

How To Keep Cool During

KEEPING cool during hot weather--- it's a problem that recurs every summer, and is especially likely to be uppermost during the days of August. But it is not a hard thing to keep cool when the weather is sweltering humanity---not hard if one has the right state of mind. The person who has control of his mind will do the things and surround himself with the conditions which will give him cool comfort. There is the electric fan, for instance, it cools the body. There is the proper drink
