As Umpw Van Sycie was keeping the athletes constantly on the jump the fair fans thought. they were booked to see considerable. combat. But 'twas not to be, for in the fifth the Links counted twice. And follewing the fifth came the big blow out. Garrett walked Blackburne to start the fifth. That was Garrett's fault. Nobody else can be blamed. Then Lee Quillin bunted. Schliebner fielded the pill. Next he threw the pill toward Marty Krug. hastly covering first. The pill failed to fall into Marty's clutch as it was supposed to do. Instead it cluded the waitins Marty and rolled gently into right field, thus disturbing the peace and temperament of Bunk Congalton, who was enjoying a vacation in that garden. Bunk broke off the vacation suddenly and tarted after the escaping buil. He recovered it, but in the interim blackburne had crossed the plate and Quillin flung himself into third base with much velocity and force. Collins toffed a pop hit ity and force. Collins tofted a pop h't over Schliebner's head and Quillin

Miller singled to left and Bell, by some nity fielding, arranged for the capture of Lloyd at third, Miller swiped second, Garrett passed Blackburne and Quillin in succession. Why that remewer was engineered cannot be understood by the lay mind, but it is presumed that it was to tion of a double play, as there were only two out. Harry Williams, the aforementioned brilliant example of Omaha youth, was up. Harry busted the pill mark in the dining room and when it ceased in the cast of the dining room and when it ceased in the cast of the cast Miller singled to left and Rell, by some in the dining room and when it ceased threen. VOU have noticed that there is a vast difference in "mild" cigars. Some are mild only for the first inch or two of smoking. Others are "mild" in the sense of "tasteless."

The "mildness" of the Robert Burns is of a different kind. Its delicate flavor lasts from tip to tip. It has the satisfying mildness which indicates carefully selected tobacco expertly blended by the finest of hand workmanship.

Every Robert Burns is the same. We pride ourselves on the absolute uniformity of these cigars.

Tell your dealer your favorite shape. He'll have it in the Robert Burns. Incidentally-ask him to show you the new "Invincible" shape.
