statement by longs, who took profits and some outside investment buying which lifted values substantially over the low spots.

Price movements in provisions were irregular yesterday with January higher and nearby deliveries weaker. The latter suffered from further liquidation, also from selling by speculators and by one of the parkers.

Wheat was unchanged to it higher.
Corn was unchanged to its lower.
Oats were 148 be higher.
Clearances in corn were 2,000 bushels, oats 3,000 bushels and wheat and flour equal to 1,208,000 bushels.
The close at Liverpool was 1/20 lower on corn. There was no quotations on wheat.

Primary wheat receipts were 1.435,000 bushels and shipments 915,000 hushels against receipts last year of 1.101,000 bushels and shipments of 602,000 bushels.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade. Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—All Board of Trade speculative markets advanced today, wheat, 2 to 2½c; corn, ½ to lo; cats, 1 to 1½c, and provisions, from 7½ to 50c.

Oats enjoyed the best market of the day, the volume of trade, while only fairly large, being equal to that in wheat and corn combined. At the opening profitaling caused a die in prices but the and corn combined. At the opening profittaking caused a dip in prices, but the concession started buying by commission houses and the demand increased as prices advanced. Export houses were silent about business, but report had it that the seaboard and exporters were picking up what they could. One of the best known speculators in the market also was reported on the buying side.
The local wheat market followed the lead of Minneapolis. After an opening dip on scattered liquidation prices bulged on the small stock at Minneapolis, the demand from millers and reports that threshing is being delayed by rains in the northwest.

General rains over the corn belt depressed the market for that cereal at the opening, but at the decline local dealers became buyers of all the leading options on the belief that the crop will be well below neveral. well below normal.

of doole cornfed steers have been in small supply and good demand all the week with the result that prices have remained about steady. On the other hand medium grades that come into direct competition with range cattle are 100 to lower than last week's close. The best range beef is not very much lower, but the general market on the medium to pretty fair grades is 150 clower than a week ago. Some of the more common kinds are 250 clower.

There has been a very good demand for esniner cows all the week and fully steady prices have been maintained. On the other hand the general run of killing cows and cattle are 150 clower, with the trade on many days slow at the decline. Good feeders have been in active demand all the week at firm prices and are fully steady if not a little stronger than

As many as illited head were accounted for, against 83,200 last week, 83,500 two weeks ago and 82,200 during the same week a year ago. Other dejressing factors have been the large runs at Chicago, the demoralised condition of the eastern trade in dressed mutton and the fact that the time of the year is and the packers expecting generous supplies next week. Event for Wednesday and Friday, there were sharp declines in lambs every day now quotations are fully 705,800 lower than the close of last week. A sluggish movement was an outstanding feature almost all the week and, as a rule, the clearance were late. The slump in aged sheep was not as great, due to the comparatively moderate receipts. Prices showing a decline of 50c for the week. Fat ewes have formed the bulk of the killing sheep supply, while yearlings and wethers on the whole have been scarce. The excessively large receipts this week included a good many feeder offerings especially lambs, aged offerings being in light supply, and feeder buyers were able to fill a large share of their orders at prices generally steady with last week.
