John Jerpe Party Safe at Stockholm

Royal D. Miller, local steamship agent for a number of lines that formerly operated boats between the United States and Europe, is in receipt of a telegram from John Jerpe, who had not been heard from since the beginning of the war.

In his cablegram, Mr. Jerpe states that he is in Stockholm and is very comfortably situated, though there is not much probability of getting home before Christmas unless he is able to get away on a transport. In the Jerpe party at Stockholm are his two daughters, Misses Eleanor and Adena; Miss Lillian Rohlf, Mrs. Louise Peterson and daughter, Miss Clara; Mrs. J. P. Millander and her daughter.

Another Omahian who has been heard from is Henry Shomaker, custodian of the Omaha German home. He is in Hamburg and has no idea when he will be able to sail for the United States.

Sears Has Big Lead for Attorney General

Almost complete compilation of the primary election returns on attorney general, only two or three small counties being out, shows the nomination of Charles W. Sears of Omaha by a plurality of something over 7,500, and that he carried not less than fifty-one counties over all competitors. Mr. Sears has received a letter from George W. Ayers, deputy attorney general, and second in the race, in which he says:

"The returns at hand indicate your nomination, by an overwhelming majority, as the candidate of the republican party for the office of attorney general. I congratulate you upon your success, and assure you that you may rely upon my support at the general election in November."
