

RED CRANBERRIES CHEAP

Apples Reasonable and Peaches Are Still Cheap and Grapes Up.

FRESH TOMATOES COME BACK

Increased Cost of Sugar Keeps Down the Sale of Fruits for Canning Purposes—Cheese Takes Another Drop.

The first cranberries of the season are on the market, and never before have they been so cheap at the opening of the season.

Apples are coming in nice lots and are selling at a reasonable cheap figure.

Utah peaches are still offered in some places at 60 cents a crate, although they have gone up 10 cents a crate wholesale.

Concord grapes that sold for 15 cents a basket last week are bringing 20 cents now.

Pears Cost More. Bartlett pears made a jump of 12.5¢ a bushel. Pears that sold at 17.5¢ last week are now bringing 30¢ a crate.

Today grapes of excellent quality are cheaper than usual. They are offered by the pound for a six- or 10-pound basket for 20 cents.

Fresh tomatoes are on the market again since the recent rains, in fairly good quantities. They can be had at 20 cents a market basket.

The little yellow tomatoes so much used for preserves are selling at 40 cents a market basket.

Big green or partially green mangoes are in at 20 cents a market basket.

Canned Goods Fluctuate. Canned goods are still fluctuating a little with the activity of the speculators on the prospect of the continuance of the war.

Corn and peas are holding out at a stiff price and are maintaining the steady high level they reached shortly after the war opened.

Cheese, after making a big jump with the coming of war, which cut off the supply from Switzerland, Germany and France, has eased up a bit, dropping off in the neighborhood of 2 1/2 cents in a week.

Butter is a trifle high this week, being quoted at 30 cents in Elgin.

Sugar is still going at $1 for fifteen pounds. The high price of sugar is having its effect in the fruit canning in the homes, as many housewives will not buy the sugar to do the amount of canning they usually do.

This is said to have its effect in bringing the fresh fruit down to a reasonable price, since the demand is not as great as it would be if sugar was cheaper.

BRINGS SHEEP TO MARKET AND TAKES HOME A WIFE

David Mills, son of Jacob Mills, one of the pioneer sheepmen of Wyoming, brought several ears of his father's sheep to the Omaha market from Hat Creek, Wyo., this week and will return with a wife.

Mr. Mills and Miss Florence M. Copeshall, also of Hat Creek, were married Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. J. Ellis, 1710 Davenport street, Rey. The Rev. of the First Methodist church performed the ceremony. Only a few relatives were present.

The bride has been in Omaha, where she was born and formerly lived, visiting for several weeks. She and her husband will make their home on one of the elder Mr. Mills' ranches near Hat Creek.

SUPERIOR CEMENT PLANT RUNNING ON FULL TIME

The Nebraska Portland cement plant at Superior, in which Omaha men are the principal stockholders has opened for business and is now running on full time. The output is close to 5,000 barrels per day, which has been contracted for several months ago.

The Superior plant commenced grinding the cement rock several days ago, but not until this week has it been turning out the finished product. The raw material is secured from just over the state line in Kansas and hauled to the plant at Superior in cars owned by the company.

COMMITTEE ON NEW JAIL HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

The committee of representatives from several organizations appointed to pass on the advisability of submitting a bond proposition of $50,000 for a new city jail met at the city hall and organized and then proceeded to select the members of the committee.

Frank H. Myers of the Real Estate exchange was elected chairman and A. J. Toms secretary of the organization. The council has passed the ordinance ordering the submission of the bonds, but if the committee's report is unfavorable an effort may be made to repeal the ordinance.

RAILROADS ADVERTISING AK-SAR-BEN FESTIVITIES

The railroads operating out of Omaha have hung more than 250,000 advertisements of the Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben carnival during the last ten days. Most of them are one sheet posters of the red, yellow and green variety, and are hung in depots, hotels and stores along the lines, out a distance of 200 miles from this city.

To boost the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities this year the railroads have extended the advertising territory, and the passenger men are anticipating a better business into the city than during any time in the past.

DIVORCE MILLS GRIND OUT SOME SEPARATIONS

Decrees of divorce have been granted in district court as follows: To Grace Ann Parrish, from Ralph M., on grounds of cruelty and non-support; to Ethel Stenburgh, from James, with $500 alimony settlement and custody of minor child, Emma, on grounds of cruelty; to Edna L. Haaker, from Walter R., by default, with $500 alimony settlement, on grounds of cruelty and non-support; to Marie Landquist, from Walter, on grounds of non-support.

Sheep Shipments Starting to Come

The range cattle along the line of the Union Pacific have not commenced to move in large numbers, but there are heavy shipments of sheep coming to the Omaha market. Those coming now are mostly from Idaho and are said to be in prime condition. The Wyoming sheep will not commence to move to market much before the first of next month.

On account of the range having been in the best condition this season and last winter being a mild one, the flocks have increased rapidly during the last year and the shipments this fall are expected to be the heaviest in five years.

