BEGIN TO GET OFFICIAL TOTAL

Secretary of State Starts Work of Adding Up State Returns.

COUPLAND LOSES TO JANSEN

Howell's Plurality Over Hammond is 6,279—Reese and Hollenbeck Far in Lead for Supreme Judge.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—The Douglas county primary returns are here. They come without the seal of the election commissioners, but he explains the matter to the secretary of state by saying that he has no seal and, therefore, cannot put on what he has not got. Being a pretty accommodating sort of a fellow, Secretary of State Wait took official notice of the fact and accepted the returns. This completes the reports from the counties and gives Clerk Thomas Washington Smith a chance to total up the vote. While he is doing so a few figures on the returns might be interesting:

In the contest for the non-partisan nominations for chief justice of the supreme court it is shown that a former republican and a former democrat have won out and will be the contestants in the regular election, the vote going to the two highest, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Includes Reese, Hollenbeck, Palmer, Hunt, Brogan.

Republican Governor.

The republican vote on governor shows the following result from the state:

Democratic Governor.

The democratic vote totals 63,071, and is divided as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Includes Morehead, Metcalfe, Berge.

A comparison of the republican vote of the two preceding primary elections shows as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Name, Votes. Compares 1912 and 1910 results.

The total vote on governor in the same years on the democratic ticket was:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Includes Morehead, Metcalfe.

In these elections Morehead received 390 populist votes in 1912, and Metcalfe 606, a total of 1,000, while in 1910 Shallenberger received all of the populist votes, 2,148.

In the 1912 primary Wilson, prohibition candidate for governor, received 490 votes, and Wright, socialist, 1,559. In 1910 the prohibition candidate, received 390 votes and the socialist 841. This year the prohibition candidate, Wilson, received 323 votes, and Porter, the socialist candidate, 842.

This year Morehead received 724 populist votes and Berge 546. Metcalfe did not land.

Bull Moose Vote.

The bull moose vote on governor has proven to be very disappointing to the leaders of that movement. Sackett, for governor, with no opposition, receiving but a total of 1,974 votes in the state.

Jansen has won out over Coupland for the nomination for regent of the state university by 24 votes, the canvass showing Jansen, 27,113; Coupland, 27,089.

TECUMSEH MAN AND DAUGHTER HOME FROM PARIS

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—W. K. Taylor of this city and his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Murphy, of Denver, are home from their trip to England. They went to England in June, sailing from New York. The summer was enjoyed at the old home of Mr. Taylor, and in touring England and a trip to Paris. They were in the heat of the war excitement and their descriptions of conditions over there are most thrilling and interesting. In London thousands of Americans are trying to sail home. Mr. Taylor and his daughter could have sold their ship accommodations for many times what they paid for same. They came home on the steamer Franconia, and were scheduled to leave Liverpool on August 18. Owing to war conditions the sailing was delayed four days. Mr. Taylor was in communication with Miss Agnes Mackle of Tecumseh, who is in Scotland, and she expected to be able to sail for home late in September.

This is the second annual fair held here in recent years and the plans are now that it shall be a permanent institution, as it has proven a great success, both this year and last year.

GUARDSMEN ON WAY HOME

Camp Breaks Up Day Ahead Because of Shortage of Funds.

LAST EVENING FOR SPORTS

Men Kept in Lines After Pay Day by Varied Program of Athletic Competition, in Which Many Joined.

CAMP OF INSTRUCTION, ASHLAND, Neb., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—The Nebraska National Guard encampment came to a close this afternoon after one of the most successful encampments held in years. Though only nine days in duration, as against ten in former years, more ground was covered in military tactics than ever before. From a military point of view the camp was excellent. Small details that go so far in actual warfare were strictly adhered to. The soldiers were given to understand the part they played in the national defense and what was expected of them. All large tents were taken down Thursday evening, the men spending the night in small shelter tents which they carried in their equipment. The companies began entraining at 8 o'clock this morning, though the last company to depart did not leave until 2:30 this afternoon. The Omaha battalion reached home on a special train at 5 o'clock this evening.

Sports for Last Night.

Discipline was somewhat relaxed the last night of camp. All manner of sports were devised for the men, to keep them in camp during the evening as Thursday had been pay day. A special six-round boxing match for the championship of the camp was won by James Drexel of Omaha against Herbert Smith of Lincoln. A special guard was put around the camp in the evening while a mounted company patrolled the town to see that the militiamen kept order. A constant worry to the officers in camp was the sale of liquor by bootleggers. Several places where the contraband was supposed to have been sold were raided but nothing was found.

Cut Short Gas Day.

Because of the shortage of money in the militia fund the camp was cut short a day. New equipment for the militiamen and rent for the numerous armories throughout the state is given as the reason.

One hundred picked militiamen, four from each of the twenty-five companies at camp, were sent to Lincoln this afternoon to be in attendance at the Nebraska state fair. The militiamen will act as guards and police.

A number of Omahans were present at the camp Thursday, among them being R. Beecher Howell, who gave away political literature.

The only serious accident to mar the encampment was the death of Lieutenant Cronceton, who died of injuries received when crushed by his mount. On a whole, the injury list was exceedingly small when compared to past state encampments.
