BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

New Record for Enrollment and Larger Attendance.

Boston's public day and evening schools Titled American Girl Plans Corps of Nurses have established a new record for attendance. Figures just compiled in the office of Superintendent Dyer show the attendance for the year just closed to have been 141,624, which is 5,895 greater; than the attendance during the preceding year and far in excess of all other totals. There were 118,707 pupils in the regular day schools, 21,604 in the evening schools and 1,313 in the continuation schools.

School closed for the year last Friday and students and faculty will enjoy a vacation of six weeks. The last two days of the term were devoted to examinations in county, life, and city certificate subsects.

schools. In the day schools there were 69,543 boys and 58,164 girls, an increase of 1,830 boys and 1,371 girls. There were sixteen fewer pupils in the Normal school and 145 fewer pupils in the kindergardens, but the High and Latin schools gained 784, the elementary grades 2,452 and the special

The average daily membership in the regular day schools was 106,426. The gain for the year in average daily membership was 3,348, which is the largest increase on record for local schools and 1,300 more than the corresponding increase for the preceding year.

There are now 3.112 teachers, principals and supervisors in the service, of which number 462 are men and 2,650 are women. Of graduates in June there were 562 more than a year ago. The number this year was 9,361. The number of pupils in the elementary schools who were promoted at the end of the year was 78,805,