OMAHANS WILL MAKE A TRADE VISIT TO WYOMING

The Omaha Commercial club has perfected plans for its trade trip into Wyoming. The party will consist of some thirty to fifty of the business men of the city. They will occupy two standard sleepers and will leave over the Northwestern the afternoon of September 26. From here the Omahans will go direct to Douglas, where they will put in one day at the Wyoming state fair. After that they will go to Casper and back to Orin Junction.

En route home the Omahans will come by way of Cheyenne, where they will remain one day, returning over the Union Pacific.

GRAIN EXCHANGE WILL NOT BUILD THIS FALL

The Omaha Grain exchange has decided not to erect its buildings this fall. The excavating, however, will be made, and the foundation will probably be put in. Work will stop then until next spring, when construction of the building will start.

The new home of the Omaha Grain exchange is to be eight stories high and will cover a ground space, 120x125 feet. The 120 feet will be along Harney street. The architect is working on the plans, but it will be ninety days before they are completed.

NORTH SIDE OF FARNAM TO BE BUILT SOLID OVER MILE

Up to a few days ago there was but one piece of vacant property between Twenty-fourth street and the Missouri river on the north side of Farnam street. That piece is soon to be no more, and the street is to be a solid block of business places for a distance of twenty-four blocks. The vacant lot belongs to Ed Phelan. Through the firm of A. P. Tukey & Son he has just leased it to a firm for a location of an automobile establishment. A brick building, one story high, 80 feet by 122, is to be erected on the site.

SOURBEER PLEADS GUILTY; SENT TO PENITENTIARY

F. L. Sourbeer has pleaded guilty in criminal court to the charge of larceny from the person of Henry McKenny and has been given an indeterminate sentence of from one to seven years in the state penitentiary. The prisoner admitted that his victim was under the influence of liquor at the time the $35 was taken.

KILISZEK CHARGED WITH SELLING INDIANS LIQUOR

Arrested on a charge of introducing liquor to the Indians at the government school at Grouse, Neb., John Kiliszek has been brought to Omaha by Chief Deputy Nicholas and turned over to United States Marshal Weaver. Kiliszek declares he is not the man wanted, but evidence to the contrary is said to be in possession of the authorities.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES TO MEET SATURDAY NOON

Douglas county republican candidates are to have a fellowship luncheon at the Hotel Rome Saturday noon. They desire to get together to talk over the campaign and get acquainted with each other. All the candidates for county offices as well as the county legislative ticket are to be there.

Mrs. Rawitzer Denied Monthly Allowance

Application of Mrs. Nellie Keeline Rawitzer for a monthly maintenance allowance of $50 out of the estate of her late husband, Al. H. Rawitzer, who took his own life, has been denied by Probate Judge Bruce Crawford. The latter ruled that an ante-nuptial agreement made by the two was valid, and that therefore the widow must secure her share of the estate under that contract. The ruling was without prejudice to the right of the minor child to apply for maintenance, the judge explained.

LABOR LEADER FEIDER STOPS OVER IN OMAHA

C. M. Feider, labor leader, who three years ago had local labor circles in a ferment by reason of the proposed Sunday closing of barber shops was in Omaha for a few hours. Mr. Feider is now located in Los Angeles. He is on his way to Peoria, Ill., to attend a convention of the International Bridge and Structural Steel Workers and later will go to Indianapolis to attend a barbers' convention.

J. L. Nicodemus of Los Angeles accompanied Mr. Feider.

FINED FOR TRYING TO TAKE HIS SPITE OUT ON HORSES

Frank Lutchal, a laborer, was fined $50 and costs, and in default was sent to the county jail, because witnesses accused him of having poured carbolic acid into the manger of several horses belonging to Gus Graniewski, 2729 South Twenty-fifth street. Lutchal, it is said, had been discharged by Graniewski, and used the acid for revenge. None of the horses was hurt.

IOWA TRAINS ARE RUNNING ON SCHEDULE TIME AGAIN

The railroads across Iowa have about recovered from the effects of the floods of Monday and trains are again practically back on time. Railroad men report the heaviest rains in years and considerable damage done to the bridges and the tracks.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Jacob Reimers and wife of Elwood, Ia., in the city.

Sam Moody, passenger traffic manager of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, went through Omaha on the Northwestern-Union Pacific en route to St. Francis.

Tom Memminger, democratic state senator from Madison county in 1896, now a resident of Oklahoma, where he also became a state senator, is in Omaha visiting with Mayor James C. Dailman and City Clerk Thomas J. Flynn. Mr. Memminger is on his way to Madison county to look after business interests.

"I never know where my husband is," said the unhappy looking woman.

"Oh, well," replied the neighbor who had called around to sympathize, "you have the same comfort that I have. You know your husband is not going to break the law and get into serious difficulty."

"I'm not sure that I don't wish John were more reckless. If they put him in jail, I'd at least know exactly how he spends his evenings."—Washington Star.
