeller institute, now in the employ of the French government research laboratories, and Dr. Carl Beck, of the North Chicago hospital.

ALAMITO EMPLOYEES ENJOY BARN DANCE

More Than Hundred Employees of Alamito Dairy Company Present with Friends.

HELD IN FINE NEW BUILDING

"By cracker, that barn dance was a humdinger," said old Uncle Al Amito. "The best barn dance, by gum, they've had in Omaha fur's I can recollect."

Uncle Al was referring to the dance given by the Alamito Dairy company to its employes last evening in the new barn which has just been completed back of the main building at Twenty-sixth and Leavenworth streets.

The second floor of the barn is very spacious and the floor is so good that it looks as if it had been built for dances instead of merely to hold the company's vehicles.

On a stick about the outer door hung a lantern and the other appointments were in red old-fashioned barge dance style. Plenty of seats were provided all along the walls by means of planks resting on milk bottle cases.

Three big "salamanbers" filled with coke provided heat for the big room. The floor was strewn with cornmeal to make the dancing feet move more easily to the music.

Berlin Agency Says Sudan Report Untrue

BERLIN, March 21.—(By Wireless to Bayville, L. I.)—The report recently published by the Vossische Zeitung concerning an insurrection in Sudan and an English "defeat" has proved to be untrue, says an Overseas News agency item made public here tonight.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BRITISH OFFICERS LOST

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, March 20.—Since the beginning of the war the British army on the continent has lost 1,645 officers killed and 2,333 wounded, while 70 have been reported missing. This gives a total officers' casualty list of 5,081 men.

Culls from the Wires

The election of November 3, 1914, passed off in New York state without a single complaint to the superintendent of elections. This is the first full election at the polls, the superintendents say in their annual report made public at New York.

St. Louis Americans Win from Houstonians

HOUSTON, Tex., March 21.—The St. Louis American regulars defeated the Houston Texas league club here today, 12 to 3. Score: R.H.E. Houston, 3 4 6; St. Louis, 12 17 4.

ARKANSAS CHIEF SIGNS MINIMUM WAGE BILL

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 21.—Governor Hays today signed the bill making capital punishment optional with juries and the minimum wage bill for women, both of which were passed by the recent legislature.

BLOOD FLOWS AS GREEKS AND BULGARIANS FIGHT

LONDON, March 21.—Three Bulgarian soldiers were killed and several Greek soldiers wounded in a fight which followed an attempted incursion by a strong Bulgarian band in the region of Demot-Hissar, according to an Athens dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company.

MASON CITY, Ia., March 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Dr. C. M. Swale, noted surgeon of Iowa, died from blood poisoning this morning contracted from performing Caesarian operation.

CASTLE HOTEL OPEN; MANY AT RECEPTION

Names of Guests Cover Three Pages of Register on the First Day.

LOBBY A MASS OF FLOWERS

The Castle hotel, Sixteenth and Jones streets, was opened to the public Saturday.

From 2 p. m. till after midnight, Manager Fred A. Castle kept open house and received the congratulations of an apparently unlimited number of friends.

Everybody was welcome and made to feel at home. It wasn't far between punch tables and stands where little cakes and confections were dispensed to everybody.

The lobby seemed a mass of flowers. An enormous basket design expressed the good wishes of the Omaha Hotel Men's association.

Every department of the hotel is in full operation and the names of guests cover three pages of the register the first day.

Dancing in Ball Room

In the evening the ball room on the second floor was crowded to see an exhibition of fancy dancing under the direction of Willard Chambers.

People were allowed to go through the building as they pleased and on all floors they were busy inspecting the rooms and wondering at the completeness and beauty of this new caravansary that has been added to Omaha's equipment for entertaining the stranger within its gates, as well as the citizen.

The whole affair seemed actually to reflect the personality of the manager to a remarkable degree. It was informal. Everybody was told to make himself and herself at home. And everybody did so that it seemed like a big family affair.

And so the "House of Safety," as Mr. Castle has called it, is open for business.

Suffragists Form New Suffrage Band; Bolt Organization

CHICAGO, March 21.—A minor movement among the organized suffragists of Illinois resulted in the organization here today of a new suffrage league. Mrs. John Bass was named chairman of the tentative committee to push the suffrage amendment at the present session of the Illinois legislature in opposition to the policy of Mrs. Grace Whitcomb.

The new committee includes a list of fifty women who signed petitions for the introduction of the suffrage amendment. After they had selected Mrs. Bass as chairman they appointed Mrs. William Munroe secretary. Mrs. Medill McCormick, who made a special trip from Springfield to attend the meeting, was authorized to use every effort to push the amendment in Springfield.

These were appointed to head the sub-committees: Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, finance; Mrs. Florence B. Peterson, literature; Miss R. Grace Nicholas, publicity; Mrs. Virginia Brooks Washburne, organization; and Miss Sophronia Breckinridge, Miss Marion Drake and Miss Harriet Vittum, vice chairmen.

