

Council Bluffs TO BE BIGGEST AND BEST Outlining Plans for Floral Parade at Full Moon Carnival This Fall. NEW IDEA OF SELECTING JUDGES Committee of Women Named to Look After the Automobile Feature of the Big Show.

For the purpose of making the floral parade on the opening day of the carnival more imposing and more beautiful than was last year, George S. Wright has been designated by William Schnorr, in charge of the parade, to appoint a large number of women to assist in the work of managing the parade and securing cars to be entered as contestants. Mr. Wright has named a committee of thirty-eight women, with Mrs. George Gerzer as chairman. All have consented to act, making it certain that there will be no lack of contestants for the prizes that will be offered.

Attorney Wright, in selecting the committee, chose women who are skillful automobilists, resourceful and original in designing handsome things, and who would naturally be the first to enter the lists of contestants for the prize honors. Thus right at the start he assures thirty-eight entries, with a certainty that the number will be multiplied, and the probability that there will be 100 flower-wreathed cars to compete for the prizes.

Many Prizes Offered.
This year there will be first, second and third prizes in all of the four divisions of the parade. In the flower parade the first prize will be $100, the second $50, and the third $25. A new method will be used this year in judging. The judges will all be men and no judge will know who the others are. They will be out-of-town men and they will make their awards purely on the merit of the decorations.

Each will gather his data as the parade passes. Each will be given the opportunity to view it two or three times from different angles. When all of the points of all of the cars are considered, the judges will go to a designated place where they will meet each other for the first time. This will remove the slightest chance for any suspicion of favoritism. The purpose is to make the floral parade one of the really spectacular features of the season.

For the purpose of securing pledges from the owners of automobiles to become contestants and to have general charge of the floral parade, Mr. Wright has named the following women, all of whom are married:

- Mrs. George Gerzer, Chairman
- Mrs. J. W. Bell
- Mrs. Frank Binder

Short Cut System Stops Bookkeeping

The Commercial club and other business organizations are interested in a new method of keeping business accounts, originated and perfected by George W. Santha, manager of the Monarch Printing company.

It is a short cut to the results that all business men seek in the systems of bookkeeping now used, but it does away with the ponderous methods and gives the business man a constant survey of his business, as if it were all spread before him on a checker board, and enables him to strike a trial balance every hour if he desires, instead of at the end of the year. It is accomplished by daily entries in two small books, and is pronounced to be so simple that anyone without knowledge of bookkeeping can use it. It has attracted such interest that local expert accountants have been engaged for the last two weeks seeking to find defects. Commercial organizations have become interested for the reason that the income tax law and the new regional banking system are going to require more accurate methods of accounting in all lines of business, farmers as well as business men. The government has been very lenient in the income tax matter, but with the regional bank system in operation the business man will have to keep a set of books showing all phases of his business, so government auditors can quickly check it up. It was to meet these new conditions that the Santha system was worked out. Only two books are used to give accurate and instant information of every phase of the business, and in such a simple manner that anyone can use it.

Daily, monthly and yearly comparisons are given, showing growth or decline of business, and what should be added to the cost of the goods to make a profit. Cash and credit sales, collections, purchases, expenses and disbursements are shown in a concise form, so that the business man will have constantly before him the means of imparting a thorough knowledge of his business. It also takes care of the accounts receivable and payable and requires no other bookkeeping, and it works with or without the cash register.

The system has attracted a great deal of attention and every expert has immediately sought for defects. The search has been in vain. The simplicity of the system appeals to every man. It will make a man know his business better. It will build up business and make it more interesting by keeping collections closer and guard against overstocking.

The business is all laid out in plain sight before the manager, and he can see what move to make without doing it blindly, enlightened by the constant knowledge of the actual status.

Local bankers and business men are much interested and foresee in the system merits that will demand its general use. Mr. Santha has taken on steps to obtain protection for his ideas, but looks upon it as a part of his work of helping to solve modern printing problems.

Damage to the extent of several hundred dollars was inflicted on the stock and buildings at 21 East Broadway by fire which started there at 5 o'clock last evening following a gasoline explosion. The building is used as a second-hand store by W. B. Ramsey. He was engaged in adjusting and repairing an old gasoline stove when the explosion occurred. The firemen had to use two hose streams to extinguish the fire. The lower part of the building was badly scorched and the contents damaged by both fire and water. Ramsey had no insurance. The building is owned by A. M. Homan, 221 Harrison street, and is protected by insurance.
Near Olson, the 19-year-old son of Max Olson, North Main street groceryman, was so painfully injured yesterday afternoon that it was necessary to take him to the Edmondson hospital for surgical care. While working about the store the young man found it necessary to step from a counter. For the purpose of getting a number of cups, he stepped one foot on the edge of a showcase. His foot slipped off the metal frame and crashed through the glass. The splintered glass inflicted a number of cuts, and a foot slipped into an artery was lacerated and prompt surgical aid was required to prevent him bleeding to death.
To show that he had real artistic ability Morris Ferrari, foreman of cement sidewalk construction gang, yesterday put some ornaments at the corners of the new walk across the grounds of the county court house leading from the street to the north entrance. He selected a perfect leaf from a catalpa tree and made perfect impressions of it on the plastic surface of the walk. The impressions were made in duplicate at the corner of the court house steps. The impressions will be permanent as the sidewalk itself. The construction of the sidewalk is the result of open rebellion on the part of court house employees and members of the bar and determination to disregard the keep off the grass signs.

Iowa STOOPS HELD TO GRAND JURY Man Arrested at Lexington, Neb., May Be Charged with Bigamy. IS ARRAIGNED IN DES MOINES

Admits Running Away with Nurse
Maid and Marrying Her When Brought Back to Face
Charge of Desertion.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—L. E. Stoops, a farmer, deserted his wife and their three children, marrying Rose Tilley, a nurse maid, and fleeing with her to Lexington, Neb., was arraigned today in justice court and committed to the county jail to await grand jury action. It is probable that an indictment charging bigamy will be sought instead of a desertion indictment. Stoops pleaded not guilty, but admitted in presence of court that he had married Miss Tilley.

Car Famine May Result.
E. G. Wylie, rate expert of the Greater Des Moines committee, on his return from a trip east, states the opinion that there is great danger of a shortage of cars for the handling of western business as an indirect result of the war. He points out that already there is a congestion of business at seaboard points and that long lines of cars filled with grain, with no place for the unloading, are to be seen at Galveston and elsewhere. He believes this condition will become worse and as a result the many cars now idle will soon be filled and be standing on sidings, so that the ordinary business of the country will be in danger of congestion.

Much Interest in Decision.
A great deal of interest has been manifested in business and railroad circles over the recent Interstate Commerce commission decision on the eastern rates. Students of the matter here point out that, contrary to general impression, the order of the commission is for the cancellation of all the proposed advanced rates, and that what was really done was to suggest a revision of rates in a part of the territory. So far as rates are concerned this is all that was done. It is believed that ultimately the decision will be of much benefit to Iowa and western shippers.

Will Build Into Colony.
The Milwaukee Railroad company has located, with the consent of the State Board of Control, sidings into the land of the state at the proposed state epileptic colony at Woodward. The intent is to have side tracks built for the permanent use of the colony as well as to transport the materials for the buildings right to the place where they will be used.

Trying Out a New Law.
C. A. Robbins of the legal department of the state went to Iowa City last night to start condemnation proceedings for the first time under a new law to secure property for the state to add to the grounds of the State university. It seems that an attempt was made to hold up the state and to secure more than the property was regarded as worth. A jury will be named by the chief justice of the state, of citizens not resident of the county in which the proceeding is to take place.

Controversy for Control.
Information comes from the southern part of the state to the coal miners of central Iowa to the effect that an organization is being formed among the radicals of the unionists to effect control of the district organization at the next state convention. There is a considerable number of the miners, chiefly the coal let element, disgruntled over the fact that the wage question was settled last spring without a strike or walkout or something of the sort. An attack is to be made on the present officials of the district.

Drys Win a Victory.
The constitutionality of the Iowa law permitting review of contempt proceedings by a certiorari writ was upheld in the United States supreme court. An order was sent to the Iowa tribunal affirming a fine imposed on John H. Jones of Sioux City for violating a liquor injunction.

Jones was enjoined at the request of the "drys." He was later cited for contempt, but the court dismissed the case on grounds of insufficient evidence. The "drys" appealed to the supreme court and the court remanded the case to the lower tribunal. Jones was then fined. He appealed to the supreme court of the state, but lost. He took a second appeal to the United States court, but was again defeated. He claimed that the law violated the federal constitution, that no person should be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

YORKTOWN GERMAN ASKS RELEASE FROM SERVICE

(SPECIAL.)
—G. H. Lackeman, a blacksmith at Yorktown, is endeavoring to get his release from service in the German army. He is subject to being called in the army and has written to headquarters in Chicago asking that he be given his release. Three years he served in the cavalry at Leipzig.
Mr. Lackeman has been in this country a number of years, having worked at the blacksmith trade at Omaha and Kansas City before moving to Yorktown. A girl that he had known in the fatherland came to this country two years ago to marry him. They have a son now. It is on this plea of a home and established business that he bases his petition to the German government.

Skin-Grafting Operation.
BOONE, Ia., Aug. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—George Smith, who was seriously burned two weeks ago by a high-tension wire, today underwent an operation for skin grafting. Co-workers volunteered for the operation.

Three Negroes Are Lined.
MONROE, La., Aug. 7.—Preston Griffin and Charles Hall, negroes, were taken from the local city jail today and handed by a mob to a lynch party twenty-four hours before Henry Holmes was lynched here in connection with the same crime.

Iowa News Notes.
LOGAN.—Colonel M. R. Pitt, republican candidate for state representative, received broken ribs and other injuries when he fell from a stack of alfalfa on his farm, eight miles east of Logan, late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Morris, Mrs. Roy Morris and Mrs. Charles Dungan were thrown from an embankment and painfully bruised.

French Envoy Held Up for Money as He Is Leaving Germany

PARIS, Aug. 8.—(3:30 p. m.)—Jules Cambon, the French ambassador to Germany, while on his way from Berlin to Copenhagen, was stopped at a station inside the German frontier, according to official reports, and informed by the major accompanying him that he could not continue his journey unless he paid over 5,000 marks ($800).
The ambassador said he did not have so much cash with him and offered his check on an important Berlin bank. The check was refused, currency being insisted upon.
M. Cambon then borrowed from his traveling companions enough to make up the amount in gold, which he handed over, requiring at the same time the officer's word of honor that he would be allowed to reach the Danish frontier. This was given by the German officer.
The French liner France had not sailed from Havre up to that night, nor was it known precisely when it would sail. No explanation is given for the delay, but it is supposed that it is due to fear of German cruisers in American waters.
A herd of cattle driven through the central districts of western France, in the small parks on either side of the Champe Elysee—these were among the odd sights of Paris today. But the city is tranquil.

English Terms of Peace Would Keep German Fleet Idle

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Prior to Germany's attack upon Liege, Sir Edward Grey tried to impose upon Germany conditions which great Britain could have obtained only after a successful war, as contained in a statement issued here tonight by Haniel von Halmhausen, head of the German embassy in Washington during the absence in Europe of Count von Berstorff, the ambassador. These conditions, Mr. Halmhausen said, would, if accepted by Germany, have led to inactivity on the part of the German fleet.
The statement of the German chargé d'affaires was prompted, he said, by the nearly complete absence of news from official sources in the fatherland, owing to the present European conditions, including cable censorship.
"It is erroneous to assume," Mr. Halmhausen said, "that the English declaration of war was exclusively caused by Germans invading Belgium. Negotiations in London had preceded the German attack on Liege. During these negotiations Sir Edward Grey promised that England would remain neutral only under the following conditions:
"1. Germany is not allowed to commit any act of hostility against the French coast in the North sea.
"2. German troops are not allowed to pass through Belgian territory.
"3. The German navy is not allowed to attack Russia from the Baltic sea."

