EVEN BREAK WITH SIOUX

Omaha Wins the First and Wins Second Game of the Day.

GARRETT POUNDED ABOUT LOT

Last Contest Furnishes a Very Good Article of Ball. Omaha Holding the Visitors Down.

Omaha played a double bill with Sioux City yesterday, losing the first and winning the second game. Styles and Garrett mused up the first, 10 to 5, but Sanders added over a 5 to 3 victory in the second. Red Styles lasted three rounds. Then he was derelicted and Garrett came into the game. The Sioux still have a dislike for Garrett's front name, Jess. Thus they maled him for five more rounds during his career. In the interim Lurid Lou Richie made his debut. Lurid Lou was once one of the most lurid figures in Chicago. Once in a while he won ball games for the Cubs. Lurid Lou didn't show much for the Sioux, but his mates were a sufficiency, so Omaha held a contest which was quite a contest. Sanders held the Sioux in the hollow of his hand, while a perfectly good 'Merkle' or unknown origin led to Omaha's victory. In the third Krueger walked and Ward laid down a bunt, which Baird fielded perfectly, but neither Kane nor Cooney were covering first. Thus Ward was safe and three runs were ultimately counted, which spelled the doom of Klein, another of the Sioux typhoid players. Who pulled the bone is a mooted question. Cooney asserting Kane did it and Kane asserting Cooney did it. It gave the Rockies a game.

Lazy Leleune apparently was suffering from a relapse. He only made three hits out of seven times up, besides appearing a couple of drives tagged for hits. The last game of the series will be played today. Ladies' day, and the game will be called at 3 o'clock.