An interview which appeared in the Berlin papers. David Bey intimated that the emperor was much concerned about the possible fate of Constantinople, not only because of the tremendous political consequences which would result, but also on account of the prosperity which the forcing of the Dardanelles would bring to Odessa. The emperor is quoted as saying: "We cannot allow Odessa to become another Hamburg."

Will Maintain Guard

At 8 o'clock leaders for an attempt at lynching had been found and a mob of 300 formed and marched to the city hall, invading the chief of police's office and packing into the halls of the building. The mob was not to be taken out of town was not believed until the officers unlocked the jail and permitted representatives of the mob to search it. Menendez was not found, but Verranza was discovered. When the mob was informed that Menendez really was gone there was a demonstration against Verranza and the police with difficulty prevented him from being dragged from the jail and killed.

Ministers to Wait Upon Council Today

This morning at 10 o'clock a special committee representing the Omaha Ministerial union will wait upon the city commissioners with a report covering details of investigations said to have been made by a special vice committee. This report contains names and addresses of various places where laws have been said to have been violated during the last few months. The personnel of the committee selected to meet the city officials is: Rev. A. C. Douglas, Rev. C. N. Dawson, Rev. D. E. Jenkins, Rev. Titus Love and Rev. O. D. Baltaly.

OMAHA POSTAL CLERKS ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS

Clerks at the Omaha postoffice entertained a big crowd of their friends last night at the Swedish Auditorium with a local-talent minstrel show and a dancing party.

Affair in Charge Of Young Women

Usherettes and only women ticket-sellers will be a feature of the Mary Antin lecture at the First Methodist church Tuesday evening. Mrs. F. D. Weed, president of the Political Equality league, under whose auspices the authoress is being brought to Omaha, has announced the following young women who will make their debut as ushers:

Retal Clerks to Meet For First Time in Year

OFFICERS FOOL THE MOB

Three Hundred Men Besiege Rock Springs, Wyo., Jail, Seeking Mexican Slayer.

PRISONER SAFE AT GREEN RIVER

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., March 20.—While a mob of 300 men last night besieged the city jail here and clamored for Juan Menendez, slayer of Town Marshal Thomas Harris, Menendez, probably mortally wounded, was surrounded by special guards in the county jail at Green River, sixteen miles distant, to which he was moved by Sheriff Matt McCurt.

The mob, when it learned that Menendez had been spirited to the county seat, considered lynching Alfiro Verranza, a friend of Menendez, who lay in his neck, but was dissuaded from this by the pleas of police, who argued that Verranza had had no connection with the killing of Harris.

Trails to Secure Train. Later the mob attempted to secure a special train, intending to go to Green River and lynch Menendez, but was not successful, and finally sullenly dispersed. In anticipation of a further attempt summarily to avenge the death of Harris, Sheriff McCurt will have Menendez kept under strong guard at Green River or Rawlins, a rumor which the officer will not discuss, saying that Menendez has been transferred to the jailer place, which is 120 miles east of here.

The death of Harris, who was a popular officer, caused public feeling to reach white heat. It was not publicly known that Menendez, who was shot twice after he had shot Harris last Saturday, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning had been taken from the state hospital here and placed aboard a train, and early last evening knots of men began to collect in the business district and discuss the advisability of lynching the prisoner.

March on City Hall. Prior to the shooting of Harris, Menendez and Verranza had been members of a party of Mexican carousers who engaged in a fight among themselves. In this fracas Verranza's throat was gashed by another Mexican, the wound almost resulting in his death from hemorrhage before a surgeon could give him attention. He has been held in jail as a witness against his assailant should the latter be caught.

While Menendez was at bay on the roof, another member of the party of Mexicans smashed a plate-glass window in a neighboring building and stole a quantity of merchandise, escaping with his loot in the excitement incidental to the siege of the saloon.

Will Maintain Guard. At 8 o'clock leaders for an attempt at lynching had been found and a mob of 300 formed and marched to the city hall, invading the chief of police's office and packing into the halls of the building.

The mob was not to be taken out of town was not believed until the officers unlocked the jail and permitted representatives of the mob to search it. Menendez was not found, but Verranza was discovered. When the mob was informed that Menendez really was gone there was a demonstration against Verranza and the police with difficulty prevented him from being dragged from the jail and killed.

Leaving the city hall, the mob went to the railroad and attempted to secure a switch engine and cars for a trip to Green River but could not find such equipment. Three automobiles loaded with friends of Harris left town for Green River soon after the mob dispersed but as no demonstration occurred at Green River it is supposed that this expedition was abandoned before the county seat was reached.

Fight Among Selves. Today the town was quiet, but the guard about Menendez will be maintained. Menendez shot Marshal Harris last Saturday night when the officer attempted to arrest him as he was robbing a saloon. Menendez had driven the bartender and porter from the place and was rifling the cash-register when Harris, who had been summoned by the bartender, stepped through the door. Instantly Menendez opened fire and Harris fell with three wounds.

Menendez fled to the second story of the saloon building and crawled out on an adjacent roof, where he lay at bay. He was shot by the officer as he went to an adjacent building and shot him twice. He crawled back into the saloon building but was too badly wounded to make further resistance and found helpless on a bed.

