Battle Lasts Seven Days.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—Telegrams from Petrograd the correspondent of the Havva News agency says that among the engagements preceding the capture of Jaroslau by the Russians, that at Sadovia, in Vietsia, was the most important.

The fight lasted seven days without interruption. The Austrians were entrenched on the summits of some wooded hills rising from a broad and unsheltered plain. The Russians were forced to charge across this open plain against a raking machine gun fire. Their losses were tremendous and they were repulsed many times, until finally their guns found the range. Then their charge was successful.
