Women are voting for all officers for the first time. The names of 300,000 of apest and Reti of Vienna were tied for them are on the poll books and they are represented by several state and congressional candidates. The women's organizations have forced every candidate to declare himself on national prohibition and national suffrage. An unusual feature was the fact that candidates for the supreme and district courts ran on a nonpartisan ticket and a woman-Mrs. Lizzie S. Sheldon of Lawof the supreme court.

Congressman Victor Murdock of Wichheads the ticket for governor.

Senator Joseph L. Bristow is having strong opposition in the republican primaries in his effort to return to the United States senate. Charles Curtis of Topeka, A. M. Harvey of Topeka and H. H. Tucker of Kansas City oppose him. The democrats have a seven-cornered contest for the senatorial nomination.
