

This Is The TIME

To Get Your PIANO Does not MATTER

where you live or what your musical tastes may be? We will satisfy you as we have satisfied "all-comers" during the past 40 years.

WHEN YOU BUY A PIANO

It is good to know you are buying it from an old, reliable house—one with a reputation to support. Such is the service at Hooper. A house like this must "make good."

We sell to hundreds of people who see the instruments on our floors, and to a great many who buy by mail. The service is always the same. All-ways, you will find the piano just what we say it is. The dollars you invest in music here will bear dividends of satisfaction.

The size of your purse does not matter.

THIS IS NURSES' TAG DAY

Omaha Women to Invade Corridors of Every Building in City.

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Dahlman Calls Attention to Charitable Work Going On Through Efforts of Visiting Nurses in Aiding the Needy.

Several full quota corps of brave Omaha lassies will mobilize in the downtown districts of Omaha today and will invade the corridors of every building in the city discharging tags at every person who may break their lines. The tags are to be sold for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse association of Omaha.

They will have full swing in the corridors of the government building, where they will be at liberty to sell tags and tag patrons of the place. Full authority to go tagging has been given by the Treasury department, though the nurses will be prohibited from annoying the carriers.

Mayor Issues Proclamation. Mayor James C. Dahlman has proclaimed an official tag day and the young women will be permitted the liberty to surround the city hall and capture every person entering. The mayor's proclamation is as follows:

To the People of the City of Omaha: We have in our city the organization of the Visiting Nurse who are engaged in the work of attending upon and caring for the sick among the people of the city who are too poor to employ private nurses; and as these ladies are in need of funds to carry on this noble work the generous people of the city of Omaha are appealed to in behalf of suffering humanity; therefore, I, James C. Dahlman, mayor of the city of Omaha, appoint and proclaim Wednesday, September 9, 1914, "Tag Day" for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the good work of these Visiting Nurses.

Fix on February 15 as Completion Date of Fontenelle Hotel

A special meeting of the directors of the Douglas Hotel company, with nearly all members present, registered approval of the negotiations for the building loan which has been concluded by President Watters and Secretary Reed during their recent trip east. A supplemental agreement with the contractors, Seldon-Brosch company, was also entered into by which a $100,000 guaranty bond is to be put up to insure completion of the structure, and its delivery free from liens to the hotel company on February 15, 1915, this date being accepted by Mr. Burbank for the lessees. The resignation of Charles T. Kountze as director was held in abeyance, Mr. Kountze asking to be relieved because of his continued absence from the city.

HEADLIGHT ORDINANCE TO COME UP MONDAY

The question of whether the bright headlights on automobiles shall be ordered dimmed by ordinance will be considered by the city council in the presence of automobile owners at a meeting of the council in committee of the whole Monday.
