FARM & RANCH LANDS FOR SALE Nebraska.

This to You, Mr. Farmer

If you have $1,000 or more to pay down on a good farm, we can fit the terms to your needs and sell you one that will pay for itself in a few years.

Read these descriptions of irrigated farms in the Scott's Bluff country, where water is abundant and where big crops are seen every year.

NO. 512. As fine an 80-acre piece of land as iles out of doors. You never put a plow into richer soil or soil that will bring better crops. There is a sure three feet of water for every acre, and for alfalfa, grain, potatoes or sugar beets there is nothing better. It is level, easy to irrigate, all broken and ready today for crops. Nice farms all around it, and only 24 miles from town. Price, $60 per acre, and easy terms

The soil is the very best, and with a fine water supply (same as above) raises big crops every year. It is one of the choicest farms in the valley; only half mile to school.

Proceeds in Lively Way. Monday night's furious rain and wind storm, that caught several thousand pleasure seekers in the carnival grounds and failed to dampen their ardor, afforded an excellent indication of the character of the carnival apirit that is now prevailing in Council Bluffs. Threat of a thunderstorm last evening did not interrupt the preparations of thousands to join the carnival crowds, and in the first hour after the gates were open the luminated fire run by the entire fire department were the special features last night. More than 20,000 people lined the lar run by the firemen. The run was on South Main street, and the start was made at the Great Western passenger station. Every piece of apparatus in the department with the exception of the department with the exception of the actial ladder truck was in action. Each piece was covered with flaming red fire, and thousands of roman candle fire balls carried the illumination up to the clouds. streets at 7:30 o'clock to see the spectacu- Pany.

The fire runs are distinctively original Council Bluffs carnival creations and are real events worth seeing. With flaming red fire fusees attached to every spoke of the wheels and blasing from every angle, each waren becomes a flaming meteor. The procession last night was led by the two big automobile trucks whose ample proportions gave the firemen opportunity to display their inventive faculties in devising novel arrangement. A special meeting of the city council will be held tomorrow afternoon to complete business that was left unfinished at the long session on Monday night, which did not conclude until after 13 o'clock. Ordinances establishing grades on several streets where no grade has been established or where chapges are desired will be considered. The question of the city's liability under the employers' liability law will also be up for consideration. City solicitor Schneider will submit a written report on the matter that has been called for. At the conclusion of the council meeting the alderman will do some work in committee of the whole.

The bombs contained pound charges of high-powered dynamits and exploded high in the air with fury and electric fiashes. A half dozen handsome set pieces and plenty of red fire were other features. The same amount of fireworks will be used each night at 9 o'clock.

The immense and good natured crowd patronized well all of the attractions. The dancing floor in the Auditorium was in a state of reat crush throughout the evening. Fine order prevalled all over
