WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 19.-(Special Telegram.)-By winning the first game of a double-header here today Dan Tipple, Rourke's star twirler, accomplished his seventh straight victory. In essaying to make it eight even by pitching the secend contest, the youngster fell down, Wichita getting away with the long end of a 10 to 3 score

The Omaha lad was invincible in the first game, holding the jobbers to three scattered hils, but two men reached second base. O'Rourke walked in the first and stole second and singled in the fourth and again stole. Slagle was pitching almost as good ball for Wichita and the only score to count was Thomason's home run in the fourth inning.

The Rourkes missed a chance to count a second run by slow base running. In the eighth O'Rourke's error put Schliebner on and Seabaugh sacrificed. Tipple doubled to center, but Schliebner was thrown out at the plate on the relay from