National Child Labor Exhibit All Week at the County Court House.

HOPE FOR SOME LEGISLATION

How rosy babes from three to a dozen years of age are fed into the jaws of the great factories to come out as human junk in a few years, is illustrated with startling realism in a few score of big photographs at the National Child Labor exhibit now on at the Douglas county court house.

"I don't like your poster," said a merchant who saw a beautiful American flag waving over the staggering wrecks of children, ready for the scrap heap. They are real photographs.

If they were paintings, one might like them, for combinations of colors are pretty even if they do tell an ugly story. But real photographs are so shameful in their reproduction of details, such as an arm gone at the shoulder of a 2-year-old boy, two fingers gone from the hand of a 3-year-old, standing at the door of the factory that chewed them off.

So it is that the National Child Labor committee has but a few score photographs illustrating the crime of child labor. It has but a flash of the scene of horror. It has but a cross-sectional view of the vast brigades of slashed and maimed children who steadily tramp, tramp toward the grave and toward the prisons and almshouses.

Hope for Legislation. The committee hopes for federal legislation that will put a stop to child labor. It hopes for state legislation in all the states of the union. It has just lost a fight in South Carolina, because the cotton mill men instructed their senators and representatives on the subject. It has just lost a fight in the federal congress, because the mill men and coal miners of a dozen eastern states instructed their senators and representatives. Still this committee is working. It is working to build a public sentiment that senators and representatives cannot afford to disregard.

Josephine J. Eschenbrenner, membership secretary, is in charge of the exhibit which is to be at the court house all week. It has been traveling for a half year through the middle west. Hundreds of people gaped when they visited the exhibit yesterday.

"Rusty Shovel" Gone From Omaha History

Workmen yesterday completed the demolishing of the noted old "Rusty Shovel" lodging house at Sixteenth and Davenport streets, which was torn down to make way for a new six-story building soon to be erected.

The "Rusty Shovel" is one of the relics of Omaha halcyon days, when Mickey Mullen's "theater" was operating in full bloom right across the street and when Omaha was a wide open town.

Just what the real name of the house was seems to be forgotten, but for years it has been familiarly called the "Rusty Shovel." It was originally a good second class hotel, but later deteriorated into a questionable place. Lately it has been used as a 10-cent "flophouse" by itinerants.

Diggs Nolen Caught After Prison Break

Diggs Nolen, who was sentenced to serve a long term in federal prison at Leavenworth for defrauding Tom Dennison of $1,000 by misuse of the mails, and who later escaped by crawling through a sewer pipe, has been apprehended at New Orleans, according to word received by the local police from the prison authorities.

Nolen attracted much attention by his sensational attempt at a wholesale jail delivery from the new Douglas county prison, a year ago. He is a brother of a former Memphis city detective, who was dismissed from the service because of alleged connection with a gang to which his brother belonged. According to the local police, Nolen comes of a good family in Memphis.

EGZEMA ITCHED ALL THE TIME

Tortured for 18 Years. Jar of Resinol Ointment cured my Eczema. I am cured. Dec. 12, 1914.—I was tortured with eczema for about 18 years. From my ankles to my knees I was covered with blisters which would ooze a watery substance and then dry up and scale off something like fish scales. My legs and feet were fiery red and would swell up so that I could not get my shoes on. They would itch and burn all the time, and worse at night, when I would wake up scratching and bleeding.

Resinol Almost at Once. "I tried every remedy recommended for eczema but without any benefit. I can't say too much in praise of what Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap have done for me. It relieved almost at once, and a 50c Jar of Resinol Ointment and less than a cake of Resinol Soap completely cured my troubles. I am in my 57th year." (Signed) D. L. Lindsey, 213 E. Day St., Denton, Tex. Every druggist sells Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. For trial, free, write to Dept. B-1, Resinol, Baltimore.

BAKERIES LOSE OUT BY REDICK RULING

Former Decision in Police Court Not Binding as to Future Prosecutions.

PLEA OF BURNS IS DISMISSED

Decision once made by Police Judge Foster that the Omaha bread ordinance is unconstitutional does not prevent future prosecutions for violations of the enactment. District Judge Redick decided in the case against the Jay Burns Baking company, charged with selling underweight bread.

As a result, it is anticipated by City Prosecutor Anheuser, the baking company will be compelled to defend the suits against it on their merits. It interposed a plea that on account of Foster's decision a later conviction by Acting Judge Haswell was null and void. It was this plea which was overruled by the district judge.

Judge Redick did not pass on the constitutionality of the bread ordinance. This point, it was said, will next be raised by the baking company. Similar ordinances, according to Anheuser, have been upheld by supreme courts of several states and by the United States supreme court.

Because the ordinance applies only to the size of loaves and does not dictate their price, it is "regulatory," and a proper exercise of the city's police power, asserted the city prosecutor.

Look at Child's Tongue If Sick, Cross, Feverish

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sour throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here.

To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company," Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement
