COURAGE OF THE GERMANS SUPERB

They Never Waver Though Lines Shot Through and Through by Frenchmen.

GALLIC ARTILLERY SUPERIOR

Tentative Follow Old-Fashioned Mass Formations and Repulse the Guns Now Then Down Like Grain.

(Copyright, 1914, Press Publishing Co.)
 LONDON, Aug. 10.—(Special Cablegram to New York World and Omaha Times.)—Londoners were excited by the latest tidings that the capture of Muelhausen by the French had been confirmed. The despatch admits the fighting was "serious," but insists that the German losses were three times as great as those sustained by France.

This first serious engagement between the Germans and French will have an immense moral effect throughout Germany as well as France. Brussels places the German loss at 30,000 and the French at 15,000, but these figures are not official, though coming from the Belgian war office.

The French artillery demonstrated its expected superiority, driving the German guns to retreat whenever a duel occurred. The Germans followed their old fashioned mass formations and the splendid gunnery of the French simply mowed men down like grain standing in the field. The courage of the Germans, however, was superb. Though shot through and through, time after time, the lines never wavered until ordered to retreat.

News about Liege is conflicting. Reports said to be emanating from a German press bureau at Rotterdam, have been received telling of the fall of Liege, but it seems from later direct messages that the forts still are in Belgian hands and that the Germans have simply made a detour and taken the city, itself, which is apart from the fortifications. All messages coming from Rotterdam seem to be colored to show German advantage, which does not exist.

Official news from Liege received here says that the junction of French and Belgian armies has been made successfully and the position of defenders of the city immeasurably bettered.

Italy is again threatening Austria. It is said that Italy has been warned that Austria will invade its provinces if Italy does not come to the aid of Austria and Germany at once. Italy has reiterated its neutrality and will remain firm in its refusal to join its ancient enemy and erstwhile ally.

Mass Stay Neutral.
 Private advice received by The World's correspondent at Rome and cabled here state that Italy has no other course open than to remain neutral, as the populace is determined to take up the cudgels for Serbia and not Austria and that all the governmental agreements in the world would not change the sentiment of the army. The reason that Austria has not declared war against England is that Austria wants England to declare war first so that it can call on Italy under the Triple Alliance as a country on the defensive.

GERMAN-AMERICANS DEPLORE THE WAR

Gather and Take Steps to Raise Fund to Aid Widows and Orphans in Fatherland.

MONEY IS FREELY CONTRIBUTED

Resolutions adopted lamenting the hostility and race hatred being engendered by conflict now being waged.

Great sums of money will be sent out of Omaha by the German-Americans of the city to aid the soldiers' widows and orphans in the Fatherland during the present war in Europe. At a mass meeting of some 600 Germans at the German home yesterday afternoon an immediate contribution aggregating about $1,000 was made before the meeting broke up, and subscription lists were taken out by dozens who agreed to circulate them and set large sums of money.

No sooner did Chairman Val Peter announce that a subscription list would be taken, than August Miller, a laborer of South Omaha, stepped to the platform and tossed down two $5 gold pieces. Immediately came Jacob Kopp with a cash offer of $5, followed by Anton C. Dredbus with a check for $100. Fred Busch subscribed $25 and Henry Haubens $10. Then German-Americans flocked to the rostrum so fast with their money that it could scarcely be counted, until in a half hour $1,000 had been subscribed.

Resolutions deploring the European war and the race hatred that is being engendered by it, and calling upon the press and the public to reserve judgment until the full facts can be ascertained, were unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Captain Henry Pollock was present with his company of 102 volunteers who have agreed to go to Germany with him to fight for the Kaiser if there is any possibility of getting the reserves across the water for this purpose.

The German-American women of the city, are to meet at Thirtieth and Cass streets this afternoon to organize for the furthering of the subscription movement by circulating the subscription list.

A meeting was called of all the presidents of the various German societies of the city for Tuesday night at the German home when further preparations will be made in the matter of raising money and when the reports of the subscription lists now in circulation will be made.

The money will be sent to the head office of the German Alliance at Philadelphia, where it will be placed into the hands of the Red Cross society to be used for the widows and orphans of German soldiers.

Val Peter presided.

The Maennerchor sang a number of selections. One was the Bismarck song, "The Germans Fear God, But None Else."

Chairman Val Peter outlined the two-fold purpose of the meeting, to protest against what he termed the unfair stand of some of the American newspapers in the matter of the present war "from which readers get only the prejudiced reports of the anti-German belligerents," to protest against the inciting of race hatred in this country, and to raise a fund for the widows and orphans of the German soldiers.

Rev. Mr. Jansen of the German Methodist church of Council Bluffs was one of the speakers. He was an officer in the German army for years before coming to this country. He was followed by William I. Wappich, Rev. Father Hermann of Council Bluffs, Ernest Koehn, president of the Westliche Kriegerbund, and William Steinhilber of Omaha.

In closing the Germans sang "Deutschland," "My Country 'Tis of Thee," "Watch on the Rhine" and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

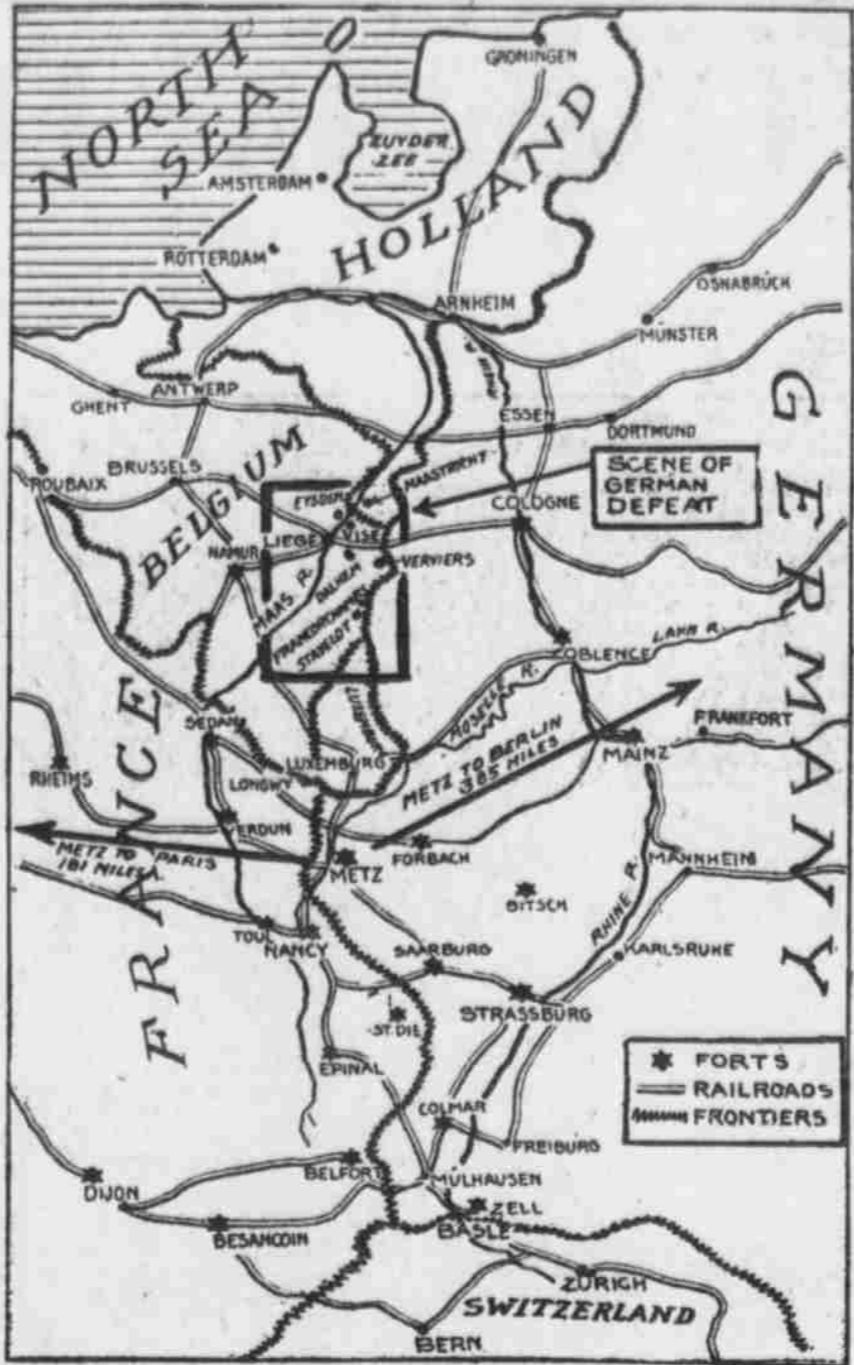

Following are the resolutions adopted by the assembly:

Resolved, That we, American citizens of German descent, assembled in this meeting and representing all elements of our large German population, deplore deeply and sincerely the fratricidal war which has engulfed Europe and threatens to sacrifice hundreds of thousands of innocent lives, the German cause in the annihilation of the glorious achievements of decades of peaceful effort and development, resulting in a tremendous setback to civilization.

We lament from the depths of our hearts the hostility and race hatred engendered by this terrible conflict in Europe, and approved with dismay that such animosity may spread to the United States, the country of our choice, our home. We fear that some sheds thereof have already been sown in the prejudiced attitude of a part of the American press, basing the unfavorable comment of the German cause on unreliable war news, secured chiefly through English, French or Russian channels.

A number of prominent metropolitan dailies remind their readers. War reports must be considered as news coming from the enemies of Germany, which

SHERIFF IS SENT AFTER FIVE

Special Precautions Taken to Prevent Introduction of Liquor Upon the Grounds, Temperance Man Being Marshal.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Only five members of the National Guard of this city failed to report for duty at Camp Dodge for the annual maneuvers and the sheriff was given instructions to bring them in.

The captain report that there were fewer of the men absent at this time than usual, and the guardsmen, who met here today were zealous for the work.

Precautions were taken today to enforce the state laws against having intoxicants at the camp and Colonel Smith Brockhart, an ardent temperance man, was appointed provost marshal.

SLAV ARMIES ARE MARCHING INTO DUAL MONARCHY

Germany secretly moved 200,000 men to the Belgian and Russian frontiers during the week ending August 2 with the object of surprising and overpowering the resisting forces at the outset of the war.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—(3:35 a. m.)—A special dispatch from Rome declares that public opinion there considers the bombardment of Antivari, the sole port to Montenegro, as an offense by Austria against the interests and rights of Italians because of the damage done to the property of the Italian company at that port.

BARI, Italy, Aug. 10.—(Via London, 7 a. m.)—After the Austrian cruiser had bombarded Antivari, Montenegro, damaged the wireless station and the electrical works, they directed their fire to the adjacent hills in which many Montenegrins from the town had sought refuge.

These refugees returned the fire, whereupon the cruiser redoubled the attack on the town and its suburbs, destroying many houses. One cruiser then entered the port and, resuming the bombardment, destroyed the maritime station and storehouse. The warship then sailed in the direction of Cattaro, Austria.

Switzerland Is Menaced.
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Charge Huescher of the Swiss legation notified the State department that martial law had been declared in Switzerland. Both French and German troops are menacing the integrity of Switzerland with their operations in the vicinity of Basel, which lies close to Muelhausen, reported captured by the French. The charge stated that the activities so near the Swiss border have made it necessary to prepare to resist invasion.

Declaration of the state of siege, in Mr. Huescher's opinion, would not affect the safety or comfort of Americans in Switzerland.

Kron Prinz Wilhelm Taken by Essex

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—From two sources today came a report to New York that the North German Lloyd liner, Kron Prinz Wilhelm, had been captured by the British cruiser Essex and taken to Bermuda as a prize. The liner Narragansett reported having heard a wireless message to this effect, and the manager of the Royal Mail steam packet, whose ships run to Bermuda, said he had heard a similar report.

This report was given some credence here in view of the announcement by the Canadian government, made at Ottawa last night, that the Essex had advised the Bermuda station that it was bringing in a prize. The name of the vessel was not disclosed in the government's announcement.

Since the beginning of the war the Essex has been cruising between Bermuda and Halifax. The message which the Narragansett is said to have intercepted read as follows:

"Bringing in Kron Prinz Wilhelm as a prize."

The Kron Prinz Wilhelm, named in honor of the heir to the German throne, was launched in May, 1902. It is 662 feet long, of 66-foot beam, 2,300 tons displacement and 20,000-horsepower. It has a speed of twenty-three knots, and at the time of its launching was one of the fastest and largest vessels afloat. It has accommodations for 1,715 passengers and a crew of 352.

New Home Rule Solution Will Be Proposed

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(5:30 p. m.)—On leaving the adjournment of the House of Commons for a fortnight Premier Asquith this evening intimated he was hopeful that in the interval he might be able to make proposals regarding Irish home rule which would meet with something like general acquiescence in the solution of the question.

FUNERAL AT WHITE HOUSE

Arrangements for Funeral of Mrs. Wilson Marked by Simplicity.

NATION PAYS FINAL TRIBUTE

Special Train to Bear the Body to Rome, Ga., for Interment Beside Her Mother and Father Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 10.—The nation today is paying its final tribute to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. Funeral services in the east room of the White House at 2 o'clock this afternoon were marked by simplicity, such as Mrs. Wilson desired. Only members of the Wilson family and a very few intimates, members of the cabinet and their wives, committee members from the senate and house and the employees of the White House were present. Those invited made a group of more than 200 persons.

The mahogany casket covered with broad cloth was taken from the room in which Mrs. Wilson died to the east room, and there surrounded by a profusion of beautiful flowers sent from all parts of the country. Lilies of the valley and roses filled the room with their sweet fragrance. With the president and his daughters, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Sayre, were Secretary McAdoo, Francis B. Sayre and Prof. Stockton Axson, Mrs. Wilson's brother, who arrived here early today after a race across the continent from Oregon to be present at the funeral. Near the family a place had been reserved for the members of the cabinet and their wives. The employees of the White House, all of whom Mrs. Wilson had befriended by simple acts of kindness and thoughtfulness, had a special part of the room assigned to them.

No Music at Service.
 There was no music at the service, and Rev. Beach of Princeton, N. J., the Wilson family pastor for many years and Rev. J. H. Taylor, of Washington, whose church the president has attended since coming to Washington decided on the simplest kind of services. They selected several verses from the Fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians, and the Fourteenth chapter of St. John for the scriptures reading, and short prayers and a benediction completed the services. "Let not your heart be troubled; Ye believe in God, believe also in me" was the opening verse from the scriptures. "In my father's house are many mansions; If it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you."

The members of this senate committee, headed by Vice President Marshall gathered in the marble room of the capitol, to drive to the White House together. Speaker Clark and the other members of the house committee which included the senior members of each state delegation, also met at the capitol to attend the funeral in a body. There were no honorary pall bearers. A group of White House attendants who have been on duty there for many years, were honored by being chosen to bear the casket.

Congress Takes Recess.
 Both houses of congress were in recess until tomorrow and orders had been issued that all government offices be closed at 1 o'clock today and tomorrow afternoon. All flags in the city on public buildings and private homes and stores were at half staff.

The trip to Rome, Ga., where Mrs. Wilson will be buried late Tuesday afternoon beside her mother and father in Myrtle Hill cemetery, is being made on a special train. Those in the party will include the president, Miss Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Mr. Axson, J. R. Wilson, George Howe, Dr. Carey T. Grayson and Secretary Tamm.

Mayor Gill of Seattle Favors Woman Suffrage

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 10.—Suffragists applauded joyfully today when Mayor Gill, in testifying before the federal industrial relations commission, made his initial declaration in favor of woman suffrage. Votes of women, the mayor has testified a few minutes previously, did much toward his recall three years ago. He also added that at one time he was opposed to suffrage for women, but you are fortunate to know Commissioner O'Connell asked.

"I am," responded the mayor, smiling.

The mayor then declared he believed the votes of women had resulted in cleansing politics here.

Under no circumstances, he said, would he designate special police to act during labor troubles unless the chief of police requested them. Then he would select the police himself, the mayor added. He also would disarm either union or non-union men who threatened trouble during a strike.

The mayor insisted several times that the labor problems of the northwest were different from those of the east.

"Back east you have capitalists who can't recognize that there is any one except themselves and laboring men, who are ignorant," he declared.

For this reason, he continued, he could not attempt to outline a general plan for settling labor difficulties in all parts of the country.

E. W. Olson, state commissioner of labor, followed Mayor Gill on the stand.

GERMANS' ENTRY INTO LIEGE MADE WITHOUT VIOLENCE

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(3:30 a. m.)—A dispatch to the Express from Brussels, timed in that city at noon yesterday, says the Germans entered Liege on Friday night and occupied the town, although the forts were not taken.

The occupation was accomplished decorously. General Von Emmich having been warned from Berlin against allowing his men to commit excesses. The troops, headed by cavalry, approached the town along the main eastern roads through charred forests.