They've Come to Sturdy Cars

Many cars in the past two years, have lost immensely in their sales and popularity.
In that same time the demand for Reo the Fifth has doubled. It has grown faster than we could build. And now—in mid-summer—we have urgent orders on hand for more than 3,000 cars.
We are adding three great factory buildings to the mammoth Reo plant.
The reason is that men are now buying their cars to keep. And they want a well-built car. They have had their troubles. They have paid high cost of upkeep. They have seen new cars grow old in a season. Now they want a car built by R. E. Olds in the best way that he knows.

Reo the Fifth is a great piece of engineering. Never was a car built like it.
It is built by a man who for 27 years has been building cars better and better. It is built regardless of cost, to run year after year as well as it runs when new.
And it does. Tens of thousands of men now know it. And the overwhelming demand for Reo the Fifth is due to what owners tell others about it.
Lower Cost
Reo the Fifth is built in a costly way. If we followed other standards we could build it for $200 less. But enormous production has brought the cost down. The price, fully equipped, is $220 less than it used to be.

Now this sturdy car—this car that stays new—is sold for a price which once seemed impossible. And the way it is built will save the average user hundreds of dollars in upkeep.
This car not only leads its class, but it is one of the great cars of the world.
We have dealers 1155 towns. Ask us for names of the nearest. Also for Reo Magazine which tells how this car is built.

Carranza Will Have to Fight Way Into the Mexican Capital

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 8.—The day's developments in the capital resulted in a triumph for the war party. All hope for peace between the federalists and the constitutionalists is now apparently gone. The war party is in control and is being backed by Provisional President Carranza and unless concessions are made, General Carranza, it seems, must fight his way into the capital and to power.
General Medina Barron was today appointed commander-in-chief of the federal forces in the capital.
"We have 25,000 men, sixty-five field pieces, 100 machine guns and plenty of ammunition," a prominent army official said today. "We are prepared to resist to the end unless ample guarantees are given us."
If a battle is fought it is believed it will take place on the plain in the vicinity of Tlalpan, eight miles north of the capital. The federal advance guard, consisting of 8,000 men of all arms, is facing the constitutionalists at Teolyucan, fifteen miles north of Tlalpan.

Blow Aimed at the Civil Service System

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—A provision which would sweep from the civil service system all assistant postmasters, clerks and other employees of postoffices throughout the country and make them the personal appointees of local postmasters was put into the Moon railway pay bill on a preliminary vote in the house today. A final vote will be taken tomorrow, when opponents of the provision say it will be decisively defeated on a roll call.
The house had just adopted an amendment by Representative Moon, providing that present assistant postmasters should be a competitive examination within ninety days after the passage of the act to qualify for their places, when Representative Callaghan offered an amendment striking out this provision and providing: "The postmaster at all such offices shall have the power to select his assistant postmasters, and all clerks and employees in his said office, irrespective of any civil service laws to the contrary, and all laws, regulations and orders in conflict with this act are hereby repealed and nullified."
"Provided, that such appointments shall be for a period of four years."
Few republicans in the house voted on the amendment leaving it to the democratic side and it was written into the bill, 35 to 25.

Russian Brigade Is Reported Defeated

After being denounced as an enemy of union labor in a signed and officially sealed letter from the local plumbers' union, Boss Howell of the Water Board was unanimously voted to be an undesirable candidate for governor by the Central Labor union at its regular meeting last night. The union endorsed the stand taken by the plumbers against Howell's candidacy, and decided to oppose him with all its strength at the primaries.

"We hereby ask the Central Labor union to do the same, as he has shown himself to be opposed to organized labor."
The communication was signed by Secretary L. B. Stine of the local union. After speeches against Howell by Secretary Stine and City Plumbing Inspector A. C.
