

BRITISH DESTROY GERMAN CRUISERS

Two Are Sunk and a Third Set on Fire in Action Off Heligoland.

TWO DESTROYERS SENT UNDER

No English Craft Lost in Battle and Loss of Life on Them is Not Heavy—Many Torpedo Boats Damaged.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—It is announced that the British fleet has sunk two German cruisers and two German torpedo boat destroyers off Heligoland. A third cruiser was set afire and was left sinking.

No British ships were lost in the battle, it was added, and the British loss of life was not heavy.

In addition to the two torpedo boat destroyers and three cruisers many of the German torpedo boats were damaged.

Two Cruisers Sunk. Rear Admiral Sir David Beatty commanded the British forces and with a strong array of torpedo boat destroyers, battle cruisers and light cruisers and submarines, attacked the Germans in Heligoland bright early this morning.

The protected cruiser Mainz was sent to the bottom in an engagement with the light cruiser squadron, while the battle cruiser sank another cruiser of the Coeln class.

In the general fighting two of the German destroyers were riddled and sunk, while many others were badly damaged.

One cruiser, battle-scarred and on fire, drifted away in a sinking condition and was lost sight of.

The British cruiser squadron, according to the semi-official report of the battle, although attacked by submarine boats and menaced by floating mines and the guns from the German warships, suffered no serious losses.

The cruiser Amethyst and the torpedo boat destroyer Laertes, were damaged, but all the ships in the British fleet were afloat at the end of the engagement. The British loss of life was not great.

In the battle cruiser squadron were the flagship Lion, the New Zealand, the Queen Marie and the Princess Royal, commanded by Rear Admiral Beatty, while Rear Admiral Moore, Rear Admiral Christian, Commodore Goodnow and Commodore Tyrwhitt had charge of other contingents.

A wireless dispatch received tonight from one of the cruisers said it was making for port with men wounded in the engagement.

The Mainz and the vessel of the Coeln class, were protected cruisers, 492 feet long and displacing 4,380 tons. They had a speed of slightly over twenty-five knots an hour.

Battle of Destroyers. CHEFOO, China, Aug. 28.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Weland has engaged and sunk the German torpedo destroyer S-90.

Three German merchant ships, the steamer Friska, Hananmetal and Pakist, have been captured by the British fleet and taken to Wei-Hai-Wei. A number of refugee women and children from Tsing-Tau on board the Pakist were transferred to another vessel and taken to Tien Tsin.

American Consuls in Europe Being Sent to War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—American consuls in Europe are being overwhelmed with appeals for aid from claimants of American citizenship who have been forced to take up arms for their land of birth.

In Germany the situation is most complicated, for the only treaties the United States has which touch on this subject were made with separate states and principalities and before the confederation of the empire. None of these accept first naturalization papers as a valid obstacle against renunciation.

Many Americans by adoption, who are surgeons or physicians, mechanics, or at least material for able bodied soldiers, have been or are about to be sent to war. In the cases of those who are bona fide citizens the State department is making representations, but it was pointed out today that diplomatic bodies move slower than recruiting sergeants.

RUSSIANS ARE ADVANCING RAPIDLY ON KOENIGSBURG

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Russians are advancing rapidly on Lemberg, Austria, their cavalry overcoming all Austrian opposition," says a dispatch from the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company. The message continues:

"The Russian troops are marching on Koenigsburg and already have repulsed the advance guard of the garrison. The Russians now occupy important position on the river Alle.

"Between the rivers Vistula and Dniester, the Russians are in close touch with the Austrians, whom they have already defeated decisively at Tarnaschoff and Monasterzyska."

AMERICANS DO NOT CARE TO BE SENT TO HOLLAND

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—Via London, Aug. 28, 5:30 a. m.—The special train for Americans, which left today, was not fully occupied. The next train will start on August 29.

Commander Ryan and his assistants, Commanders Ford and Martin and Captains Fretton, Miller, Oates and Enoch, who instituted the relief bureau here, find considerable difficulty in persuading Americans to go to Holland.
